THINGS WORTH KNOWING.
When putting away stoves for the summer, wet a rag with kerosene oil and rub them all over. This will prevent them from rusting.
To remove grass stains, cover stain with common cooking molasses and let stand two or three hours and wash in lukewarm water.
Plaster of paris mixed with flour and water and sugar and sprinkled around will kill cockroaches.
The juice of one lemon to one-half teaspoonful of baking soda will take the place of the finest baking powder. Mix the soda with the flour and add the lemon juice.

were served on one large table in the dining room. On the cloth were laid maiden hair ferns and a bowl of beautiful carnations was the centerpiece. Wild flowers in vases trimmed with the other rooms of the home. The society will meet next month with Mrs. William Ulemeyer in this city.

ENTERTAIN PAYNE. WATTS PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. George Naylor Watts of Davenport entertain this evening at the Davenport Outing club in honor of their daughter Miss Helen Watts and her fiance H. B. Payne. Members of the bridal party are the guests of the evening. Pink and lavender will be carried out in the decorations of the tables, sweet peas, snap dragons and other spring flowers being used to give the floral feature. Guests from out of the city are Mrs. F. C. Stanley, Minneapolis; Mrs. R. S. Brown, Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. Karstrom, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Reynolds, Cedar Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Crenshaw, Chicago. The marriage of Miss Watts and Mr. Payne will take place tomorrow evening at St. Katherine's hall, Davenport.

LOYAL DAUGHTERS SOCIABLE.
The Loyal Daughters of the Fifteenth Avenue Christian church gave a very successful sociable at the chapel last evening. A short program was given the admission to which was an old pair of rubbers which will be sold. A lunch was served at four booths, at one was coffee and sandwiches, at another baked beans and salad, at another ice cream and cake and at the fourth candy. The Daughters cleared a neat sum for the benefit of the church.

SOIREE SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.
The tango soiree, given by the Silver Cross circle of King's Daughters at the Watch Tower Inn last evening proved as successful financially as it was delightful socially. Thirty couples attended and danced to music furnished by the Paarmann orchestra. The proceeds from the affair will be used in carrying on the charity work of the circle.

MRS. OLSON HOSTESS SOCIETY.
The Ladies' Aid society of Zion Lutheran church was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. O. P. Olson at her home 1007 Forty-fourth street. The business session was occupied with matters pertaining to the society, a delightful social hour following when Mrs. Olson served a lunch.

HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY.
Adele Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Haines, 1020 Fourteenth and a half street, entertained a party of a dozen of her little girl friends Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 7 at a birthday party. Miss Adele attained her fifth year on that day. There were games on the lawn and refreshments and many pretty presents for the charming little hostess.

MRS. GUTHORMSEN HOSTESS.
The Daughters of Norway were entertained at the monthly meeting yesterday afternoon by Mrs. J. Guthormsen, 308 Fourth avenue. They spent the time in a delightful informal way and Mrs. Guthormsen served a nice lunch at the close of the afternoon.

FAREWELL FOR MISS BERG.
A farewell social consisting of speeches, readings, recitations and violin and piano selections, was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wells, 4401 Fifth avenue, in honor of Miss Elizabeth M. Berg of northwest Davenport, who recently returned from Salt Lake City where she enjoyed a pleasant visit and was ordained a missionary to represent the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Her field of labor, by appointment, is the Northern States Mission with headquarters in Chicago, to which city she will journey next week to assume her new responsibilities. Miss Berg has taken a very active part in the affairs of the local branch of the church. She leaves in the tri-citys a host of friends who trust that she will find happiness in her new undertaking and that her assiduous efforts will be crowned with success.

SPENCER MISSION SOCIETY.
The Woman's Mission society of Spencer Memorial Methodist church held a meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. Andrew Olson, 4503 Eighth avenue. The business session and devotional exercises were conducted by the president, Mrs. Della Burcket, and the program was given by Miss Jessie Eckert and Miss Le-Claire. Ten new members were reported in the Mothers' Jewels society society. Miss Eckert gave a paper on immigration and Miss LeClaire on the "Let alone policy." The program was followed by a social hour when refreshments were served.

CLASS HAS ANNUAL BANQUET.

The annual banquet of the Harriett Henderson Memorial class of the First Methodist church was held last evening in the Sunday school rooms. Over 80 were present at the supper, which was served in the church basement. The class colonel, H. P. Brown, acting as toastmaster, called for responses from E. H. Johnson, who gave a memorial for Miss Harriett Henderson, after whom the class is named; Rev. T. E. Newland, H. J. Olmsted, and Mrs. T. E. Newland. After supper the company returned to the Sunday school rooms, and after being divided into seven divisions were required to give some special stunt for the entertainment of the other guests. Division number one took up a collection, number two entertainment consisted of readings by Mrs. C. A. Walker, number three gave questions that were answered by the names of the members of the class, four and five and seven gave charades and six conducted a school with recitations and George Beeler, who was a soldier in China during the Boxer trouble, sang a Chinese love song which took so well that he was asked to repeat it. The affair was, as are all that the class arranges, a great success.

