

ONE CENT—NOON EDITION—ONE CENT

ALL THE LOCAL NEWS—FULL UNITED PRESS SERVICE—IS HANDY TO READ

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 93

Chicago, Monday, January 17, 1916

398

INDUSTRIAL COMISH IS NOT GETTING RIGHT PRESS BACKING

Manly Tells How Some Papers Refuse to Print News
Facts on Industrial Situation—Explains Real Cause of Youngstown Riots.

The whole steel industry is ripe for a strike. Strikes will come with increasing violence unless—

A further wage increase of 20 per cent is granted, an eight-hour day is established and the system of industrial terrorism, established by the steel trust among its 230,000 slaves, is abolished.

This is part of the report of George West, a former newspaper man, to Basil Manly, secretary of the U. S.

committee on industrial relations, who unfolded it to the Chicago Federation of Labor yesterday.

Manly asked the federation to appoint a Chicago committee on industrial relations and that this body co-operate with the central organization at Washington. After his talk Pres. John Fitzpatrick was instructed to do this. Manly said:

"The main committee is reaching 2,000 newspapers. Some of the papers have refused to publish the facts