

ALLIES PLEASSED BY U.S. ACCEPTANCE OF PLACE IN LEAGUE

ENTENTE, IT IS POINTED OUT, HAS GREATER STRENGTH AS RESULT OF HARDING DECISION TO SEND ENVOY TO COUNCIL.

Washington, May 9.—Acceptance by the United States of the invitation to have representation on the council dealing with world economic settlements is regarded by some diplomats here as strengthening the hand of the allies in their dealings with Germany. They also look upon it as having cleared away much of any doubt that may have existed as to the attitude of the United States.

President Harding in his message to Lloyd George of Great Britain accepting the invitation has made it clear these diplomats say, that the administration while retaining its determination to abstain from participation in purely European affairs, proposes that the United States lead the council and aid in effecting the readjustments growing out of the common victory over the former central powers.

The presence of American representatives on the council, the conference of ambassadors, and the reparations commission, they believe, will facilitate the settlements, and, at the same time, aid in clearing away any misunderstandings which have arisen between the United States and the allies with regard to some of the settlements such as Anatolia.

As these diplomats view it, the situation is clearer than it has been at any time since the senate failed to ratify the treaty of Versailles.

The allied governments are known to have taken the position that an attitude of extreme aloofness by the United States would give encouragement to Germany in resisting the demands made upon her. They also are understood to have held that this more refusal of the United States to transmit Germany's counter proposal on reparations did not quite meet the situation that had arisen.

Intimation of leaders in the house of representatives that action on the Knox peace resolution probably will be delayed until the present situation overseas has clarified is received by the allied diplomats as furnishing evidence of the solidarity of the United States and its former associates in the war.

Foreign affairs are expected to occupy some of the attention of the senate this week and there are indications that the acceptance of the allied invitation may come in for further discussion. Sen. Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, is to call up his proposed change in senate rules to shield secret sessions on treaties as well as nominations, and the debate is expected to branch into many avenues.

American relations abroad also are expected to come in for extended senate debate late this week when the naval appropriation bill is taken up.

ARGENTINA IS NOW VALUABLE OIL CENTER

Rosario, Argen., April 28.—Reports in oil circles here that, as a result of the rich discovery of oil in the Comodoro Rivadavia field, Argentina may become one of the world's great sources of oil. The well No. 128 which came in on February 28 with an initial production of about 1,000 barrels an hour is continuing to flow at an approximate rate of 1,000 barrels daily. The Comodoro Rivadavia oil production area is located in the territory of Chubut, in the region called Patagonia, and is more than 500 miles southwest of Buenos Aires. It was discovered in 1907 when a deep test was being made in an effort to locate a water supply. The government, exercising its ownership of mineral rights, set aside 12,000 acres of land in the district and began the work of exploring the field. Later other 12,500 acres were reserved.

Since that time 1.8 wells have been struck and production has gradually increased up to the present. In 1920 the total production was more than 1,000,000 barrels. The oil is heavy with small percentage and contains a small amount of gas. It is used principally as fuel oil, being sold to a number of industries in the country. Oilfield depths are between 1,500 and 1,800 feet.

Well No. 128 was brought in, all the wells had shown small production although several of them were gushers and had an initial production that passed the 1,000 barrel mark. Practically every well drilled found oil in paying quantities.

Outside of the government's reserved area there is some production for private companies. Several Argentine companies that plan to burn oil instead of coal or wood recently made a contract with one of these companies and have undertaken an extensive campaign of explorations.

BRITISH COLONIES WILL NOT TOLERATE TREATY AGAINST U.S.

SAYS LONDON PAPER IN ARTICLE AGAINST ANGLO-JAPANESE TREATY HAVING AS ITS OBJECT OPPOSITION TO UNITED STATES.

London, May 9.—British overseas dominions would not tolerate an Anglo-Japanese treaty having as its object opposition to the United States, declared the Weekly Spectator today. The newspaper devoted considerable space to a discussion of Anglo-American relations and Japan and offered views to show that an alliance between England and Japan was never meant and never could be used against America.