CONCERT REALIZES $50.

A delightful concert was given at Grace Lutheran church last evening under the auspices of one division of the Ladies' Aid society and over $50 was realized. The program, which was very well arranged, consisted of selections by a trio composed of Mrs. V. L. Frykman, violin, Miss Hazel Munger, cello, and Miss Frances Lidman, piano; vocal numbers by Miss Martha Foss, Mrs. B. J. Lachner and Tage Joranson. Piano solos were given by Miss Nellie Swanson and Mrs. J. E. Clarkson read "The Happy Prince," with incidental music by Lehmann played by Mrs. Frykman. The choir closed a splendid program with an anthem.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) How can I get a black shoe oil out of tan shoes and make them look as good as new; and give me a good tan polish?
(2) Please will you give me a good party cake?
(3) What will make hair grow and what will make hair come off from hands and face?
(4) What will remove a red spot on a nose and on a forehead that has been on for quite a while?
(5) What will remove freckles?
(6) Please give me a good butter Scotch candy. MRS. E. S.

or three weeks you will begin to see improvement.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Can you tell me how to make rose beads? Do you use the fresh or dried petals? "THANKS."

Rose Beads—Run fresh rose leaves through meat grinder several times until they are very fine and smooth. Put in a little copperas to make them black if you wish.

Roll into a paste between the hands making them twice as large as you wish, as they shrink about half. When made into beads lay them on a platter for several hours, then roll again. String on a fine wire and put in the sun to dry and harden. When taken from the wire put the beads into a bag and rub them hard to loosen any rough particles. Polish by putting a little vaseline or sweet oil in the palm of the hand and rubbing them, then wipe them with a cloth.

Rose beads can also be made from dried petals, but the process is different from the above.

"Now these laundries do mangle your shirts of mail!" said Sir Lancelot. "Yes, mine always come back shy several rivers," assented Sir Gink.—Pittsburgh Post.

AN ATTRACTIVE RAGLAN MODEL FOR THE SEPARATE COAT

In separate coats as well as frocks and suits the raglan shoulder is an approved feature. There is also a tendency to belt them in slightly at the bottom or at a low waistline, allowing the bottom to flare in the new modish way. The coat shown in No. 8270 is developed in a brown tweed mixture and combined with a three-tiered skirt of the same material; this makes an unusually effective walking suit and both coat and skirt may be worn separately if desired.
If gabardine, serge or moire were used with this design, a suit dressy enough for almost any occasion would result.
This coat requires for size 36, 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch or 3 1/2 yards of 42-inch material; 4 1/2 yards of the same width will be needed for the skirt. A happy combination of moire and silk poplin was used in the afternoon frock shown in No. 8297, with an underbust in one of Poiret's brightly colored silks; there is also a guimpe of cream colored net and a broad girde of satin, as a finishing touch.
This dress may be copied in size 36 with 4 1/2 yards of 36-inch or 4 1/2 yards of 42-inch material. Both silk poplin and moire are wide, averaging 42 inches; in price they range from $1.50 to $4.00 a yard.
No. 8270—sizes 32 to 42.
No. 8009—sizes 32 to 32.
No. 8297—sizes 34 to 42.
Each pattern 15 cents.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl of sixteen and have not bothered myself about the boys as yet. Do you think I will become an old maid?
(2) What is a good tonic?
(3) Is white voile going to be worn this summer?
(4) Do tan slippers look good with white?
(5) My arms have become very brown. How can I remove it?
"MARIE."

(1) I can't help but smile over your question, dearie. No, I don't think you are in imminent danger of becoming an old maid.
(2) Plenty of good food and fresh air make the best tonic I know of. If you are anaemic and need more, ask the druggist to give you a good beef, wine and iron tonic.
(3) Yes.
(4) Yes, but white would look better.
(5) Bathe them with buttermilk every night and let it stay on over night. Next morning wash off with hot water, then dash on cold water. In two

Frozen Pudding—Two and one-half cups of milk, one cup of sugar, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, two eggs, one cup of heavy cream, one-fourth cup of rum, one cup of candied fruit, cherries, pineapples, peaches, and apricots. Cut the fruit in small pieces and soak two or three hours in brandy to cover, which prevents the fruit from freezing; make a custard of milk, sugar, salt, and eggs; strain, cool add the cream and rum, then freeze. Fill a brick mould with alternate layers of the cream and fruit; pack in salt and let stand two hours.
Pink Delight—Into the whites of two eggs beaten to a stiff froth, gradually beat one cup of strawberry jam and two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar. The sugar may be omitted if jam is very sweet. Pile into sherbet glasses and serve very cold.
