SOCIETY BY GRACE POPE WOOD.

The girls of the Sigma Alpha Iota sorority have issued invitations to their annual spring party to be given Friday evening, April 22, at the Elks club. This will be a formal affair.

Another Washburn party to be given Friday night will be the one at which the Phi Sigma Omega girls will be hostesses.

Members of the executive board of the Woman's club and the chairmen of the standing committees were entertained at luncheon at Pelletier's yesterday noon by Mrs. W. A. McCarter, president of the club.

Covers were placed for Mrs. George Parkhurst, Mrs. Hiram P. Dillon, Mrs. L. C. Schnacke, Mrs. David Page, Mrs. Lewis Greenwood, Mrs. O. L. Moore, Mrs. A. Marburg, Mrs. C. A. Wolf, Mrs. L. H. Mann, Mrs. Bennett R. Wheeler, Mrs. Charles Dillon, Mrs. F. L. Campbell, Mrs. Pope Allen and Mrs. McCarter.

Mrs. McCarter was hostess at a tea for the team captains of the club Monday afternoon in the tea room. She had the assistance of Mrs. Guilford Dudley and Mrs. C. A. Wolf.

There is one sort of misjudging no woman resents—and this is for a clerk to size her up and show her goods much more expensive than she can possibly afford.

Recently a young woman who has her own name went into a local store to look at trunks. The clerk grudgingly showed her a little steamer trunk bound with wood with a price moderate.

They say there is no fury like the fury of a woman scorned, but the fury of a woman misjudged is almost as bad.

On the other hand, let a clerk or salesman show her something far beyond her means and she immediately takes on more poise, more dignity and bids herself into thinking that it is only because she wants to put her money into really lasting things that she is buying a semi-silk hose and a marked-down hat, and that no matter what she wears it is apparent she is a "lady."

She told the clerk she wanted some powder and the clerk brought her over a box to us and I could see that her suit was of very cheap material and her hat was odds and ends of cheap looking flowers and things and she wore cotton stockings and her shoes needed shining and were badly run over at the heels.

So she looked over the different brands and finally she said to the clerk "I will take that little box, when I say little, it was all of that, as I don't think the box was more than three inches square, and the clerk and the shopily dressed girl went over to the counter and I edged over, as I was curious to know what she was spending for face powder when she needed clothing so badly."

At the silver tea to be given by the women of Grace cathedral tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Shelton music will be furnished by Madam Southern, Miss Wright of Bethany, Mrs. William Bowman and Mildred Cleary. The following girls will assist thru the rooms: Miss Dorothy Crane, Miss Evelyn White, Miss Genevieve McMillan, Miss Dorothy Sprout, Miss Beatrice Shakeshaft, Miss Owen, Shakeshaft, Miss Margaret Kaye, Miss Isabel Smith, Miss Katharine Ray, Miss Barbara Whittlesey, Miss Patricia Smith, Miss Henrietta Mosser, Miss Margaret Nellis.

One often has a hunch about parties, whether they are going to be a success or not. And according to the hunch of hunch the party Mrs. J. F. Jack's club house team will put on Friday night will be all the hostesses hope.

Mrs. William H. Terry entertained this afternoon at an informal party for Mrs. Lloyd Scott and Mrs. Lewis Neal. She was assisted by Mrs. Roy Page. Guests were eight of the honor guests, intimate friends. Lunch was served at the table, which bore as a centerpiece a cut glass bowl of pink roses and peonies, forget-me-nots and daisies. Place cards were little daisies.

The maple sugar to be used by the Vermont association at its annual "sugaring off" party has arrived and the date for the affair has been set for April 30 at the Central Congregational church. Because of an incomplete list of those who might like to attend this meeting formal invitations may not reach all who are interested in the "sugaring," but plates may be reserved by those wishing to be present if they will notify Mrs. Frank Thompson, phone 1172, or Mrs. Tom Brown, phone 2530.

Miss Alma Kruse, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kruse, was married this afternoon at 2 o'clock to Mr. Albert Kessler. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. D. Mueller. Mrs. Veda Kruse played the wedding march. The young couple stood before a window filled with ferns and palms. The bride wore a gown of white crepe metede and a long hot wedding veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kessler went to Mr. Kessler's home in Highland Park. He is the son of Mr. Ben Kessler.

The W. W. Mills Company The Shop For Gentlewomen 815 Kansas Avenue—815 Now You Can Buy Hand-Made Blouses at Very Low Prices! WE have them for as little as $5.00, $5.75 and $7.50—the very finest and prettiest of this special series is but $10.00. When you think what hand-work costs, you will marvel that these finely made French-looking blouses can be sold for so little. Fashioned from sheer voiles and batistes, with long or short sleeves. High neck, or lingerie styles, with round, square, or tuxedo collars and dainty cuffs with narrow edge of real fillet lace. On one or two of the finer blouses the collar has a broad, handsome border of the fillet. Blouses with all the dainty refinement of hand drawn-work, and hemstitched edges, and tiny hand-run tucks. Some even have little embroidered motifs, or arrangements of dots on drawn-work squares—all delicately done by hand. So beautifully made—so artistic, and so smart! Surely these blouses deserve to be French—but clever American needlewomen made them. THAT none who pass our shop may miss seeing these blouses, we display some of them in the south window. But the very one you would like best may be inside at the counter. Be sure to see them all. Store opens at 8:30, closes at 6 o'clock, including Saturday

Do You Read Time Correctly? "Safety" Is the Block Signal Against Accident The Montgomery Safety Dial Speaks the Time How many dashes in this row— of course you can guess, count or calculate--- BUT You KNOW instantly how many in this row, Because they are NUMBERED That is ONE of the Safety Signals the Safety Dial presents. Any American Watch can be equipped with a Montgomery Safety Dial. Ask your Jeweler. causes you to read the time correctly; i. e., the time always after the hour, never before. If it is 12:40 do not say "20 minutes to 1." This Dial will teach children to read the time correctly. They learn the figures, like the alphabet, before they learn to read, and will quickly learn to read the time on a watch bearing the Safety Dial. Modernize your watch—you would not carry a key-wind watch, why carry an old-fashioned "face" on an otherwise up-to-date timepiece? Any jeweler can furnish the new, handsome and dignified Safety Dial for American watches. THE WATCH DIAL DE LUXE [PATENTED] Any dial with upright MINUTE figures is a "Montgomery Dial." The MINUTES are the important factors, and they are shown at a glance on this new and best design of the famous SAFETY DIAL. It is the last word in perfection. When you look at your watch, it is the MINUTES you wish to note. On the Safety Dial they are numbered and thus seen instantly—no calculation, no mistake possible. And the Safety Dial CAN BE HAD ON WATCHES MANUFACTURED BY ELGIN, HAMILTON, HAMPDEN, HOWARD, ILLINOIS, SOUTH BEND, WALTHAM.
