A CHAPTER FOR GIRLS and BOYS—The eccentric old gentleman, Santa Claus, veteran saint of all good children, was present and lent his valuable assistance when the bewildering stock of holiday goods, just opened by Phil Saup, was selected. No one but St. Nick himself could have grouped together such a collection of toys and playthings. When he put down on his list those cunning express wagons which are the wonder and delight of boys of all ages, he was thinking of the good boy who never tells a lie, nor runs away from school, nor loses his mittens and who is sure to get one of these wagons for a Christmas gift. When he laid aside that beautiful baby which adorns the show window and which is the magnet of attraction for every little girl who passes that way, he had in his mind the good little girl who is sure to get this doll or another just like it for her Christmas gift. The willow rockers, the chairs, the hobby horses, and the smaller toys, too numerous to mention, need only to be seen to excite a determination in the minds of all the little folks to have as many as they can get. We invite the boys and girls to give father and mother no peace till Phil Saup has been visited, his stock inspected and Santa Claus informed what to send to the little folks. 3f.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1873.—SIXTH YEAR. THE ALDINE. An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Literature.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores. ART DIRECTION. Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when the Aldine assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than double the past year; proving that the American public appreciate a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as indicated by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of the Aldine.

The Aldine will reproduce examples of the best foreign masterpieces, selected from a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs or copies of any kind. The quarterly limited plates for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable sketches, appropriate to the four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July, and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873. Every subscriber to the Aldine, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after the style of the eminent English painter, The pictures, entitled "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14x20 inches, printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions, and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair, in the art stores.

As to the formation of its conductors to keep the Aldine out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found ahead of any that can be offered by other publishers. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be returned. The distribution of pictures of this grade, free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, is an achievement in the history of Art; and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for the Aldine issue, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos, see November issue of the Aldine.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT will continue under the care of Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of the Aldine always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS. $5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free. The Aldine will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agents, with the responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of James Sutton & Co.

AGENTS WANTED. Any person wishing to act permanently as a local agent, will receive full and prompt information by applying to JAMES SUTTON & CO., Publishers, 65 Maiden Lane, New York.