"Yet we have still now left the most important question on our side undiscussed, the newspaper continued, even the most widely imperiled and aggressive of Britain's not completely with pleasure, the knowledge of the British empire and its dominions in a single instant. We all know perfectly well that would be the result if we failed to help America. We must be prepared to support some rights of our own but in order to help the Japanese. The moment at which a war was declared the league that united us with our dominions would be broken."

"If the people of Australia and New Zealand were asked, which side they were going to be in a war between America and Japan they would not hesitate a second. They would not waste time in reading diplomatic papers or considering legal points. They would say: 'With our own flesh and blood. If the poor old mother country has gone and we cannot help her, we are deeply sorry but if things have come to this pass we must reluctantly take the leadership of our sister dominions, rather than be forced to help the Japanese to take such a plain class by assault.' Good heavens, what are you talking about?"

"The same emotional message of opposition would run from one end of Canada to the other with similar vehemence. There could be only one plea for Canada in this fight between Japan and America—by the side of America. While South America would have the same answer, Nor would that be all. The moment they realized what had happened thirty-nine per cent of the population here would be signing the same government for the annihilation of Japan against their own flesh and blood."

The Spectator asserted one of the reasons for continuing the alliance with Japan had been the hope of power, to be able to help enter Japan's markets should it become closed on a point of honor.

The Weekly Spectator, one of the oldest established British weekly papers, published in 1921, is published in the United States as a weekly magazine, making an annual volume in politics and an appendix in original articles critical and explanatory comment on public events. It is owned and edited by John S. L. Bradway, who had been a journalist in London since 1884 and who from 1906 to 1909 was editor of the Cornhill magazine. He is widely known as a publicist and is the author of several volumes of public questions.

Brings in $328

While the rooster was gobbling up corn to appease his five hour hunger, Mrs. Leah L. Klein of Chatham, N.Y., collected a fine fish for each of her two children. The fish, collected at No. 283, and the $328 collected went to the women's auxiliary of the local American Legion.

PLANES TO BOMB SHIPS TAKEN FROM GERMANY

New York, May 9.—Two airplanes which for eight weeks have been practically dropping bombs on German submarines near the Redway naval station, have arrived at Hampton Roads, Va. where they were taken from Germany last week. The planes were in an aerial bombing test. The planes made the flight in the early afternoon and news of their arrival was received here today.

Early-Day Peddler

An itinerant peddler of centuries ago was the man who sold your tinware for you. In these days there are no peddler business men, but there is a man who is running into town to do your shopping. He does a business that is a professional one, and he makes it his business to buy what you need. He was known as a peddler, pedlar, or peddler, and from these words the modern names resembling them have sprung.

GIANT AIR PLANE DE LUXE CRASHES ON FIRST FLIGHT

MACHINE CAPABLE OF CARRYING PASSENGERS WRECKED IN ACCIDENT AT MILWAUKEE—OCCUPANTS ESCAPE UNHURT.

Milwaukee, May 9.—Alfred W. Lawson's giant airplane De Luxe, the largest air passenger carrier in the United States, was wrecked Sunday in a fall of 875 feet. Mr. Lawson and three others in the ship escaped unhurt.

The huge airplane, capable of carrying 300 passengers, was taking on its first flight to New York via Chicago. A considerable wind direction made the ship slow in leaving the ground and the pilot was forced to pull it into the air before motor fly-bug speed had been obtained.

At an altitude of 875 feet the ship lost its climbing capacity and in spite of the urge of the three Liberty engines started to settle. Waterfalls on the ship suddenly came down on the pilot's head in rather flying speed.

The ship was too steep, however, and the plane's tail wing struck a tree top. The branches entangled in an instant, tearing it off.

While the lateral control came, the ship was helpless. It began to slide east almost into the home of John Budler, 915 Blinn avenue. A fire pump caught the right wing, however, shattered it and brought the ship crashing to the ground. The engine switches had been cut just before the final crash, so that fire was prevented.

