

out by Att'y Myer Stein as argument why the federation should be destroyed.

Today is the big day in the school board-Teachers' Federation scrap. The board trustees will meet this afternoon and the resolution to oust the teachers' union will be put before them.

If the ouster is passed the teachers have two chances to hold their place in the schools and still organize. One is a court order supporting their claim that the board has no right to say what organizations a teacher may belong to.

The other is the matter of appointment of new trustees. If Mayor Thompson in filling the vacancies left by those trustees whose terms have run out places persons who favor the federation on the board, the action which is expected to day can be rescinded.

Favorable action from the mayor is expected by labor. Mayor Thompson, John Fitzpatrick, Edward Nockles and Victor Olander of the Chicago Federation of Labor got together yesterday. The labor men asked that favorable trustees be appointed.

Margaret Haley saw Senator Canaday of the Baldwin school investigation committee yesterday. She told him of the proposal to oust the federation and Canaday came out against it. A fair trial for the federation was the least that could be expected, he declared.

ANOTHER PASTOR THREATENED

Another Gary pastor of pro-Teutonic sympathies—this time an Austrian—has been threatened with death. Rev. Geo. G. Bendik, Holy Trinity Roman Catholic church, today turned over to police a letter threatening him with death unless he ceased his pro-Teutonic utterances.

Rev. Bendik was close personal friend of Rev. Edmund Kayser, murdered Lutheran minister, murdered, it is believed, because of his activities for German cause.

AMERICAN POSSE KILLS OROZCO

Washington, Sept. 1.—One of five Mexicans killed Tuesday by an American posse near El Paso has been identified positively as Gen. Pascual Orozco, Chief Bielaski of the justice department investigation bureau was advised today in telegrams from special agents on the border.

With the thrilling story of the giant Mexican leader's last stand came news of hurried arming of quickly organized bands of ranchmen and rangers to protect residents in the Big Bend district from expected attacks of Mexican sympathizers who are said to be on the warpath to avenge Orozco's killing.

Late Monday the posse discovered the Mexicans camped in a deep valley. They surrounded the camp and poured a stream of lead into the band. After an hour's exchange every member but one of the raiders was killed. Orozco was the only one remaining and he was wounded. From behind a boulder he continued firing until he exposed his body when, weakened, he leaned out too far to sight his rifle. Three bullets tore into his body and he fell dead.

Orozco was arrested with Gen. Huerta several weeks ago, but escaped while at liberty on ball.
