WALSH IS GIVEN GREAT OVATION

Former White Sox Star Twirls Two Innings and Displays Old Time Form.

CAN BIG MOOSE COME BACK

Cubs Take Another From Slipping Red Legs—Humphries in Form—Chiefs Beat Pana.

Detroit, Mich., July 1.—Although the old Tiger fix asserted itself yesterday and the jugglers defeated the White Sox by the wide open score of 5 to 1 in the second game of the series, there was some joy in the Callahan camp last night, for big Ed Walsh achieved something closely akin to a large personal triumph, besides demonstrating that he is not through, but about ready to be heard from.

No battle scarred hero ever received a greater welcome from his own home folks than Walsh was given by the hostile fans of this town when he broke back into the game. Before the meaphone man had a chance to announce the advent of the Big Moose the rosters had spotted his familiar form striding in from the warming pan, and began cheering.

More than half the spectators jumped to their feet during the spontaneous welcome to an illustrious enemy and some stood on the backs of their seats the better to make themselves heard. They cheered him as he pitched a few preliminary balls to get the range, and when he shot the first one across to Sam Crawford for a strike, there was a yelp of joy as if it were a stockyard crowd rooting for Big Ed. As he crept the side in order in the seventh the fans cheered Walsh again and in spite of an awful eighth they were with him, and jeered his erring teammates, who were responsible for the runs made off him in the eighth. NO ONE IN SIGHT WHO CAN LICK HIM

Jack Johnson.

Fight fans may not like the idea, but fairness compels the admission that Jack Johnson is still without a peer in the pugilistic world today. His performance in Paris Saturday proves him to be a wonderful athlete and a still more wonderful boxer. No matter how bad his morals may be, the public must pass him the palm of credit for being the greatest heavyweight champion that ever held the honor.

While Moran may not have been the best white challenger to combat the negro, he at least is more scientific than the rest of the big whites.

Carpentier is probably the most artistic member of the heavyweight class, but he is too small. Gunboat Smith, the best punnisher of light complexion in the business, is not noted for expert movements of eye, hand and foot. Moran, then, gets the medal for shiftness and knowledge of boxing.

But Moran with all his class was no match for the negro. Joe got out on top and he was not even hurt.

He just as easily. And he has agreed to fight the middle of October for $30,000. He will receive $10,000 and the balance will be paid in installments.

WORLD BEATERS AT HORSE SHOW

Exhibition by Ward Family July 4 at Exposition Park a Real Treat.

The horse show at Exposition park on July 4 to be furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward and family of this city will be a horse show worth traveling miles to see. Most of the horses they will show have won prizes in the largest horse shows in the United States.

Mr. Ward has been interested in horses since a young man. His first experience was on a ranch in the far west. Later he joined Buffalo Bill's circus, where he became interested in saddle horses. After acquiring what saddle horse education he could in the circus he became affiliated with saddle horse academies in Chicago and New York and then decided to learn the English ways, so he went to a fashionable riding academy in London, where he remained for several years. After his return to this country he opened an academy in Denver and there began to train horses for the show ring. He has been in this business ever since and is one of the prominent saddle horse men in the world who has made a real success of that business. He has no superior in the game.

The first event furnished by the Wards will be a 300-yard dash of real Indian ponies. These ponies have all been trained to run separately and no one knows which one is the best. They will be ridden by boys under 12 years of age who will ride for blood. Mr. Ward characterizes this as "one honest horse race." One of the ponies entered here, Silver Dick, was purchased by Mr. Ward at Utes Springs, Utah, and led across the country to Ship Rock, N. M. He comes from a line of polo ponies, two full brothers of his being considered the greatest polo ponies in the world. This pony gives great promise.

Event No. 2 will be Patrick, famous winner at the international and Denver shows, ridden by Mrs. Ward in all the stunts that are required of a horse at the big shows. Competent judges declare Patrick the best gaited horse in America.

Event No. 3 will be gaited horses ridden by the Ward family. Mrs. Ward will show a four-year-old colt by Forrest King with which they expect to win a world's championship. Master Buck Ward will show Buttons in all five gaites. Buck, not yet 9 years old, is the youngest saddle horse exhibitor in the world, but has expert training and can make any of them saddle for him.

Event No. 4 will be for hunters. Walter D., a prize winner at Denver over the world's champion walk-trot horse, will be shown in a hurdle race by Master Lee Ward.

BOMBARDIER WELLS IN COMEBACK FEAT

London, July 1.—Bombardier Wells, the English pugilist, knocked out Coin Bell, an Australian boxer, in the second round at the Olympia last night. The contest was for the heavyweight championship of the British empire.

Wells by his victory won $10,000 and regained some of his lost prestige, for while it was recognized that so far as science was concerned he was in a position to meet any heavyweight, his frequent defeats led to the opinion that he lacked the stamina, backbone and nerve necessary to make him a first class fighter. The form he displayed against the rugged Australian champion has again caused him to be numbered among the "white hopes."

URGUE MARSANS TO RETURN TO ORGANIZED BASEBALL

St. Louis, Mo., July 1.—A letter from Garry Herrmann, president of the National Baseball commission, urging Armando Marsans to return to the Cincinnati Nationals, was received at the headquarters of the St. Louis Federal League club. Marsans deserted organized baseball several weeks ago, but after a few days was prevented from playing with the local team by court injunctions. Federal league officials expressed the belief that the latter was written to establish a legal point, but declared also it showed a willingness to take Marsans back without penalty, despite his. In discussing the advisability of transgression of baseball rules.

Lorenz J. Brdar of Rock Island has entered his Pope motorcycle in the races at the Davenport mile track next Saturday and Sunday. Redar is an experienced driver and his friends are looking to him to make a good showing. The Davenport speed track will not be able to appear on the track the opening day, having been called to Sioux City to substitute for one of the professional entrants there on the Fourth. However, Redar promised to be back in Davenport Sunday to give an exhibition of the track in a Mercur racer. W. Horn, promoter of the mile track event, has several speed kings on his list
