SAYS MURDER DEFERRED ROOM FACING OFF OF J. BELTON KENNEDY—L OF MYSTERIOUS EN'S VISITS TO HIS SUITE.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 3.—A. B. hotel clerk, was a witness for the trial of Arthur C. Burch in the trial of Arthur C. Burch. Burch is charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy here.

Burch was employed at a hotel across Broadway from the Kennedy. His testimony regarding the securing of a front room a few days before the shooting and the conduct of the tenant during the intervening days.

Burch remained in a room on one side of the hotel for a week. He was visited by a woman who said she was keeping him. He was unable to identify the woman, but gave a description. Mrs. Madelyn Main was indicted with Burch in the state has said it would identify her as the woman who visited the hotel.

Burch sat for hours at a time gazing out his hotel window across the street from Kennedy's office between Oct. 1 and Aug. 5. Niles testified that Blanche Rogers, a chambermaid in the hotel, testified that a woman Burch in this room. Niles described the visitor. The description of Mrs. Obenchain.

Miller, superintendent of the hotel, testified that he saw a man looking toward the hotel from a room in the hotel which occupied and declared the man resembled Burch. Defense attorneys who have argued insanity as a part of their case, emphasized in cross examination witnesses that the man who kept watch would "look fixedly" at the hotel.

William C. Pilger, mechanic, employed at an automobile rental park, identified a man he identified as Burch in an automobile from him for the week beginning July 25, and signed same "M. C. Obenchain" to a slip. Mrs. Obenchain was arrested thus at a downtown hotel at the time, according to testimony, the name of the hotel was given her, address of the automobile on the rent slip.

Defense attorneys introduced panoramic photographs from an airplane of the section very Glen surrounding the Ken-cottage where the shooting occurred. The photographs were hung in the courtroom for the guidance of the jury.

Invalid Granted Divorce.
Mrs. Christine Knutson, who for twelve years has been an invalid, riding in a wheel chair, was granted a divorce decree from Engle Knutson, alias Edward Knutson, of Minnesota on grounds of cruelty in the Circuit Court this morning. Mrs. Knutson was unable to come into court, depositions in her behalf being read by her attorney. She alleged that she has been a helpless cripple for more than twelve years, and charged the defendant with drunkenness and with beating her several times while he was intoxicated.

Mrs. Knutson was given the property where she lives north of Seneca. She and the defendant were married in 1884 and lived together until the day before Christmas in 1916. According to the bill, they are the parents of five children.
