SCHRANK IS KEPT OUT OF 'MOVIES'

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 18.—It was intimated today that the reason for having John Schrank's ball increased to $15,000 was to prevent moving picture men to have him released long enough to obtain a series of picture films.

The district attorney says picture men will face contempt proceedings if they persist in carrying out their enterprise. For the first time since his incarceration, Schrank asked how Roosevelt was, and if the bullet had been located.

"The bullet belongs to me," said the prisoner. "I have made a will and bequeathed it to the New York Historical society with a request that it be placed on exhibition in the rotunda of the capitol at Albany."

HOLD COAST SOCIALISTS WHO LIASED ROOSEVELT

Portland, Ore., Oct. 18.—Indictments have been returned by the Multnomah county grand jury against the group of alleged socialists admitting responsibility for having written, printed, and circulated a pamphlet attacking Theodore Roosevelt and his family while he was in Portland recently on his western campaign.

All the men who signed the pamphlet have been embraced in the indictment, and two others who did not join in this committee's work, but are charged with complicity, are named by the grand jury. Arrests are being made on the warrants issued upon the indictments. The socialists involved declare that all of those accused will come forth and stand trial for criminal libel and slander.

CHARGE JOHNSON WITH ABDUCTION

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Jack Johnson, champion pugilist, is charged with abducting Miss Lucile Cameron, 19, in a warrant sworn out by the girl's mother today. Johnson was arrested and locked up, but later released. The champion appeared furious because of his arrest.

ROOSEVELT IS ABLE TO SIT UP FOR HOUR

Physicians Greatly Encouraged by Gains by the Patient.

DANGER NOT OVER YET

Remote Fear of Latent Infection—Colonel Is Anxious to Go Home.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Colonel Roosevelt awoke at 7:25 this morning, full of vim, vigor and vitality. In all he slept about seven hours, which he declared with more than he was accustomed to. His temperature was normal, his color good, eyes bright and manner animated. The colonel told his nurse he had a "perfectly bully night."

An official bulletin issued at 9:30 this morning stated Roosevelt's general condition was so good he would be allowed to sit up an hour today. Convalescence is progressing favorably and unless some latent infection manifests itself his progress should be rapid. His pulse was 70; temperature, 98.4; respiration, 18.

SUFFERS NO PAIN.
The patient suffers no pain because of pressure of the bullet against the fractured rib. The rib itself is now believed mending rapidly. All indications are the wound is healing normally. The bullet is gradually being isolated by a new growth of tissue. When the colonel awoke at 7:25 he wondered whether the physicians would decide to remove the missile. He said that in that case he would have it glided and made into a pocket piece.

"I'm getting anxious to get back to Armageddon, boys," was Roosevelt's greeting to his physicians this morning. The remark kept them at the hospital. His anxiety to get back into the campaign was sharpened by the continued favorable tone of the physician's bulletin.

MAY LEAVE TUESDAY.
Aware of this, the physicians were not inclined to make a definite promise, but the general tone of conversation appeared to center around a likelihood of his leaving for Oyster Bay Monday or Tuesday. While danger of sepsis, it was agreed, would be sufficiently gone tonight, there was still the remainder of the eight-day period in which lockjaw might appear. The physicians made it clear to the colonel they would like him to remain until next Thursday. This the colonel declared impossible unless gravity of the situation not yet forecast made it imperative.

JOHNSON DISMISSES GUARD.
Governor Johnson, who arrived today, dismissed 25 policemen assigned to protect him, saying: "The vice presidential candidate is too small to warrant a police guard."

Governor Johnson visited Roosevelt at 11:30. "Keep the fight going full blast, Johnson. Don't let our boys slack up because I can't be with them for a few days," was Roosevelt's parting injunction to Johnson when he left the hospital.

HOOR IN EASY CHAIR.
After Johnson had gone, Roosevelt sat in an easy chair an hour. It was denied today Roosevelt would leave for Oyster Bay Monday or Tuesday, provided there was uninterrupted improvement. At noon his condition was so unchanged his physicians did not consider it necessary to issue a mid-day bulletin.