Mr. Lawson had planned to build a number of ships similar to the one wrecked yesterday. These were to carry mail and passengers. Last night he said he would continue his program. He said he believed he might use some material in the wreckage. The ship was valued at $75,000. The damage is estimated at $8,000. At Chicago, May 5.—Miss Margaret Pearson and a mechanic named Carson were killed and Lieut. E. A. Locking was seriously injured yesterday when an airplane piloted by Carson fell at a local aviation field.

Are You Looking For Prosperity?

Lay aside all prejudice for one week and take a season trip with me To Old Virginia. The third richest state in the union. The fourth state in the U. S. for good roads. Where prosperity abounds on all sides. Where corn is selling now in open market for 90c per bushel and other grains in proportion. Where you can borrow 60 per cent of the purchase price of a farm. Where farms are under a high state of cultivation, with good improvements, on which have been raised: Corn, yielding from 50 to 100 bushels per year per acre; Wheat, yielding from 30 to 35 bushels per year per acre, and from which Clover and Alfalfa Hay has cut from 3 to 5 tons per year per acre. These farms are located close to good cities and markets, and every acre of the land can be worked with a gas tractor. They are located along good roads, close to Churches and Schools, and all are well watered. If you are looking for a farm, either for a good investment or to move onto, we would suggest that you investigate some of these farms we are offering for sale. Here are a few of the hundreds of thousands of acres we have for sale: 100 acres, located about 2 1/2 miles from a city. One-half of the property is under cultivation, the other half having thereon oak timber. There are good improvements on this property. The price is $100 per acre. 400 acres of the best quality of land in the state, located along hard road in a valley, has natural drainage and from level to gently rolling. Nearly all the land is under cultivation. The farm has good improvements, and is a real bargain at $100.00 per acre. 125 acres of the best farm land that can be found in Virginia, located about 4 miles from a thriving city of 7,000. There are good buildings on this land, and the farm is a real producer. We will sell it at $100.00 per acre. 112 acres of land, about 3 miles from Fredericksburg. This farm has fair improvements. The land is level to gently rolling, and has good water. The price of this farm is $100.00. This is one of the best farms that we have for sale, and it is certainly a good property. 150 acres of land located 3 miles from a city, along a good road, close to schools and churches, has on it a first-class set of improvements, and the quality of the soil is the best that can be found anywhere. Reasonable price and terms to suit. Cherry Hill—in Old Virginia, containing 410 acres. This farm has on it a first-class set of improvements. It is ideally located for a stock and dairy farm. This is your opportunity to own one of the best farms that can be found in the United States. It is fenced and cross-fenced, and a man could pay for it in a few years, raising stock and raising. The price of this farm is $100.00 per acre, with a cash payment of $5,000.00, the balance of the purchase price to be carried 5 years at 5 per cent interest. We furnish an abstract of title to each farm sold, showing a good merchantable title, and convey by 3/4 of general warranty, and furnish each purchaser with a plat of acres, allowing the exact acreage purchased. 300 acres, 1 mile from Pingree, North Dakota, level black loam, clay subsoil, large grove and fruit trees, never failing water, all fenced, one-half section hog tight, $15,000 worth of improvements, electric light plant, litter carrier for barn, over $18,000 equipment including 23 head of horses, one Registered Sire Stallion, 75 head cattle, 2 Registered Short-horn bulls, 25 hogs, full set farm implements, feed, seed and lot of potatoes. OTTAWA HAS A Lens Grinding Plant

Ottawa has depended on Chicago for its Ophthalmic Glasses and we were compelled to wait from two days to a week to get glasses after ordering them, and often this was a hardship on people who needed glasses badly.

This will not happen again as we have installed our own lens grinding outfit, and can grind any lens the day ordered.

It will be possible now for you to come in and have your eyes tested and get your glasses the same day. If you break your glasses we can duplicate them in one hour. That's as good service as Chicago gives, and makes us two days at least ahead of all others.

We invite you in to see our outfit as it is absolutely the best and latest lens grinding machinery on the market, we will demonstrate the process a lens goes through to fit the eyes.
