Store Manager Makes Statement—Three Men Have Narrow Escape.

Frank Carlin, 2017 N. California av., was instantly killed at 7:55 this morning by a Marshall Field & Co. elevator. Three other workmen who were in the elevator pit where the accident happened narrowly escaped.

The four men had been cleaning pits of elevators which run only from the first floor to the three basements of the building. According to a statement given a Day Book reporter by David M. Yates, manager of the store, all of these elevators had been ordered to stand at the first floor until the men were out of the pits.

"A Mr. Weber is the foreman of the elevator operators," said Yates. "He was on the first floor when the