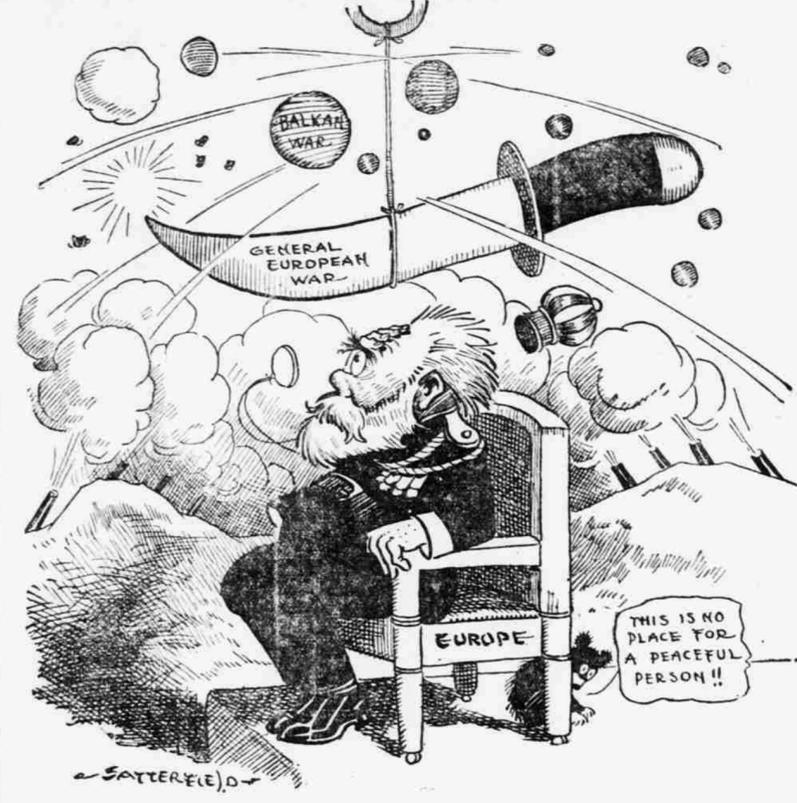

GREECE JOINS IN WAR DECLARATION

London, Oct. 18.—Notification that Bulgaria, Serbia and Greece had declared war against Turkey was given to the British foreign office today by representatives of those countries. The only formality lacking is a declaration of war by Turkey against Greece, which the Ottoman government had appeared reluctant to do. This little detail, however, is not delaying movements of the various armies. There were many rumors of heavy fighting on the Bulgarian and Serbian frontiers. Servians, Bulgarians and Turks were alternately credited with victory. It was reported the Montenegrin army suffered a bad defeat at Podgoritz. All these lack confirmation.

ATHENS, Oct. 18.—The Greek fleet sailed tonight under sealed orders for an unknown destination.

Cabinet Refuses to Quit.
Mexico City, Oct. 18.—The chamber of deputies last night voted down a resolution introduced by the opposition Wednesday night demanding the resignation of the cabinet.

MODERN DAMOCLES

DEATH PRICE B. RUGH PAYS FOR HEROISM

Former Rock Island Cripple Expires in Hospital at Gary.

SAVES LIFE OF A GIRL

Gives Up Useless Leg for Her—Carried Off by Attack of Pneumonia.

Gary, Ind., Oct. 18.—"I guess I'm some good, after all," were the last words of Billy Rugh, the 41-year-old cripple, whose withered leg was amputated to save the life of a girl by a skin grafting operation. Rugh died today of pneumonia, due to irritation of the lungs by ether given when his leg was cut off.

Rugh contracted pneumonia late last week while he was lying near an open window in the hospital. It was a bright, sunny day. He was surrounded by flowers which Miss Smith, the fire victim, and her parents had sent to the man who saved the girl's life. The young woman has recovered sufficiently to leave the hospital.

SMILES TO THE LAST.
The patient's lungs were so congested last night that he found it difficult to breathe. He attempted to talk to his nurse, but failed. The best he could do in the way of communicating with the nurse was to smile. Although he realized he was in grave danger, Rugh found no difficulty in smiling.

Within his reach was a note from Miss Smith and a bouquet. Rugh seemed to be well entertained in reading the note and rearranging the flowers. He managed to whisper a few words, but was advised to make no effort at talking.

"I don't care as long as she gets well," he whispered.

Rugh's temperature at 8 o'clock was 102 and his pulse 100.

MANY INQUIRIES.
When the report spread through the town that the newsboy hero's condition was critical the hospital was besieged by visitors, anxiously inquiring for his condition. The hospital telephones were kept busy all night long.

It is now about three weeks since Miss Smith, a Gary society girl, met with the accident which would have caused her death but for Rugh's heroism. She was riding on a motorcycle with her fiance when the gasoline tank exploded. Her body was burned so badly that physicians said she would die unless extensive skin grafting was done.

BECKER HELD PLOT VICTIM IN NEW YORK

Known as Enemy of the Gamblers, Counsel Tells Jury.

ROSENTHAL INFORMER

Alleged Litter Is Put Away by Associates, Who Then Involve Officer.

New York, Oct. 18.—John W. Hart, counsel for the defense, addressed the Becker jury today. He said the defendant was an innocent man and in no way connected with the gunman who committed the Rosenthal murder. The "defendant," Hart continued, "will prove the evidence adduced against him is absolutely false. He will prove Webber, Vallon, Rose, and Schepps conspired to kill Rosenthal independently of Becker, each with his own independent motive for so doing. He will show Becker knew for months the gamblers had it in for him. He asked many times to be transferred from his post at the head of the strong arm squad."

