

828 BODIES FOUND—PROBES BEGIN

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 4, NO. 255

Chicago, Tuesday, July 27, 1915

398

HOYNE HAMPERED IN INVESTIGATION BY HIDDEN INTERESTS

Ship Owners Control Federal Inspectors, Says Andrew Furuseth—Rockefellers and Steel Trust Back of the Great Lakes Ship Companies.

EASTLAND'S TOLL

Bodies recovered .....	828
Bodies unidentified .....	9
Western Electric Co.'s list of missing .....	413
Total known dead and missing ..	1,241
Estimated number on boat, at least .....	2,550
Approximate number of saved ..	1,000

Who were the business interests trying to take away from State's Att'y Hoyne the power and the evidence to prosecute those guilty of the Eastland sinking?

Andrew Furuseth answers. He is president of the International Seamen's union. He has been in Washington every session of congress for twelve years trying to get safety laws for seamen and passengers. He says the two biggest shipowning interests on the Great Lakes are:

1. The Rockefellers.
2. The Steel Trust.

"It paid these interests to have a United States steamboat inspector.