

THE BULLETIN.

Thursday was windy.

The hall of the Rough and Ready fire company to-night will be a grand affair.

Bob Summers of the Columbus 'Dispatch' came up yesterday to get warm.

Every person not hearing the law, stole a fine mare last week, from the stable of Samuel Lewis at Palaski.

The Athenaeum—the place at which a pleasant hour may be whiled away in the evening. Solida and Mrs. Irwin are really attractive actors, and they boss a first-rate company.

The ladies of the city may prepare for callers to-morrow. We have printed a bushel of call-cards, and are yet at work on others, and the cry still is: "They come."

The 'Sun' says: "Capt. Halliday, on Saturday, started 100,000 bushels of coal to the suffering people of Memphis. May his shadow never grow less." Amen, brother Davis.

Mr. J. H. Williams of the Mt. Carmel 'Register,' has been canvassing our merchants for advertisements. Of course he met with success. Our business men are appreciators of the power of printer's ink.

Unlicensed saloon-keepers, unlicensed merchants and unlicensed draymen will be the attractions of the police court after New Year's day. The police are going for the delinquents with a vim. At least, they threaten to.

The ladies of St. Peter's parish, (Episcopal) Mound City, will give a festival and concert at Stokes' hall on Tuesday night. Proceeds for the benefit of the church. No efforts will be spared to make the evening agreeable and entertaining. 12-29-25

Among the most prominent arrivals at the St. Charles hotel yesterday, were H. B. Gordon, New Orleans; T. J. Pickett, Paducah; W. E. McNeilly, Nashville; W. M. Morton and P. P. Senor, St. Louis; Captain G. J. Grammer, Evansville; E. Buchanan, Memphis; S. W. Lambeth, Philadelphia; and C. W. Finn, Ullin.

This attraction to-night at the Athenaeum, will be Temptation, or the Irish Emigrant, and the farce of Family Jars. Irwin will sustain the character of Bobolink, and Calder appears in both drama and farce. The bill is a most excellent one, and should draw a full house.

Go to Scheel's hall to-night. The Rough and Ready dance.

Mr. Wm. Brown has opened a day boarding house in Budor's block, corner of Eighth and Washington, and is prepared to accommodate an unlimited number with day boarders. Meals will be furnished at all hours of the day in first-class style. The table will be supplied with the best the market and the season affords. For particulars apply at the house. 12-31-1m

If we should organize under the state law, we would lose the services of Colonel Taylor from the city council, he not being a citizen of the state, and this we would much regret to do; but then we have the compensating knowledge, that some gentlemen, not as valuable to the city as the Colonel, will also drop out, at least for the time being.

On Saturday night about twelve o'clock, a thief tried to enter Mr. Lufkin's grocery store. He stole the key from the back door. Mr. Lufkin missed it about nine o'clock. Two men watched all night for the rascal, and he came around about one o'clock; and, reconnoitering, discovered the ambuscade which had been laid for him; whereupon he got up and dusted along the frozen street.

Ambrose Brown, a colored man, one of Hurd & Son's dry drivers, had saved of his earnings $80, and had bought a fine suit of clothes. Ambrose pined for companionship, and took home Andy Johnson to board with him. On Sunday morning, Ambrose looked into his trunk and the $80 and the clothes were gone. And so was Andy Johnson.

Mr. Wheeler has been suggested as a candidate for city attorney at the approaching municipal election, but we do not know that the suggestion originated with his knowledge. Mr. Wheeler has sufficient lawyerly ability to fill the position in a very acceptable manner, and could, we doubt not, be elected; but it is probable he would not like to take this additional burden on his shoulders.

A. Marx has the programme of the celebration, at Wilhelmsbad, a bathing place near Stuttgart, Germany, of the late anniversary of American independence. He was there. Over five hundred Americans turned out in procession, one feature of which was one hundred carriages decorated with American flags. The programme Marx cherishes, and wears it close to his American heart.

