STANDBACK BOYS! LET THEM FIGHT

Civil War Renewed at Watch Tower Saturday When Masons Clash on Diamond.

This evening The Argus has an announcement of world-wide importance. Compared with it the refrains from the world's series resemble an excerpt from the government crop report of 1782. The official line-up of Rock Island lodge No. 658 has been placed in the hands of the sporting editor. There, you have it. The great game of the season will be played next Saturday p. m. at the Watch Tower, on which salubrious occasion the local Masonic order will split into two factions and wage civil war on the baseball diamond. Rock Island lodge No. 658 will attempt to batter the aggregation from Trio lodge No. 59 into mince meat.

Manager Bruner of the Rock Islands has just returned from an extensive scouting trip and has sized up all the phenoms from Illinois to Taylor Ridge. Here is the all-star aggregation: Bob Mitchell, left field; H. H. Hensley, third base; H. E. Gelhart, catcher; Harry Holdorf, shortstop; J. B. Jones, second base; Fred Brewin, first base; Oscar C. Oberg, center field; O. Stambaugh, right field; Bruner, the Tanager, pitcher; Harry Welch and old "Doc" Patten, utility men.

In speaking of the prospects for victory, Manager Bruner of fresh-country-egg fame had the following to say this morning after he had consumed his store-bought hot fruit and had journeyed down the main stem.

"My team is in first class condition. I believe I have a 'find' in Bob Mitchell. I discovered him out on Twentieth street and in conversation with him was informed that he once caught a ball. I immediately signed him. Harry Holdorf informs me that the last game between the fats and leans has put him in O. K. fettle for the impending conflict. Not wishing to take undue advantage of our opponents, I have requested that Harry divest himself of his diamonds, as the game might be protested in the event of our winning, on the grounds that the Trio players were dazzled. Brewin will hold down first base. He is a bushier, but I believe we can develop him. Gelhart claims that no one will steal second if Brewin will trip the runners who inhabit the first station."

The rest of the gang are well known and need no introductory remarks. Bruner, the alleged slab artist, has a world's pitching record, hung up in the Fat-Lean game some years ago, when he handed out 265 bases on balls, wounded 46 batsmen and would have struck out a man, only the third strike was a ball.

Big "Bill" Jacobsen has been engaged as umpire owing to his imposing size and general air round durability. Muggsy McGraw has given his consent, and Bill will be out in the center of the diamond with his pants creased in the most approved fashion.

The proceeds of the game will go towards buying furnishings for the new Masonic temple.

BERGER SLATED FOR THE CANNERY

Ex-Islander Will Not Have Regular White Sox Berth Next Year Says "Cal."

Will Joe Berger have a regular berth with the White Sox next year? Probably not, according to a line of dope which Jimmie Callahan has been feeding the Chicago scribes. He does not think that Heinle will do for a regular next season, and Breton, who came from Kansas City, will hardly do as a regular for some little time to come. Hence, he is angling for a new man to hold down the keystone territory. Callahan is anxious to develop the infield material, and believes that with a fast, hard hitting second baseman he will have a great infield to start next season with.

Cal is on the trail of a new infielder, a rah rah boy. The boy has been burning up the diamonds with an eastern college, but his name has been withheld. "According to what I have been told about the boy, and some smart baseball men have tipped him to me, he's a regular second edition of Eddie Collins," says Callahan. Cal makes no bones about stating that Berger, the ex-islander will not do. He believes that if he can land his college phenom he will have a boy who will keep everybody hustling for an infield position in 1914.

"KID" GOLF CHAMP TO BE BANQUETED

Boston, Mass., Sept. 23.—Golfers are planning a big dinner in honor of Francis Outmet, the wonderful 20-year-old golf champion at the Exchange club as soon as the details can be arranged. The matter is now in the hands of Harry L. Ayer of the Braeburn Golf club and A. C. Burnett and Frank C. Root of the Woodland Golf club. All golfers of Boston and vicinity will be invited.