ROSENTHAL DETESTED.
"Among those who brought information to Becker was Rose. There were others, too. Rosenthal, himself, had a reputation for being an informer. He was the most thoroughly detested gambler in the city. We will prove Rose lied in almost every particular on the stand." Hart characterized Schepps as "that eminent gentleman, opium smuggler and murderer," and added, "We will show that these conspirators had already gotten rid of Rosenthal, one of two men they hated, Lieutenant Becker, by false evidence, conspiracy and perjured testimony."

JEROME WITNESS.
William T. Jerome, former district attorney, was the first witness, but he was not permitted to testify he heard Becker hold a telephone conversation with any one or call Rose on the telephone. Commissioner Waldo was not sworn. He said he directed Becker to raid Rosenthal's place. Waldo was not allowed to testify whether Becker applied to him for transfer from the squad or be taken from the work of raiding gambling places. Waldo was excused without cross-examination.

COOK, IOWA.—With the depositing of the last bucket of concrete yesterday the great power dam was joined to the powerhouse on the Iowa side. It extends nearly a mile across the Mississippi river from the Illinois bluff.

This is one of the great engineering achievements in the United States, including as it does a powerhouse three times as large as any ever built, developing over 300,000 horsepower on the 39 turbine shafts, and a lock of the same width and of higher lift than at Panama.

RESOLUTION ENDORSING COMPULSORY PAY DUES AT LEAST TWICE A MONTH AND A MINIMUM WAGE SCALE FOR WOMEN WERE ADOPTED.

MOOSE MAN IN TIRADE AT FUNDS PROBE

Medill M'Cormick Calls Hilles an Assassin of Character.

HALTED BY COMMITTEE

Even Clapp, Roosevelt Supporter, Refuses to Tolerate His Assertions.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Medill McCormick of Chicago stirred up a sensation before the Clapp committee today when he read a prepared statement touching upon the attempted assassination of Colonel Roosevelt, and declaring it had been incited by "falsehoods of character assassins and liars like Charles D. Hilles."

"It is difficult for an ordinary man in the compass of ordinary language to compete with testimony of character assassins and liars like Hilles, who, by falsehoods, made weak-minded men to actual assassinations," was the passage that brought a stormy protest from the committee in which Clapp joined.

ILLINOIS MOOSE EXPENSES

McCormick argued heatedly that his statement was admissible evidence while Oliver and Clapp declined to allow McCormick to read it and demanded that he withdraw his words. The statement finally was admitted to the record without being read from the prepared copy. The reference to the attempt on Roosevelt's life was incidental to McCormick's general statement of the campaign expenses of the progressive party in Illinois.

"As far as I know," McCormick said, "the cost of the campaign in Illinois was defrayed by Chauncey Dewey and myself. I gave Dewey $15,000. In addition I gave not to exceed $10,000 toward the maintenance of the Chicago general headquarters."

NO HARVESTER STOCK

"During the campaign the Taft people assiduously circulated a lie that I was connected with the harvester trust. I never owned and do not now own a share of harvester stock. I do not expect to own a share. McCormick has testified that Cyrus McCormick has contributed to the Wilson fund. Cyrus and Harold McCormick and the two Deering brothers represent overwhelmingly the largest stock interest in the Harvester company. Both these McCormicks are for Wilson. Both the Deerings are against Roosevelt and I believe one of them is for Taft. Yet Hilles and his associates persistently circulate a lie that the harvester trust spent large sums for the Roosevelt campaign. Beside the holdings of the Deerings and McCormicks, Mr. Perkins' are so small as to be negligible. Counsel for the trust is for Taft."

WANTS DIRECTOR CALLED

"I demand that the directors of the Harvester company be called to testify as to what candidate they are supporting; that Hilles be recalled to appraise the money value of North Carolina postmasterhips held up by Taft, that Governor Wilson give evidence as to the truth of the charge that the steel corporation is back of Roosevelt, and that the committee summon directors of the steel corporation to inquire what candidate they are supporting." Asked concerning the attitude of Cyrus McCormick, the witness replied: "That branch of the family is singularly discreet concerning its affairs. Cyrus refused ever so long to permit me to say he was for Wilson."

McCormick denied the steel corporation was supporting Roosevelt.

DOVER UTILIZES 1904 FUND

Secretary Dover of the national republican committee of 1904 placed in evidence what is said to be a list of contributions to the committee that year, given by the late Hilles. It itemized contributions by Harriman, $100,000; "H. H. H.," $100,000; George J. Gould, $100,000; Morgan & Co., $100,000, and many others.

TOTAL IS $2,280,000.

Dover said he made the list from a book Hilles let him see. He said the list undoubtedly contained errors made in copying. He never compared it with the original and believed the list, without verification, was of little value. The list totaled $2,280,000.

COURT RULES FOR A SINGLE TICKET

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—The supreme court denied a petition of the progressives to have the same names of candidates printed on two or more tickets to be voted on in November. The court upheld the Australian ballot law, which limits candidates to one ticket.