A JOCLAR gentleman reported up the Illinois Central, a few miles from Cairo, that a married lady of his neighborhood and a clerk of the same neck of woods, being in Cairo together, had visited the theatre in each others company, and had roomed together. The jocular gentleman has been sued for slander. Damages claimed—the modest sum of $10,000. The clerk says he can prove an alibi—that he was at the famous castle of the Queen of England on the night in question.

Yesterday morning, the body of a dead man was discovered under the high sidewalk on the levee, between Tenth and Twelfth streets. The investigation of the coroner developed the fact, that the deceased had come to his death by sickness resulting from exposure. His name was Mathews. He was from Paducah, and had worked in Eichoff's furniture factory. Leaving Eichoff's, he indulged in a spree, became penniless, and sick, and finally crawled under the sidewalk worn out, and died.

We have been informed that certain citizens are opposed to organizing under the state law because (1) the law is too lengthy, and (2) because it will increase the printing bills of the city. The first objection is as foolish as the second is foundationless. The present charter, with the amendment, printed in the same type, would fill as many pages of the same size; and an organization under the general law will decrease the amount of printing, which even now is far from being large in amount or very lucrative to the printer. Under the law there would only be one body of the city council, elections would occur but once in every two years, and the machinery of the government would be much simplified.

PREJUDICE said, we do declare, that Mr. Pope would make a most efficient executive officer—a first-class mayor. We know how difficult it is to overcome political and personal prejudices, and we know that nearly every Democrat in Cairo hates Pope as if he were the devil, hooped and hooped—hates him as a politician and as a man. We have done much to create this condition of the public mind in this city. We used to think Pope was just a little better than Old Nick, and almost as bad as we thought Munn was; but the fact is, Pope has become modified by acquaintance into a devilish good sort of a fellow; and, more acquaintance has developed him, in our opinion, into a very able young man. He possesses, in a marked degree, the qualities of a man who would make an excellent executive officer, and Cairo might go much farther and fare much worse than by choosing Pope for her mayor.

THE ENTERPRISE SAVINGS BANK of this city was organized and went into business on the first day of September, 1870, and in the two years and four months that have elapsed, its business has been increasing all the time, until to-day it is one of the most important and useful institutions in the city. Hundreds and thousands of dollars have been saved in this city through its instrumentality, and many men, women and children can to-day attribute their present prosperity to its agency.

This institution was incorporated by the state of Illinois, March 31, 1869, and its charter is perpetual. It is in the hands of our best citizens and a deposit in its vaults is one of the safest possible investments. To lay by a portion of the fruits of industry in the time of youth and of health, for future wants, is a mark of wisdom; and, as all are liable to infirmities, provisions to alleviate them is of the highest obligation.

A deposit of one dollar per week will, with the interest allowed by this bank, produce the following results:

Table with 2 columns: Time period, Amount. Includes rows for 10 years, 20 years, 30 years, and 40 years.

Amount deposited in thirty years, $4,277 01. Accumulation of interest on same, 2,717 01. Total, $6,994 02.

Interest is payable September 1st and March 1st only, and on money then on deposit.

The interest, if not drawn, is immediately added to the principal, and thus is compounded in favor of the depositor every six months.—(The Sun.)

For the benefit of our lady readers, who intend to "entertain" on New Year's day, we will name the refreshments which Madame Demorest—good authority—says are offered by the fashionables of Gotham to New Year's callers. Coffee, lemonade, cake and sandwiches comprise the list.

Ladies will find at Burger's, 144 Commercial avenue, fancy goods of all kinds, selected with special reference to the holiday season; men and boys will find all kinds of boots and shoes, and ladies' and misses' shoes that will give perfect satisfaction. Mr. Burger has also dress goods, shawls, skirts, furs of all kinds—such as minks, sables, etc.; all new, just received from the East, and now being sold at very low prices—at figures reduced to meet the demands of the holiday trade, so that the nimble penny may be turned instead of the slow dollar. Call and see for yourself.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! The Rough and Ready Fire Company will give a grand fireman's ball to-night, at Scheel's hall, on which occasion they will be glad to have all their friends, and everyone else, to patronize them. The Roughs are a good company, and our people owe them a debt which they can pay by giving them their patronage to-night. A gay time may be anticipated. Music of the first-class will be there, and a good supper provided. Wine, beer and other drinks of the best quality in abundance. We are assured by the managers that the best of order will be preserved.