Young Outmet has quit his $15-a-week job in a sporting goods house for a week to take a rest, and plans to spend most of his vacation playing golf. Telegrams of congratulation have been received by him at his Brookline home from all parts of the country.

Mrs. Mary E. Outmet, mother of the modest young golfer, said this morning:

"Yes, I have been told that the great professional golfers of the ability of Harry Verdon and Edward Ray make as much as $25,000 a year, but my boy is not going to turn professional. You know he loves the game for the game's sake. When he is playing golf he is very happy indeed."

"Tub" Hackett All In.

Walter Golvin, stellar first sacker of the champs, writes President Urban from his home in Modesta, Cal. Golvin states that Tom Hackett, leader of the Colts during the early part of the season, is confined to his bed with rheumatism and is in a critical condition. Two years ago Hackett was in much the same shape and retired from baseball. He was reduced to a skeleton and little hope was entertained for his life. He rallied, however, and made another try at baseball this year. Quincy Journal.

MACKMEN CINCH 1913 GONFALON

Rivet American League Pennant by Double Bumping of Tigers, 4-0 and 1-0.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 23.—The Athletics yesterday clinched the American league pennant for 1913 by defeating Detroit in a double-header. Both games were shutouts, the first 4 to 0 and the second 1 to 0.

The first game was devoid of any features. Bush and Dauss pitched good ball, but the Athletics hit better when men were on bases. They made two runs in the second inning, when Baker and McInnis scored on a squeeze play. A run was scored in the third and another in the fifth on hits.

The Tigers had men on bases in nearly every inning, but could not produce the necessary hit. The second game was a pitcher's battle between Dubuc and Plank, who relieved Penneck in the second inning.

The Athletics won the game in the second. McInnis was passed and forced by Walsh. Walsh stole second and scored on Lapp's single. Plank pitched in excellent form, the Tigers not having a single chance to score.

And Connie Mack's $140 infield has gone and done it again. McInnis, Collins, Barry and Baker, the quartet that has made the old Cub infield mere baseball tradition, yesterday won the third pennant in four years, or the fourth pennant in eight years, for the Philadelphia Athletics.

Of course, Oldring, Walsh, and even old Danny Murphy, had a hand in the triumph, but for day in and day out production the infield stands out as the heroes.

Mack didn't have any pitching. Plank exploded a month ago. The Indian, Bender, might not have delivered the way he did it with a weaker team. Houck has done nothing that a dozen young pitchers in the American league have not accomplished.

But Bush, save for a few erratic performances, has pitched some baseball. Shawkey, the Baltimore star, has shown wonderfully since his step into certain world series money from a minor league berth two months ago.

It is only natural that J. Franklin Baker stands out as the individual deserving the most credit. His stick work stood out so plainly and so many games have been won by his timely swatting that the wide margin of victories maintained from early season by Mack may be attributed in a large part to the diligent work of the third baseman.

And what has Mack done this year? He has made a runaway race of the American league season. Only once when the schedule was well on was he ever threatened, and then Cleveland's six-game approach vanished rapidly when the White Elephants took themselves seriously and returned to playing the game as they did before their brief slump.

Mack held a silent fear of Washington during the past month. Undoubtedly, had Griffith's midseason slump not taken place the wily leader of the capital crew would be giving Connie a battle now, and it would be a week or more before the race was decided. But two pitchers, even if one is the best in the world, are not enough to keep a team firing with first place all season.

It seems to be but a question of a few days before the Giants clinch the flag in the National league and the world series arrangements made. The two teams in the big series are not new to the post-season game. They have met before.

In 1905 the Athletics lost four out of five games to the Giants. In 1910 Mack won four of five from the Cubs and in 1911 cleaned up the Giants with four victories in six games.

OLYMPIC SLEUTHS SAIL FOR GERMANY

New York, Sept. 23.—The German Olympic commission, which has been investigating the American athletic system for the past month, will sail for Berlin today.

