STOCKS WEAKENED GRAIN WAS STRONG

Early Recovery Was Not Held On Account of Weakness Abroad—Disposition to Take Profits.

New York, May 4.—The early recovery in the market today following weakness in London did not hold. The disturbance in London was due to bad influence of news of tribal disturbances amongst the Afghans on the Indian frontier.

Wheat Started With Excellent Strength and Corn and Oats Followed Suit, Closing Higher.

Chicago, May 4.—WHEAT—Opened strong on the advance of 3d at Liverpool and a decrease of 4,739,000 bushels in the amount on passage. Later these influences were aided by a decrease of 5,547,000 bushels in the visible supply in America, and the smallness of primary receipts.

Looks That Way. Bacon—"Thought you said your boy was quite a deer shooter?" "Yes, well—" "So I did."

Worshiper's Poe. Alcohol is the foe of the working-man, inasmuch as it lessens his productive powers, thus lowering his efficiency as a workman. It renders him careless and indifferent as to the welfare of his family, and results in the children drifting into the workshop and factory at a time of life when they ought to be gaining the knowledge necessary to fit them for the circumstances of the future. —Co-operative News.

Johannes Grass. If prejudice could be overcome, this is one of the most valuable hay grasses we have. It is at home in our climate and can be depended on to make a crop. It is akin to sorghum and partake, to some extent, of sorghum's hardness. Cut the grass early, just as the first heads appear. If too old it is of but little value.

Novel Farm. One of the most curious "farms" in the country is conducted by Miss Abby Lathrop of Granby, Mass. She has a little piece up among the hills where she raises mice, weasels, ferrets, rabbits, guinea pigs, and water rats. She has in her charge all told about 2,500 animals, and her enterprise has been a success. —Lecturer's Weekly.

What He Had Missed. "Gracious!" exclaimed Mrs. Goodley. "Just lately that clergyman I'm positive he's swearing. Evidently he's missed his vocation."

Quite True. He who learns from experience seldom falls in love with his teacher. —Washington Star.

Uncle Allen. "Some men," muttered Uncle Allen Sparks after the tiresome speaker had sat down, "remind me of an old water mill that's running with empty hoppers. Their wheels keep on going, but they don't turn out any grain."

Chicago, May 4.—WHEAT—Opened strong on the advance of 3d at Liverpool and a decrease of 4,739,000 bushels in the amount on passage. Later these influences were aided by a decrease of 5,547,000 bushels in the visible supply in America, and the smallness of primary receipts. Heavy rains in Kansas and Nebraska checked the advance for a time, but later this factor was ignored. The feature of trading was the fluctuations of May delivery which sold between 10 1/2 and 10 1/4, closing at 10 3/4. July closed 1 3/4 higher. No. 2 red 10 1/2 @ 10 1/4; No. 3 red 9 6/8 @ 10 1/4; No. 2 hard 10 @ 10 1/4; July opened 9 3/4 to 9 1/4; highest 9 1/4; lowest 8 5/8, closing 9 3/4.

CORN—May delivery sold at 70 1/2 which is the highest price since 1902. The advance was caused by operations of a prominent trader, who, it is said, is endeavoring to corner the market in general. The market was strong all day. Wet weather, small receipts, firm call and the strength in wheat were bullish influences. The close was strong, July up 1/2; No. 3 6 5/8; No. 2 yellow 6 5/8 @ 6 5/4; July opened 6 1/4 @ 6 1/8; highest 6 1/4 @ 6 1/2; lowest 6 1/8 @ 6 1/4; closing 6 1/2.

OATS—Firm in sympathy with wheat and corn. There was a good demand from commission houses, but offerings were small. July closed 1/2 @ 5/8 higher. No. 3 white 50 @ 53; July opened 47 1/2 @ 47 1/4; highest 47 1/2; lowest 47 1/4; closing 47 1/2; May 53 1/2.

