VACCINATION FOR FEVER INDORSED

Illinois Board of Health Will Furnish Typhoid Preventive to All Free of Cost.

ARMY PROVES EFFICACY

Distribution is Ordered Made Through Antitoxen Agent of the State in Every County.

Springfield, Ill., April 6.—Vaccination against typhoid fever has been indorsed by the state board of health, which will furnish the vaccine free of charge.

The distribution is being made through the antitoxin agent of the board in every county seat and the ten agents in Cook county. It can be obtained by any physician upon the delivery to the agent of a receipt stating to whom it is to be administered.

East treatment consists of three doses at intervals of ten days, the first dose containing 500,000,000 killed bacteria and the others 1,000,000 each. Each dose is put up in a glass syringe with a sterilized needle.

Its efficiency is illustrated by the manner in which it has exterminated typhoid fever from the United States army. There was not a single typhoid case either in the United States army or the insular forces in 1912.

In 1909 there were 173 cases in the army, with sixteen deaths; in 1910, 148 cases with ten deaths; in 1911, sixty-two cases with nine deaths; in 1912, twenty-seven cases with four deaths.

The successful use of vaccine has been demonstrated also by the French military authorities.

In 1911 there were 893 and in 1912 774 deaths from typhoid fever in Illinois. There is no reason to believe that, with the same general use of vaccine, and the observance of essential sanitary measures, the ratio of decrease of cases in the state will not be the same as reported in the United States and French armies.

"While impure water is often the cause of an outbreak of typhoid fever, contaminated foods are also a cause," says a statement issued by the board of health.

Finds Stab Wound in Heart.

Kewanee, Ill., April 6.—The body of an unidentified man, believed to have been a traveling union plumber, was found beside the Burlington tracks yesterday.

The body was found by a train that passed during the forenoon. At a coroner's inquest it was discovered the victim had been stabbed in the heart, and police believe it is a case of murder.

The coroner's jury adjourned to let the police make an investigation. The man was well dressed, with clean-cut features, and the address of E. C. McCoy, 414 No. Fourth street, Quincy, Ill., was found in a plumber's notebook. The coroner is unable to find any witnesses.

HAWKINS RELEASED AND WILL SUPPORT FAMILY

Joseph Hawkins, former resident of Campbell's Island, arrested at Bloomington charged with wife and child abandonment, and returned to this city, was arraigned in county court before Judge B. S. Bell and later released on $500 bond on his promise to support his family.

Hawkins told the court he would pay $2.50 weekly toward the maintenance of the family.

SAYS SHE'LL NOT REWED FIRST LOVE

Miss Rosebud English.

Nashville, Ga., April 6.—Miss Rosebud English, who was first the wife of A. D. Oliver and then married Clarence James without getting a divorce, believing Oliver to have another wife, says that she won't go back to Oliver even if it is true, as the Mississippi courts have held, that Oliver was never married to anyone but her.

The case is rather tangled and Miss English would be glad to know for sure whether she is married or not. The Georgia courts have held that she isn't; the Mississippi courts have handed down a decision by which it would appear that she is.

But anyway, Miss English says that she won't go back to Oliver no matter what his matrimonial status may be.

"Some years ago Oliver came to Climax, Ga., and held himself out as a 'business giant,'" declared Miss English in a recent newspaper statement. "He told me at that time that he was worth five million dollars and represented to me many other flattering statements of himself and his business ability. He told me of his love for me and how he would always care for me if I would marry him. I was only fifteen years old and was in Young's Female college, at Thomasville. I left school to get married to this man, not realizing just what I was doing."

"In about two months after we were married it developed that this man was a failure in business, as it was then stated. He was immediately arrested and placed in jail at Bainbridge, Ga. Later it developed that he was wanted in Mississippi as an ex-convict."

Miss English says that when the Georgia courts convicted Oliver as a bigamist, she thought it unnecessary to go through the form of getting a divorce and married James. She also says that she was divorced from James before the Mississippi courts found that Oliver was not a bigamist. As to whether she is now a single or a married lady she does not, in her statement, venture decided opinion.

CHORUS SINGS TO LARGE AUDIENCES

Augustana College Club Entertains 1,300 at Joliet Armory for Church Benefit.

Joliet, April 6.—Greeted everywhere by large and enthusiastic audiences, the Wennerberg chorus of Augustana college is having one of the most successful tours in its history. At Rockford Wednesday night an audience of 1200 people heard the concert in the First Swedish church, among them many alumni of Augustana. It was the first concert by outside talent given in the main auditorium of the church in 18 years.

In commenting on this fact, Rev. J. F. Seedoff praised the work of the chorus highly, and stated that if the Wennerberg chorus ever desires a return engagement, it may sing in his church any time.

The largest audience that has assembled in the Armory hall of DeKalb in many years welcomed the chorus at that place Friday night. The concert was held under the auspices of the Swedish Lutheran church for the benefit of the building fund. The members of Rev. Fahlund's church are working for a new church edifice, and $27,000 has already been subscribed by the congregation for the undertaking. It was estimated that more than 1300 people heard the concert, and the chorus was given an enthusiastic ovation.

"Den Store Hvide Flok" by Grieg was rendered in response to a special request by members of the Northern Illinois state normal faculty, who desired to hear the composition sung in the original Norwegian. Musical critics give the work of the chorus under Prof. Bergquist's direction the warmest praise, and declare that the Wennerberg is far above the average college glee club.

VOTE EARLY and VOTE "NO"

"Where is the money coming from to pay the increase in taxes in the event of Rock Island going dry?" is a question which is being daily asked.

Vote the Saloons Out of Business. IF you want higher taxes. IF you want Rock Island to fall behind in the procession. IF you want to prove that prohibition does not prohibit. IF you want to imperil public improvements. IF you want "speak-easies" without the license revenue. IF you want to lessen respect for the law. IF you want empty houses and store buildings. IF you want "searches and seizures" to locate "blind pigs" and "holes in the wall." IF you want to be deluded as to the value of the law in temperance reform work. IF you want your money to go to Davenport, East Moline, and Moline. IF you want your townsmen to become educated liars to dodge the "speak-easy" prosecutions. IF you want sumptuary legislation and are willing that the other fellow may regulate your food and clothing. IF you want skilled labor to seek freer fields. IF you want your townsmen to become educated liars to dodge the "speak-easy" prosecutions. IF you want to encourage hypocrisy. IF you want to favor moral dishonesty. IF you want to frighten away capital, contemplating investment and dependent upon liberty-loving labor. IF you want a dead town.

Can any moral uplift ever be really accomplished that does not embrace a doing away with the root of the evil? There can be no question but that this must be answered in the negative. The individual must be educated to realize that abstinence from the evil is for his own personal good, in order that the moral uplift be genuine. This the local option law does not do. Government statistics show that in spite of the nationwide support of local option, there is more wine, liquor and beer consumed than ever before. So long as a person can acquire the appetite, just so long will he satisfy that craving and if he can't do it lawfully, the chances are largely in favor of his finding a way to circumvent the law. Then is the moment that that person's moral self begins to go downward. He soon makes himself believe that the laws are not for him to obey and as a consequence his whole aspect of right living has been changed. When we allow such a state of mind to grow in Rock Island we are starting backward, for disregard for one law means disregard for all laws, if they do not please us. In order that this great county of ours shall prosper, we must feel that our laws were made for us personally and that it is our duty to obey them.