The commission, consisting of Carl Diem, general secretary of the VI Olympic games; Lieutenant Walter von Reichenau; Dr. Martin Berner and Joseph Walther visited and inspected every large athletic club and university in the east, south and middle west. Copious notes on the methods and system in vogue for the development of track and field athletics were obtained and an exhaustive report containing the commission's observations and deductions will be filed with the German Olympic committee.

Herr Diem said last night that the result of the tour could not fail to be of great value in the development of a German Olympic team for the 1916 games in Berlin.

"After seeing the perfect system which you have in this country," said Diem. "I can readily understand why American teams have won at every set of Olympic games to date. It is really marvelous, and there is nothing like it here."

Kraenzlein will sail with the commission and take up at once the formation of a corp of German athletic trainers who will have direct control over club and university athletics. His duties will be to develop competent assistant trainers in the same manner that Ernie Hjerberg did in Sweden. Kraenzlein, however, will have personal charge of the German Olympic team in 1916, assisted by four other trainers, some of whom are likely to be Americans.

CUBS AND PHILS IN EVEN BREAK

Alexander Wins First Setto, 2-0, but Trojans Come Back and Take Next, 5-1.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—If Heine Zimmerman or Vic Saier had delivered a much-needed blow in the ninth inning yesterday the Cubs would be a half game out of second place tonight and the pennant dreams of one Skipper Doolin would be a thing of the past. As it is the Trojans are still two and one-half contests in the rear, for they allowed the opening battle of a bargain bill with the Phillies to slip away, but cupped the wind-up fracas, 5 to 1. The opening score was 2 to 0.

Alexander, who on Sunday was sent to the dressing-room under a melee of base hits that rocked Broad street in Philadelphia, is not accustomed to being treated in this manner, so he came right back in the first game of the afternoon and, pitching in his slickest stride, blanked the West Siders with three sound hits and one of the Cincinnati variety. The result might have been different if either Heine or Vic had been in a swatting mood, for they had a chance to tie the count in the ninth inning when runners were on second and first with one defunct.

The aftermath was a set-up for the home boys, for they walloped Speeder Chalmers when base hits meant runs and the result was never in doubt, even though the Quakers did get away to a run lead. This was the result of a four-ply swat off the club of Magee, and the ball hit a post in the left field bleachers and bounced out. Magee reached third in the meantime, but when Doolin and his aids raised a yell he was allowed to come home. This margin lasted until the fifth, when J. Evers personally supervised the business of knotting the score.

TY COBB NOW SIGNS U. S. GREENBACKS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—Collectors doubtless will be on the lookout for some national bank notes which were signed a few days ago by "Ty" Cobb, center fielder of the Detroit Baseball club. When the star player was here the other day he visited the treasury department. While being shown through he asked to see some of the bank notes of the First National bank of Lavonia, Ga. Informing the officers in charge that he was a director of that bank and as such was entitled to sign money printed for the institution the ball player placed his signature to several sheets of the notes.

ANNOUNCE FOOTBALL DATE FOR ST. AMBROSE COLLEGE

Rev. J. A. O'Neil, director of athletics at St. Ambrose college, yesterday announced his schedule for the football team this year as follows: Sept. 27—Alumni at Davenport. Oct. 10—Iowa state teachers at Cedar Falls, Iowa. Oct. 18—William and Vahti at Davenport. Oct. 25—St. Joseph's college at Davenport. Oct. 31—Upper Iowa at Fayette, Iowa. Nov. 8—Dixon at Dixon, Ill. Nov. 15—Iowa Wesleyan at Mount Pleasant, Iowa. Nov. 27—Open.

Cards Fight Huggins.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 23.—In signing Miller Huggins to lead the Cardinals in 1914 President Britton has thrown down the gauntlet to a faction of the team at loggerheads with the little manager. At least three stars on the Cardinals only charge that Huggins is incompetent and has ruined a good pitching staff by trying to run them from second base. He aroused the ire of his pitchers, they say, by declaring that Dan Griner was the only smart twirler in the bunch. Huggins also is charged with insincerity, talking too much trade and asking waivers. As a result it is planned to trade some of the best men on the team because the manager cannot manage them.

