

ver. He has been giving it lots of work.

Fred Mollwitz is the only rival for Vic Saier at first, and Fred is not as good as Vic.

The club at opening date will look much as it did last year, with some additions to the pitching staff and some good utility men.

The players who were on the train were: Vic Saier, Larry Doyle, Bill Wortman, Charley Deal, Rollie Zelder, Cy Williams, Max Flack, Earl Smith, Leland Benton, Wm. Dillhoefer, Fred Mollwitz, Al Demaree, Nick Carter, Phil Douglas, Vic Aldridge, Wm. McTigue, Herbie Hunter, Edward McGinnis, Arthur Shay, Steve Yerkes, Harry Wolf, Merwin Jacobson, Maurice Schick, Mike Prendergast, Jimmy Sheekard, Frank Murphy, Welton Ehrhardt and Manager Mitchell.

There is little use in playing out the big league seasons. Hughie Fulerton has begun doping how the teams will finish.

Illinois A. C. and Mystic A. C. will battle in the finals for the Central A. A. U. basketball title at the I. A. C. gym tonight. In semi-finals Tricolor defeated Hebrew Institute, 27 to 15, and Mystic downed Seward Blues, 29 to 22. Both battles were rough-house affairs, fouls being frequent and fist fights being narrowly averted. The crowd broke on the floor at one period and strong action was necessary to prevent a brawl.

Grover Alexander, Philly pitcher, is seriously considering a circus offer of $1,000 a week for 35 weeks. He conferred with President Baker of the Phils yesterday, demanded $15,000 for the season and was offered $10,000. There was nothing doing. Alex is said to desire Jim Archer, Cub hold-out, as a battery mate in the circus stunt.

Pal Moors broke his arm in the fourth round of a fight against Jack Wolf at Cleveland, the bout going to Wolf.

Johnny Dundee outfought Frankie

Callahan in ten rounds at New York.

Harry Kabakoff fought a draw with Bantam Champion Pete Herman at St. Louis. Herman was outpointed at the start, but finished at high speed.

The proposed fight between Les Darcy and Al McCoy for Madison Square Garden, New York, March 5, is definitely off. Jack Dillon will be Darcy's opponent, according to present plans. And that means a much better battle. The Hoosier light heavyweight should be able to give the Australian as good an argument as any man in the ring.

George Schaefer, New Trier High, the national interscholastic plunge champion, will be the star attraction at a tank meet tonight at Kenilworth between New Trier and Grand Rapids Y. M. C. A., Michigan champions.

Bert Tredick, Conklin's, defeated Charley Ward, Leffingwell's, 50 to 40, and took the lead in the Chicago Billiard league.

Hugh Heal defeated John Moore, Chicago, 50 to 49, in a game of the Interstate Three-Cushion Billiard league at Toledo.

Basketball Scores

Phillips heavies 34, Tilden 9.
Phillips lights 37, Tilden 6.
Parker heavies 23, Englewood 19.
Parker lights 17, Englewood 13.
Marshall lights 42, Harrison 4.
Crane lights 29, Austin 4.
Lane lights 16, Senn 3.
Bowen bantams 12, Hyde Park 10.
First Nat. Jrs. 36, Sacramento 5.
McLaren A. C. 34, Independent 12.
The Romeo team, Sweitzer cup winners, and the Normals, City league champions, were presented with cups and banners at a dinner at the Grand Pacific hotel last night. John F. Byrne, president of the City league, was toastmaster, and the speakers were Rob't M. Sweitzer, Clarence Rowland, manager of the White Sox; Jas. Callahan, manager of the Pittsburgh National league team; Judge John Prindiville and Judge Jos. Mahoney.