Society Girl (to author)—So glad to meet you. I've heard you spoken of so often and have read all your books as they came out.

Popular Author—You are so kind.

Society Girl—And your latest book, "Peggy Blossom," isn't it too grand!

Author—Really, you are too kind, Madame.

Society Girl (dreamily)—Oh, the ending, the ending. It was clever, delightful, enchanting.

Author—Ah, and how did you like the beginning?

Society Girl—Why, I haven't gotten to that yet!

NEVER AGAIN

"Oh, Percy, dear, your birthday gift was so beautiful!" remarked the young lady, with her best smile. "And you unintentionally left the price mark on—thirty dollars."

"Oh, how careless of me!" replied Percy.

"And I see you bought it at Payne's. Now, I know you wouldn't mind taking it back and exchanging it for one of those thirty-dollar muffs they have in the window, would you?"

"Oh, not at all; with pleasure."

An hour later that young man was lamenting the foolish act of buying a present for ten dollars and sticking a thirty-dollar label on it.—Top-Notch.
