

PRIZES AT FAIR WELL SCATTERED

Many Breeders Won Ribbons on Fine Stock Shown This Week at Joslin.

FOUR BEEF HERDS SHOWN

Premiums on Horses Divided Among a Dozen Owners—Outside Exhibitors Recognized.

There were four herds competing for the prizes offered for beef cattle at the Joslin fair this week. Short-horns, Herefords, Durhams and Red Polled. Wainwright brothers of Zuma secured eight firsts and four seconds on their herd of Shorthorns. They were also awarded first on the grand champion bull, first on the grand champion cow, and sweepstakes on aged herd.

William Moody of Coe won nine firsts and three seconds on his Herefords. The purple ribbon for the best herd of cattle over all breeds was also awarded to him.

Frank Whiteside won three ribbons on Poll Durhams, winning three blue ribbons. Artie Geunig has four head of Red Polled cattle on which he won four ribbons.

L. K. Cleveland of Moline, who exhibited his herd of Brown Swiss cattle, carried away four ribbons besides that for grand champion cow in the Theater AT THE ILLINOIS.

Lovers of an exuberant, romantic play will be interested in the announcement of the dramatization of "Truxton King" which will be presented at the Illinois tonight. In its story form "Truxton King" had a great vogue and a new succession of triumphs is predicted for the stage version, which has been made by Miss Grace Hayward. The play reproduces the principal episodes of the novel with proper attention to the love passages between the hero "Truxton King" and the heroine, Lorraine Tullis. That it has been deftly done by the dramatist and is in the hands of an adequate company is the word that comes from the points where the new production has been offered.

"The Great Divide," which comes to the Illinois tomorrow night, ran for 500 performances at the Princess and Daly's theatres in New York. It is one of the most profitable dramatic enterprises that has been brought before the public in 15 years. A complete scenic production and a competent cast are promised in the presentation here.

AT THE EMPIRE. "Something out of the usual" is the way the new bill for the first half of the week at the Empire has been characterized. Headed by the five juggling Normans, the performance looks as though it would turn out pretty lively and very interesting. The Normans have been dubbed "speed boys extraordinary" by good judges of vaudeville and promise to live up to their reputation of being speed boys. Jere Sanford, the chore boy, will present his wilful and yodling novelty, "The Millinery Salesman" is the title of a comedy sketch by Joseph Remington & Co. Clinton and Rogers will be here with their classy singing and dancing novelty. They are known as the "Narragansett Pier" couple. Corrigan and Vivian are rifle experts and have a novelty in the way of fancy shooting. The act is said to be away out of the ordinary.

FAMILY, MOLINE. A splendid variety bill has been arranged for the Family theatre, Moline, next week, commencing Monday matinee. Program for the first three days includes the famous Five Piroscoffis, European juggling experts and hat manipulators, who will appear here for the first time. Their work is somewhat on the order of Australian boomerang throwing, although the novelty of using hats and ensemble work of five people creates a vast amount of comedy. Other features of this program are Brunson & Taylor in their comedy playlet, "Graham's Valet"; Miss Blanche Gordon, noted comic singer; Archer & Ingersoll, a clever comedy duo, and Feilding & Carlos in vaudeville's prettiest roller skating novelty. For the last half, commencing Thursday, the bill will be headed by Roland Carter & Co. in their comedy number, "Vacation Days," which is really a satire on life in jail. Other novelties will be Klein & Erlanger, in their pantomimic scenic production, their first appearance in this part of the country. Cervo, piano accordionist; Miss Hetty Urma, billed as "The American Vesta Tilly," and Wilbur & Harrington, a comedy duo.

AT THE MOVIES. Manager Anderson of the Family has a treat for his patrons tomorrow, he will feature a three-reel story of "King Rene's Daughter," a beautiful story of suffering, love and romance, incident to the middle of the 15th century. The blind daughter of Rene is the center of the story, which recounts her years of darkness and the final recovery of her sight and her marriage to Tristan. Altogether there will be six reels offered at the Family tomorrow.

Don't waste your money buying plasters when you can get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment for 25 cents. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment is superior to any plaster for lame back, pains in the side and chest, and much cheaper. Sold by all druggists.—(Adv.)

DR. M'CANDLESS IN THE FINALS

Rock Island Man Contesting With G. L. Burmeister for Handicap Golf Cup.

Rock Island is still in the running for the honors in the men's handicap golf match at Rock Island arsenal links, the tournament being the concluding one of the season. Dr. A. H. McCandless of this city is this afternoon contesting with G. L. Burmeister of Davenport.

Dr. McCandless won his way to the finals yesterday by defeating Ed Magler of Davenport, 4 up, 3 to play. At the same time R. S. Hosford of Moline, who had been considered by many to be the most likely candidate for the cup, was eliminated by Mr. Burmeister and by the same score as that returned in the other match of the semi-finals.

NEW PIANO TEACHER ENTERS ON DUTIES

Among the new teachers who have taken up work at Augustana conservatory is Miss Frances Lidman, instructor in piano and voice.

Miss Lidman, the daughter of a clergyman, was born in Princeton, Ill. Her musical education was seriously commenced in the east with Prof. Frank E. Johnson of Boston. Later her parents moved to Minneapolis where her musical education was continued at the Northwestern Conservatory of Music and later with some of the best private teachers of that city. At the age of 14 years she was accepted into active membership of the Thursday Musicals, Minneapolis' leading musical club. Since graduating from high school, Miss Lidman has devoted all her time to studying, teaching and concertizing. In 1913 she graduated from the New York School of Music and Arts in New York city. She received the teacher's certificate which has been given but few pianists in this country. While there she was soprano soloist for some time at Gustaf Adolph's church, and filled many concert engagements, among which were the graduation recital at the conservatory and concerts at Wanne-maker's auditorium and Carnegie hall. She was also the regular accompanist of Madame Staberg Hall, the famous lyric soprano of New York city.

Impossible. An automobile manufacturer tells of a bright young man in his employ who came to him not long ago for a raise in pay. He was a valuable workman, but he was already getting what his employer considered a fair salary.

"How much do you expect and what do you want it for?" he asked. "You have no family responsibilities and should be able to save money on what you are getting now."

"That's the point," said the young man with a smile. "I am engaged to a girl. I only want enough so that I can get married and live comfortably."

"Great Scott, man!" cried the boss. "There ain't no such salary. I'll give you enough to get married on, but that's as far as I can go."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Thirty thousand voices—what a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Rock Island people are in this chorus. Here's a Rock Island case: Mrs. E. Weiss, 823 Fourth avenue, Rock Island, Ill., says: "All I say in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills with holds good. I had been troubled by kidney disorders for some time. There was an acute pain across the small of my back which made it hard for me to bend or do any lifting. I had headaches and dizzy spells. A member of my family had been cured of an attack of kidney complaint by Doan's Kidney Pills so I decided to try them. After the first few doses I got relief and soon I was free from the trouble."