BROKE THE BOTTLE. Negro's Method of Disciplining Woman Who Had Displeased Him Was Rather Harsh.

Sunday night people on Commercial avenue in the vicinity of Seventh street, witnessed what might easily have been a murder. A lot of negroes who had been on a river excursion were coming home. In front of Sanderson's grocery store one big fellow with a woman companion and who was carrying a basket of bottles, suddenly set the basket down, picked out one of the bottles and struck the woman beside the head with such force that the bottle flew into a hundred bits.

To tell how this great chance can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Cairo readers:

ADVICE FOR TALL WOMEN. Several Methods by Which They Can Decrease Appearance of Height. Theoretically, it is delightful to be a "Gibson girl," but as a matter of fact, it may be anything but pleasant for a woman to be taller than her escort, or in any way out of the average. And it is often a distinct drawback when a girl is more than five feet ten inches in height, and she will do well to decrease the effect of tallness.

When standing or walking the effect of tallness may be decreased by a slight droop of the head. To allow the head to hang in extreme, and accomplishes nothing beyond an unpleasant appearance, while the thinset droop can do wonders. There should be no stooping of the shoulders, however, for this will ruin the figure and make the girl most awkward. She should hold herself erect thought not stiffly so. Marvels may be done in taking off inches by the manner of hair dressing.

Large, high pompadours are to be avoided. This is not to say a tall girl shall not wear one, but it should not be extreme. If she has the type of face to which hair simply parted and brushed back is becoming, this is by all means the coiffure to be adopted. Few can stand it, however, and the next best thing is an inconspicuous style of dressing the plaits flat, not piling them high on top of the head. Better is it to place the mass of hair at the back of the head or on the neck.

Big hats are as great a mistake as are huge pompadours, for enormous millinery will accentuate and draw attention to the height. Rampant hat trimmings should be carefully avoided and low effects chosen in their stead. Stripes are excellent in dress materials, but should never be so arranged as to run up and down. This style makes a woman appear taller than she really is. Those for a woman of height should go around in a bayadere effect, and floppies, bias bands and other decorations placed at intervals from hem to the knees and above, are suited to her.

Exaggerated "straight fronts" are to be regarded by her with horror, selecting instead soft blouse waists with wide girdles. The latter are particularly good, especially when of material contrasting to that of the gown, for in this way they become more pronounced.

A Fetching Blouse in Silk Gauze. Formal blouses and bodices have taken up the trend of sheerness inaugurated by the lingerie blouse and some very fetching models are shown carried out in silk gauze mounted over thin china and Japanese silks. Simple yet dressy is the waist illustrated. It is of natural color gauze, having the front and back laid in deep folds and large medallions of embroidery are stitched over the gauze with embroidery stitch for decorative effect. The front is tucked chiffon with pointed bands of the blouse material held tight across it, the ends of the front ending under the side of the front folds. The tall collar is of lace and the sleeves of gauze finished with bands of black ribbon velvet.

Wraiths of Broadway. Lower Broadway, New York, after 7 o'clock on the average night is pretty well deserted except for one class of women. They are usually over fifty; they invariably wear shabby black gowns and shawls and their hair is the straggles and most wonderful concoctions that ever were turned out under the name of millinery. In the dim light of that canyon they suggest all sorts of "ories of tragedies, of unsuccessful age, for they fairly sink along in the deepest shadows. But if you chance to pass two of them together their talk is cheerful enough. They have "good jobs" as the scrub women of the office buildings that employ their services every night after business is done.

To Detect Sewer Gas. Here is the test for the detection in an apartment of sewer gas: Saturate unglazed paper with a solution of one troy ounce of pure acetate of lead in eight fluid ounces of rain water; let partially dry; then expose in the room suspected of containing sewer gas. The presence of gas in any considerable quantity soon blackens the test paper.

Condemnation of Brutality. I would not enter in my list of friends a man who needlessly sets foot upon a worm.—Cowper.
