NEGLECTS WOUND; DEATH IS RESULT

Italian Laborer Employed by C. R. I. & P. at Silvis Dies in Bank Car.

CORONER HOLDS INQUEST

Injury to Finger Followed by Blood Poisoning—Physician Called at Last Moment.

Blood poisoning, due to a neglected injury to a finger, caused the death yesterday afternoon of Gianni Palmicasso, an Italian employed by the Rock Island road as laborer in Silvis. His death occurred in the bank car in which he and his companions made their home. An inquest was held in the evening by coroner R. C. J. Meyer at the Schafer undertaking rooms in East Moline and the verdict was in accordance with the foregoing.

How the injury was sustained none of the laborers associated with Palmicasso appears to know. In the beginning it probably was only a slight abrasion of the skin. No attention was paid to it and swelling set in and the injured man was eventually confined to his bunk.

PHYSICIAN FINALLY CALLED.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Louis D. Baeding was called by some of the bunkmates of the patient. Going to the car the physician found the case an almost hopeless one. The swelling had been communicated to the arm and body and the patient was in great pain. Dressing the injury as best he could the physician left to make arrangements for the removal of Palmicasso to the city hospital and when he returned half an hour later the man was dead.

Palmicasso was 35 years of age and is said to have a wife and children in Italy.

FALLS THROUGH A PLATE WINDOW

C. P. Skinner Slips and Plunges Head Foremost Into Glass—Hands Cut.

Charles P. Skinner plunged head foremost through a 10x10 plate glass window at the entrance of the Tri-City Piano company's display rooms on Fifteenth street, near Fifth avenue, yesterday. Spectators who helped him out of the debris thought for a time he had been seriously injured, but it was found that cuts about the hands constituted practically the only damage inflicted. His hat saved his head from injury.

Mr. Skinner was walking rapidly as he approached the window and his foot slipped on the steel floor at the entrance. To save himself he thrust his hands out against the glass, which gave way with a crash and he fell through the opening. He was given first aid at the Lindvall drug store.

WYLAND RELEASED ON A HEAVY BOND

SWEARS TO NEW COMPLAINT AFTER PAYING STIFF FINE

After being fined $54.85 for assault and battery yesterday, T. Thueneyck, proprietor of a boarding house in the New Shops addition to East Moline, swore out a warrant for disturbing the peace against Louis Laybne, the complaining witness. Laybne has been boarding with Thueneyck and Saturday night the landlord gave him a fearful beating. In police court the complaining witness appeared with his face swollen and discolored, showing the severity of the drubbing he had received. Thueneyck plead guilty.

Going to Road Congress. E. W. Woodcock of this city has been selected to represent this county at the American good roads congress to be held at Detroit during the week of Sept. 29.

ONE DAIRY IN 78 IS BLACKLISTED

Inspectors Find Improvement in Sources of the City's Milk Supply.

Of the 98 dairies furnishing milk to the city, inspected during the last few weeks by inspectors John Wiedeman and John H. Wood, but one has been found in such bad condition that it was thought necessary to resort to the blacklist.

Repeatedly warned that he must change his methods of handling milk the proprietor of this one dairy has always replied that the city of Moline can't tell him how he shall run his business and so no improvements have been made, according to Commissioner E. L. Eastman. Notices were sent to this man today to discontinue sending his product to this city and the peddler, who has been handling his milk, was warned that he must cease handling the supply of this particular dairy on pain of forfeiture of license.

While a number of the other dairies inspected were not in as good condition as they should be it was thought that all except the one mentioned would pass muster. Some of these dairies are located in Henry county.

As a result of the inspection eight peddlers whose licenses have been withheld till conditions laid down by the health department were complied with will be duly authorized to distribute milk in Moline. In all these cases the suggestions made as to correction of insanitary methods were heeded and the desired changes made.

FIRE DESTROYS BARN WITH A LOSS OF $100

Fire, the origin of which has not been explained, destroyed a barn and a number of outbuildings in the rear of the home of Oscar Johnson, 2413 Fifth avenue, at 4:30 Monday afternoon. The loss is $700, partly covered by insurance. Contents of the barn were valued at $200. Considerable headway had been made by the fire before the department arrived and little could be done beyond preventing damage to surrounding property. Several sheds which were already ablaze were destroyed, in addition to the barn, of which only a few timbers of the frame were left standing.

