Good news for our Patrons

We are pleased to inform you that the manufacturers of a number of lines of merchandise sold in this store have announced decided price reductions on their product.

We hope and believe that these reductions are permanent.

In accordance with our policy during the thirty-three years we have been in business, we, in turn have reduced the retail prices of the affected lines.

Among the lines which have been reduced are - Gingham, percales, prints, tennis flannels, muslins, cambrics, shirtings, sheets and pillow cases, dress serges, dress flannels and wool dress fabrics.

A general reduction has been made in silks and satins owing to the recent 'break' in the raw silk market, and the financial panic in Japan which was immediately reflected to every silk manufacturer and jobber in America.

Various lines of women's shoes and hosiery have also had their prices lowered.

In every instance where the manufacturers prices have been reduced, you'll find our prices lowered in proportion.
