

BASEBALL—SPORTS OF ALL KINDS—BOXING

Charlie White leaped back to the brightest spotlight last night, knocking Young Saylor out in the first round at Boston. Charlie swung his left before the battle was a minute old and Saylor crumbled to the floor. When he dizzily arose the Chicagoan whipped over a right and Saylor went to the canvas and stayed there.

It was a sensational ending to what was expected to be a fairly even mill, and wiped out the memory of the poor showing White made against Matt Wells recently in Milwaukee. Last night he was in perfect trim, weighing only 133½ pounds at 5 o'clock, after spending the afternoon at the theater.

White has done all of his best battling in Boston. He is a favorite with the fans there and their acclaim seems to act like a tonic on him. As a result of his quick victory last night a movement is now afoot to match the challenger with Kid Lewis, the crack British lightweight, who also has been doing some wonderful work in Boston.

In all Conference football camps final touches are being put on the gridiron warriors for Saturday's contests. Illinois, Chicago, Wisconsin and Minnesota are working carefully for these crucial games.

Scrimmage for the year has ended at all four institutions. Illinois is optimistic because Pogue went through a tussle with the freshmen last night and came through the ordeal without injury. It is now assured that Zuppke will have both Clark and Pogue, the most sensational duo of open-field runners in the west, in prime condition for the Chicago game.

Wisconsin is not dismayed by the stories of the strength of the Gopher team. The Badgers all season have looked like a better team than the scores of their games indicate. Jubau has his team intact for Saturday and believes his people have a chance. But it will take a marvelous line to stop Bierman, Wyman and Sprafka.

Blake Miller and Jerry Deprato, two of the best men who ever played football at Michigan Agricultural college, have been barred from athletic competition because they played with a Detroit eleven last Sunday. Miller was also a basketball and baseball player.

In the handicap 18-2 billiard tournament at New York George Sutton defeated George Slosson and Welker Cochran downed Joseph Mayer. Both winners are Chicagoans.

Clarence Jackson of Detroit defeated John Moore in a game of the Interstate Three-Cushion Billiard league, 50 to 45.

Garry Hermann has been re-elected president of the Cincinnati Reds, apparently spiking rumors of dissension between the chairman of the national commission and stockholders of the team.

Gus Christie of Milwaukee stopped Tommy Gavigan in the sixth round at Fond du Lac. Christie's aggressiveness was too much for the Cleveland man's guard, a knockdown being scored in the first twenty seconds of fighting.

Tom Gibbons, brother of Mike, gave Harry Greb a sound thrashing in ten rounds at St. Paul. Greb was groggy and all but out at the finish.

The Carlisle Indians are getting their bumps, but Carlisle football still lives.

Lonestar, old Carlisle tackle, is coaching Washington State University under the name of Dietz. His team beat the Oregon Aggies, who beat the Michigan Aggies, who beat Michigan.

Exendine, old Carlisle backfield star, has turned out a good team at Georgetown. Jim Thorpe is coaching at University of Indiana. Just after he took a hand the team braced
