WILL BREAK RULE ON FUNDS DRIVE

Rock Island Chamber of Commerce has received many inquiries regarding the attitude of the chamber toward the Salvation Army campaign...

Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce, as the sponsoring party of the Rock Island Community fund, hereby goes on record as standing squarely on its declaration of endorsing but one fund and one campaign for social and welfare work in Rock Island...

The allowance made the Salvation Army, amounting to $2,000, was in the same ratio as the allowance made other participating organizations in order to keep the total amount of the entire budget within the limits of the total amount of money the committee thought could be raised.