ARRIVED. Steamer Glasgow, Hickman Illinois, Columbus. Joe Kinney, Retirement. DEPARTED. Steamer Dexter, New Orleans. City of Chester, Memphis. William Cover, " Robert Mitchell, Paducah. Illinois, Columbus. Crescent City, New Orleans.

CONDITION OF THE RIVERS. The river at this point commenced falling Sunday morning. There has been no ice passing out of the river for several days. The several gorges up the Ohio are still holding tight with no prospects of letting loose. The Mississippi is still frozen over, and a yoke of large cattle were taken over on the ice last week; that is something not often done at this place. The ice is said to be six inches in depth and is clear as a crystal. There is now a splendid stage of water South, and boats are able to load their carrying capacity.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE BULLETIN report the condition of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers at various places.

BUSINESS AND WEATHER. There was a busy time at the landings yesterday among the boats now loading for the South, and large quantities of freight were handled. The weather was cold with a drizzling rain, which has placed the streets and levees in a very muddy condition. MISCELLANEOUS. The Dexter left for New Orleans and the City of Chester departed early Sunday morning with splendid trips. The William Owen left for Memphis Sunday with a tow of coal for Brown & Jones, which will come in place, as the supply of coal at that port has nearly given out since Brown & Jones lost so heavily by the ice smash. Hiram Hill, the submarine diver, went to Belmont last week, and loosened the screws that held the railroad table down under the water, and so arranged things, that the table was raised to the surface of the water. He left for Louisville Sunday, and will go to the sunken General Buell, and will likely raise her.

Mr. Burns, Captain Dugan's diver, had everything ready to go to work at the sunken railroad iron, but the heavy ice and fast rising river compelled him to postpone operations. He left for Memphis, to work at the sunken boats in that harbor.

The Joe, Kinney came to the wharf and commenced loading for Memphis at all way points, and will leave with dispatch.

Capt. Bizby of the City of Alton, arrived from St. Louis yesterday, and reports business up there dull. He will not leave the City of Alton at present. The Warner is having her three barges loaded for New Orleans, and will leave about Saturday.

The Continental, for New Orleans, will leave to-day with a full load. The Robert Mitchell left for Paducah Sunday, where she will try to get a start for a trip to New Orleans.

The Crescent City with three loaded barges was making up her tow, and expected to leave for the South last night. The fine steamboat whistle, formerly on the steamboat Wild Wagoner, and now in the office of Halliday brother's wharf, boat, will be raffled off as soon as all the chances are taken. There will be twenty-five chances at $10 per chance, and those wishing chances can obtain them by applying at the office of Charles M. Howe & Co., Ohio levee. The whistle is one of extraordinary sweetness of tone and can be heard at a great distance. It is owned by Capt. A. C. Goddin, formerly of the Wild Wagoner, but now in business at St. Louis, and as there are several captains trying to obtain it for their boat, Capt. Goddin will give them all a chance to win it.

PHIL HOWARD, STEAMBOAT BUTCHER. City National Bank Building. Special attention paid to orders from steam boats night or day.

KEEP your doors and gates shut with the Dudley spring from Halley's. 12-19-1m TAXES, 1872. The tax books for the current year having been placed in my hands, I would respectfully call the attention of taxpayers to section 103 of the laws of 1872, which provides that where parties own personal property as well as real estate, the personal property must first be destroyed before the real estate can be sold to satisfy the taxes thereon after the first day of FEBRUARY NEXT. It is necessary to destroy for such taxes in conformity with said section. Taxpayers by payment of this notice will save both trouble and cost, as the law upon the subject is imperative. The books are open at my office, Office hours from 9 o'clock a. m. to 5 o'clock p. m. ALEX. H. IRVIN, Collector, Cairo, Dec. 31, 1872.
