

NICK-NACKS KOLUMN

Let Us Have Peace on Earth. People are always expecting to get peace in heaven; but you know what- ever peace they get there will be ready-made.

This is the glad season of the year when the plumber gets square with the iceman.

Tailors make wedding suits, but lawyers make divorce suits.

The woman who weds a bag egg need not expect to enjoy the matrimonial yolk.

Family heads who shot their roll on Christmas things will be unable to get in on the January clearing sales.

That critic who asserts that twelve women cannot be found to agree on a verdict in a jury trial doubtless can find 10,000 women who will agree that he is wrong.

Happy thought for today—Income tax schedules are getting ripe.

Ottawa's newer clothes pressing industry, the Bell Pantatorium, has a good "ring" to it.

Fred Fulton says he is entitled to another fight with Jack Dempsey. Otherwise Fred is resting easy, and ought to be around again in a few days.

Cable dispatches tell us there is rioting in India. Let's hope they don't Bombay.

True to the Proverb. Sub-head—"Shot to death, he refuses to give name of assassin." His excuse, no doubt, being that dead men should tell no tales.—Boston Transcript.

It takes a mighty smart man to pretend that he is crazy and to act that way, when his life is in the balance.

Of course, a man does not know that he is "cuckoo" until his lawyer tells him he is.

Life's Divisions. In an average life of seventy years, not counting the first ten, over twenty-one years are spent in sleep, over sixteen in work, eleven months in dressing and undressing, and seven months in church going.

When business is dead it means more work for the undertakers.

Remember, Away Back, When— Philip Schoch Sr. conducted a harness shop on Columbus street, in one of the wood frame buildings north of Godfrey's store?

The Real Big Ben. Big Ben, the famous clock in the tower of the house of parliament, London, automatically sends a signal each day to Greenwich. It rarely varies so much as a second.

But our Big Ben doesn't behave as well.

Come on, you old timers. How is your memory today? Let's hear from some of the old boys who lived here when Ottawa was in her prime. What have you got?

Slim pickings today. This is all the dope we can scare up. "WAT?"