SUE TO COLLECT SMALLPOX BILLS

Prospect Which Faces Holders of $2,000 Claims Against East Moline.

Those having bills against East Moline incurred during the smallpox epidemic last winter will have to sue to collect. This is the general impression that has resulted from the turning down of the claims by the board of supervisors last week. A majority of the aldermen take the view that if the county will not pay the bills, amounting to nearly $2,000, it is up to the township to meet them. They contend that bills for cases in the township outside of the city would be paid for by the township and that the city would be compelled to stand by its share, thus furnishing basis for a claim that the township should accept liability in the cases which happened to have occurred in the city.

The bills are for groceries, doctors' fees and fuel furnished free to afflicted families while they were under quarantine. The city council is expected to take some formal action with reference to the bills at its next session.

CHURCH TO OBSERVE PAYING OFF OF DEBT

Payment of the last of the indebtedness of the First Christian church will be celebrated Thursday evening with the burning of the mortgage. A program in which a number of outside pastors will take part has been arranged. The last of the debt was paid off a week ago after a campaign in which $700 was raised, giving a nucleus for a fund for an addition to the building. Rev. Robert E. Henry of Niantic, Ill., who was pastor here at the time the church was built, will be present, and other pastors coming are Rev. M. E. Chatley of Rock Island and Rev. John T. Houser of Davenport.

OLYMPICS AND ILLINI TO USE BROWNING FIELD

Sunday afternoon football games at Browning field this fall will be those participated in by either the Olympics or the Illini teams. Other elevens will be compelled to yield to these organizations and play either in the mornings or as curtain raisers to the main contests. This has been decided by Commissioner L. O. Jahns. The Olympics will open the season Sept. 28 and the Illini will have the following Sunday. The two will thus alternate through the season. The only other elevens asking for recognition are the Blue Blazers and the Crescents, both newly organized.

HEAD OF STATE LUTHER AT QUARTERLY MEETING

J. Axel Nelson, president of the Luther league of Illinois and member of the executive committee of the Luther league of America, will be the chief speaker at the September quarterly meeting of the tri-city district league this evening in the First Swedish Lutheran church of this city. The program will be followed by a social hour and the local society will serve refreshments.

BECK, MOLINE PITCHER, IS DRAFTED BY PHILADELPHIA

George Beck, the Moline youth, who has made a rapid rise as a baseball pitcher during the last two years, was drafted by the Philadelphia Nationals yesterday. It had been supposed that either Cincinnati or the St. Louis Browns would get him. Beck played with the Tigers here for several years and in the fall of 1911 had a trial with Henderson in the Kitty league. In 1912 he played with that club all season and last spring he went to Nashville, where he made a brilliant showing. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Beck, 1515 Twenty-fifth avenue.

WOMEN WHO BEAT ANOTHER FINED

Mrs. De Vliegheer and Mrs. De Voorde Guilty of Disorderly Conduct.

Mrs. Julius De Vliegheer and her sister Mrs. Melein De Voorde, who were arrested Sept. 5 after a sensational attack upon Mrs. Van Atte, a widow living near Sixteenth avenue and Twenty-fifth street, were fined $14.30 today in police court, the charge being disorderly conduct. It is probable that the complaining witness will also swear out warrants for assault and battery, a state charge. She has been under the care of a physician since the assault, she says.

Mrs. Van Atte was attacked early in the morning, dragged from her bed by her hair and beaten and kicked by the angry women, according to her story. She had incurred the ill will of the sisters by harboring Mrs. De Vliegheer's two daughters after they had been driven from home by their mother. The two girls, Prudence and Mary, aged 16 and 17 respectively, refused to return home at once and their mother and aunt tried to break into Mrs. Van Atte's apartments, but were dissuaded by a crowd. Next morning they are alleged to have risen early, crawled into the house through a window and made the assault.

BICYCLE RIDERS MUST KEEP OFF SIDEWALKS

The commissioner of public health and safety issued a warning today that prosecution of those violating the city ordinances by riding bicycles on the sidewalks will be the rule from now on. Numerous complaints have been filed, particularly by those who have occasion to walk on Fifteenth avenue, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets.

