ADOLPH SILVER GIVES SELF UP—BLAMES BROTHER MAX

Adolph Silver is back. He gave himself up to State's Att'y Hoyne yesterday when he arrived from Los Angeles.

He was very bitter against his brother Max, upon whose shoulders he places all the blame for the looting of the Silver banks.

"I turned the business over to Max under an agreement in which I was to get $400 a month for the rest of my life," declared Adolph. "Max must have got away with about $80,000."

Eleven grains of radium were produced in the United States last year.
