In spite of the bad weather the chapel of the Pleasant View Luther college was filled last night when the pupils of the music department gave their last recital of the year. The program was long and varied and was executed in an excellent manner. The recital was given by those who received their diplomas and was one of the finest ever heard at the college. The program follows:

Gavotte and Murette (from suite in D minor).....E. D'Albert
 Miss Clarissa Johnson.
 Concerto No. III in C minor, first movement.....Beethoven
 Miss Alma Brye.
 Organ, Mrs. W. C. Paisley.
 Vocal solo.....Selected Joseph Thompson.
 "Emperor's Etude".....Chopin
 Miss Alma Brye.
 "Rondo Capriccioso" (duo for two pianos).....Mendelssohn
 Misses Alma Brye and Clarissa Johnson.
 Gavotte-intermezzo, Louis Victor Saar
 Miss Clara Johnson.
 Mrs. W. C. Paisley, organ.
 "Praise the Lord" (original composition).....
 Alma Brye, Joseph Thompson
 "Pastoral Variet".....Mozart
 Miss Clarissa Johnson.
 "Rigolette".....Verdi-Liszt
 Miss Alma Brye.
 "Pleasant View College Song".....
 Mrs. W. C. Paisley
 Class of 1920.

The June meeting of the ladies of the First M. E. church will be held at the home of Mrs. David Arentson on the north bluff Friday evening, June 4. The aid meeting will be held during the morning and at noon a picnic lunch will be served to which the husbands will be invited. The afternoon will be given over to the missionary meeting and the program will be in charge of Mrs. C. M. Kille. A large number of ladies are expected to be present and extensive preparations are being made to make this meeting and luncheon one of the most successful ever held. A large number of the ladies will meet at the church at 10 o'clock and will be driven to Mrs. Arentson's home.

A surprise wedding shower was held on Miss Anastasia Crane last evening at the home of Miss Emma Case on West Lafayette street. Miss Crane is to be married the middle of June to Levi Baxley, an ex-soldier residing on Phelps street. About twelve guests were present. The evening was spent with music and luncheon. The house was prettily decorated in lavender and white and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The bride to be received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mrs. Lawrence M. Lacey entertained the members of the All Round Bridge club yesterday at the Nuechum on Paul street at a 1 o'clock five-course luncheon. Covers were laid at the long table for fourteen guests. The color scheme of blue and white was carried out in the serving of the meal. The center piece for the table was a large bouquet of white carnations. The luncheon was one of the most delightful of the smaller parties given this year. In the afternoon the guests motored over to the Lacey home on Congress street, where they spent a very enjoyable time playing bridge.

Mrs. Anna Cole entertained a party of old friends at her home on Marcy street yesterday. The affair was in the nature of an old English tea and was given in honor of her house guest Mrs. Scott Barnard of Philadelphia. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Johnson, Mrs. E. P. Johnson, Mrs. Jesse Robinson, Mrs. Emerette Barnes, Mrs. Lou Pemberton, Mrs. Scott Barnard and Mrs. Anna Cole.

About thirty young people will journey to Marselles in a hay rack tonight the guests of Misses Cora and Birdie Newberry. The young folks will stop at a farm house and will be entertained and treated to a supper by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Newberry, uncle and aunt of the hostesses.

A very interesting business session of the American War Mothers' organization was held yesterday afternoon in the Odd Fellows' hall. Seven new members were taken in the organization. A short business session was held, followed by an informal social hour.

SENATE HECKLED BY WOMEN DEMANDING HELP FOR IRELAND

DISTURBERS EVICTED FROM GALLERIES AFTER CRIES OF "DRIVE ENGLISH HUN FROM IRELAND"—CLAIM OUTBREAK WAS NOT BY PREARRANGEMENT.

Washington, June 2.—The United States senate was heckled from the galleries today by a dozen women sympathizers with the cause of Irish freedom.

Stated in the four quarters of the gallery floor, the women began their volley of inquiries when Senator Brandegee, republican, commented, speaking against the Armenian mandate, made a passing reference to the "ravishes of the Hun."

"Why not eject the English Hun from Ireland?" shouted the first interrupter.

"Didn't give my boy to—" began another woman, but an usher pounced upon her before she finished the sentence.

Under the sharp orders from Vice President Marshall the ushers had put out a half dozen of the disturbers and restored order when the questioning suddenly broke out afresh.

"Why don't you put them out?" asked the vice president. "Haven't you enough nerve to remove them?"

"You haven't enough nerve to go against England, not any of you," replied one of the women as she completed a hasty exit under escort of an usher.

During the disturbance, which continued several minutes, Senator Brandegee tried with moderate success to go on with his speech.

Several of the women were taken to the capital guardroom, but quickly released. They professed ignorance of senate rules and said their questioning was not by prearrangement.

Two women later gained admittance to the floor of the house and, standing in the middle aisle, shouted an appeal for Ireland. Both were hurried to the corridors, members assisting the doorkeeper.

Simultaneously five other women—Misses Moyra Quinn, Kathleen Savage, Mary Ferriek, Helen O'Brien of Boston and Mary McCarty of New York—sprang up in the galleries, challenging members to deny their appeal for Irish sympathy. Their cries were answered by cheers and hisses, while proceedings were suspended until they could be ejected.

Representative Blanton, democrat, Texas, asked that the sergeant at arms take the women into custody.

"You can't do that, the whole crowd can't do that," one of the women shouted.

Others joined in their demands that they be heard. Doorkeepers attempted to take them out. They ran around the galleries, however, and it was several minutes before they were finally ejected.

WHEN NERVOUS AND RUNDOWN

Advances, Ills.—"After a hard and serious illness I was restored to a perfectly healthy condition through Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription which I took as a tonic. It proved to be such a splendid tonic that I have taken it many times since then—whenever I have been nervous and run down and it has never failed to strengthen and build me up in health."

"I can also speak just as highly of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' as a blood purifier and a medicine that is safe to give to little children. When one of my daughters was only a year old she had profuse sores all over her head. I gave her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it healed up every blister and her hair grew nice and thick. She has grown to womanhood and has never had any return of blood disorder of any sort since that time. I give the 'Discovery' all the credit due it for this cure and take pleasure in recommending it."—Mrs. Etta Lewis, care Miss. P. M. Roberts, R. R. 1—Box 31.

Quincy, Ill.—"I am glad to tell what Dr. Pierce's Anurie (for the kidneys) has done for me; it is a fine remedy. I had been a great sufferer with my back and hip for years but 'Anurie' did wonders for me. I have taken two small bottles and now tell everyone what a good medicine it is!"—Miss Stella Steckdall, 1502 Jefferson St.

Too Much Appetite

may be as dangerous as too little

When the skin is sallow or yellow, the eyes dull, the head aches or sleep broken and unrefreshing, the back aches, or there is a pain under the right shoulder blade—it is an indication that the body is being poisoned by poorly digested and imperfectly eliminated food-waste. It is a wise thing to take ISKO is the electric roll-maker. It is automatic and needs no caretaker. The current it uses costs less than ice. Protects ice cubes for table use. Fits any refrigerator.

It is simple enough to prepare against the rigors of winter by putting in coal during the summer months. But to store quantities of ice against the withering days of summer has hardly been practical for the home. With ISKO electric refrigeration you put in your cold for the summer, for the whole year around, in fact; for ISKO delivers cold upon demand and its service is never restricted by strikes, ice shortages, or delivery delays.