Injury to Hand.

Fred Masters, living at Eleventh street and Twelfth avenue, Rock Island, lost three fingers of his left hand, which was badly crushed. The accident occurred this afternoon in the Silvis shops while he and a Greek laborer were operating a whip saw. The saw suddenly snapped and rebounded with terrific force, causing the injury. The right hand of the Greek was badly lacerated. The men were brought to Moline on a work car and given medical attention.

Last Meeting.

The Scandinavian Temperance union has decided to hold its last meeting of the summer at Prospect park, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 28. There will be an active campaign made by members of the union this winter, with a view of putting the lid on in this district. Plans for the campaign will be announced later.

An Arab Honeymoon.

For seven days after the wedding the Arab bride and bridegroom are supposed not to leave their room. The bride may see none of her own family and only the women folk of her husband, who wait on her. She remains in all her wedding finery and paint and does absolutely nothing. The bridegroom generally slips out at night after three days and sees a few friends privately, but he persistently hides from his wife's family, and should be by accident meet his father-in-law before the seven days are over he turns his back and draws his burmose, or haik, over his face. This is their view of a honeymoon, and they grow as weary of it as any European couple do of their enforced continental tour.—Wide World Magazine.

Can't Escape Lime Salts.

In answer to a communication from a lay correspondent, who expresses his belief that "the lime in common water has much to do with bringing on old age," the London Lancet says that while that opinion is common, it is, of course, fatuous. To those people who believe that water is the only possible channel by which lime salts are conveyed to the organism the writer says, "Lime salts are inseparable from the common, everyday articles of food, so that if hard water were left out of the diet there would still be secured a large intake of lime salts, which could only be avoided by a hunger strike."

Woman and Clothes.

One can't help thinking what a colorless life a man is forced to lead when one reflects that chiffon and venetian point and hand embroidery and Irish crochet are to him mere empty words, whereas a woman, whether she is interested in babies, or microbes, or husbands, or poetry, or servants, or paralogisms, or gardens, or Plato, or bridge, is fundamentally and always interested in clothes.—"Daddy Long legs," by Jean Webster.

In a Dilemma.

"What are you crying for, Robbie?" "Rob-hoo! Willie's broke his arm, an' if I lick him all the fellers will say I'm a coward!" "Why don't you wait till he's well?" "Rob-hoo! I can't lick him then!"—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

BALLOT SOON TO HOLLAND WOMEN

The Hague, Sept. 16.—There is every indication women will shortly be given the parliamentary franchise in Holland. In a speech from the throne, delivered at opening of the states general, today, the new Dutch cabinet stated its intention of granting the vote to women.

The speech from the throne says a bill is to be introduced removing all constitutional obstacles in the way of granting suffrage to women. The same bill will revise the Dutch constitution in such a way as to extend the parliamentary franchise to all male Dutch subjects reaching a certain age, with exceptions to be determined later. The bill will be prepared without delay.

INDICT FOR SPANKING DAD

President Hanley of Franklin College Must Answer Charges of Attack.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 16.—Rev. Elijah M. Hanley, president of Franklin college, late yesterday was indicted by the Vigo county grand jury on a charge of assault and battery, growing out of his attack on his father, Calvin Hanley, on last Thursday. President Hanley is said to be at Franklin, Ind., and the Rev. C. M. Parker, a member of the board of trustees of the institution, told court officials last night that Hanley would appear when wanted.

The Hanging Judge. When Lord Norbury, "the hanging judge," as he was called in Ireland, was sentencing a man to death for stealing a watch he said: "My good fellow, you made a grasp at time and caught eternity."

Nothing seemed to please Lord Norbury more than the continual uproar in court created by his puns. "What is your occupation, my honest man?" he asked a witness. "Please, your lordship, I keep a racket court."

"So do I," said the judge.

When Lord Norbury was being buried the grave was so deep that the ropes by which the undertaker was letting down the coffin didn't reach to the bottom. The coffin was left hanging midway while somebody went for new ropes.

"Aye," cried one in the crowd, "give him, rope enough, don't stint him. He