Plan Yank-Giant Series.

New York, Sept. 23.—If Manager John McGraw of the New York Nationals is willing there will be a series of games at the Polo grounds here between the Giants and the New York Americans next spring before the championship season begins. So says Manager Frank Chance of the Yankees. Chance would like to play the Giants five games after both New York teams have trained in Texas.

MICHIGAGO WINS IN A CLOSE RACE

Finishes in Front by Margin of 22 Seconds in First Tilt for Manhasset Cup.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Lashed by a spanking, cold northwest wind, the Price-Posters sloop, Michigan, yesterday afternoon won the first of three races for the Manhasset trophy in a finish that will go down in local yachting history with the dead heat of last month's Lipton cup races. But 22 seconds separated the Chicago Yacht club racer and the South Shore at the finish buoy and sailors who watched the race declared that had there been a half mile more to go the South Shore would have overhauled the victor.

Michigan not only defended the trophy successfully in the opener against the local racers, but defeated the Rhode Island challenger, Stranger, manned by a crew of salt water "tars." The Stranger, which placed third, ran second until the final leg of the wind-ward-leeward 16-mile course, when the South Shore, which was sailing its first race, came into second place with a phenomenal sprint.

The winning craft was skippered by Fred A. Price, half owner. His work drew commendation from the local yachtsmen that was exceeded only by the reception given Otto Schoenwerk, who brought the South Shore in second. The crew of the South Shore was unfamiliar with their charge, and to onlookers it seemed that Schoenwerk did not get the "feel" of the Thompson syndicate racer until the final leg. Following close upon the Stranger's stern was the Olympian, flying the colors of the Lincoln Park Yacht club, skippered by Commodore James P. Heyworth, while fifth and last came the Mavourneen, second favorite, handled by Roy Barcal.

PENNANT DOPE

Yes, the Phillies can still land the National league bunting, that is, if they go along at a record-breaking clip while the Giants are floundering at a 333 average. While the New Yorkers are going along like this, all that will be required of Doolin and his Phillies will be to win 17 straight; then he can tie McGraw for the lead, and the standing would read:

New York . . . . . 98 54 .645 Philadelphia . . . . . 98 54 .645

The Giants were idle yesterday, so they did not increase their lead of eight games while the Phillies still have the same average due to their even break with the Cubs. If the Giants can travel at a 420 average, this is, if they win six of their remaining games, the Phillies still have to

BASEBALL OUTLOOK DUBIOUS AT PEORIA

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 23.—It is hard to tell whether the baseball situation in Peoria is clearing up or not. Until after the meeting of the stockholders Thursday night no definite idea of the exact status of baseball here can be had. Rumors galore are being circulated, but news of any authenticity is conspicuous by its absence.

The news yesterday that Max Flack had been drafted by the Detroit Tigers was hailed with delight by the directors, who had lost all hope of realizing anything before next season, since Max refused to report to the Indianapolis club. The draft means that the draft price of $1,200 will be paid immediately for Flack, which is only $50 less than the price which would have been paid by Indianapolis next season.

President Meidroth declines to say much about the situation other than that he wishes it was all over. Whatever action the stockholders take will be agreeable to the press, who declares that he will have to be kicked out of the presidency.

Which ever way the holders of the stock vote Thursday night, it is almost a certainty that Peoria will have baseball next season, whether it be organized or outlaw, the fans of the city will support it in the same manner they have in 1913, regardless of attacks made upon it.

Gridiron Player Breaks Shoulder. Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 23.—Barrett, candidate for the backfield on the Western Reserve university eleven, broke his right shoulder in practice yesterday and will be out of the game for the rest of the season. He was a pitcher on the varsity baseball team last spring.

Crushes Chest in Football. Springfield, Ill., Sept. 23.—Bart Lucas 30 years old, of Springfield, suffered a crushed chest in the third quarter of the Auburn-Springfield football game at Auburn Sunday. Lucas was attempting to block a line plunge when the accident occurred. The game was the first gridiron contest in central Illinois.
