TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT.

The movements of the State of Kansas are reported to show that the legislature, summoned to meet in Topeka, Nov. 27, has been in session a few days. The sessions have been occupied in the usual manner. The government will be organized, and the legislature will proceed with the business of the session. The new state is likely to be well represented in Congress. The legislature is expected to pass a bill for the establishment of a territorial government, and to adopt a constitution for the state.

THE HOMESTEAD LAW.

Cheyenne, Sept. 26, 1855.

The instructions to our territorial officers from the government are to be complied with. The laws of the United States relating to the territory of the West are to be considered as the supreme law of the land. The territorial government is to be provisional, and the final establishment of the state is to be determined by the people of the territory.

THE NEW YORK TIMES.

New York, May 27, 1855.

The New York Mercury reports that the General Assembly of the State of New York has passed an act providing for the establishment of a new territorial government in the territory of the United States west of the Mississippi River.

THE GEOGRAPHICAL REVIEW.

The geographical review of the United States is now in press. It contains a number of articles on the geographical features of the country and the various regions of the world. The review is written by a leading geographer and is based on original research.

THE NEVADA SEDAN.

Las Vegas, Aug. 30, 1855.

The Nevada Sedan, a new newspaper, has been established in Las Vegas, Nevada. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Nevada. The Sedan is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE MINNESOTA SEDAN.

Minneapolis, Sept. 10, 1855.

The Minnesota Sedan, a new newspaper, has been established in Minneapolis. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Minnesota. The Sedan is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE SOUTHERN LEADER.

Charleston, Sept. 21, 1855.

The Southern Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Charleston. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of South Carolina. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE CENTRAL LEADER.

The Central Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Springfield. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Illinois. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE WESTERN LEADER.

Denver, Oct. 20, 1855.

The Western Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Denver. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Colorado. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE NORTHWEST LEADER.

St. Paul, Nov. 10, 1855.

The Northwest Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in St. Paul. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Minnesota. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE SOUTHWEST LEADER.

San Antonio, Dec. 10, 1855.

The Southwest Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in San Antonio. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Texas. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE SOUTHEAST LEADER.

Atlanta, Jan. 10, 1856.

The Southeast Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Atlanta. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Georgia. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE MIDDLEWEST LEADER.

Chicago, Feb. 10, 1856.

The Middlewest Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Chicago. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Illinois. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE NORTHLEAST LEADER.

Boston, March 10, 1856.

The Northleast Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Boston. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Massachusetts. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE SOUTHEAST LEADER.

Atlanta, April 10, 1856.

The Southeast Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Atlanta. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Georgia. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE MIDDLEWEST LEADER.

Chicago, May 10, 1856.

The Middlewest Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Chicago. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Illinois. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE NORTHLEAST LEADER.

Boston, June 10, 1856.

The Northleast Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Boston. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Massachusetts. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE MIDDLEWEST LEADER.

Chicago, July 10, 1856.

The Middlewest Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Chicago. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Illinois. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE NORTHLEAST LEADER.

Boston, August 10, 1856.

The Northleast Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Boston. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Massachusetts. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE MIDDLEWEST LEADER.

Chicago, September 10, 1856.

The Middlewest Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Chicago. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Illinois. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE NORTHLEAST LEADER.

Boston, October 10, 1856.

The Northleast Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Boston. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Massachusetts. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE MIDDLEWEST LEADER.

Chicago, November 10, 1856.

The Middlewest Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Chicago. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Illinois. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.

THE NORTHLEAST LEADER.

Boston, December 10, 1856.

The Northleast Leader, a new newspaper, has been established in Boston. It is the first newspaper published in the territory of Massachusetts. The Leader is edited by a prominent local resident and is intended to serve as a voice for the interests of the territory.