Kingman Dies.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle. KINGMAN, Kan., Aug. 26.—A return game between the Pratt Center and Kingman nines was played at the fair grounds this afternoon, resulting in a score of 10 to 13 in favor of the visiting club. Considerable money changed hands and much interest was taken in the game.

A very serious accident occurred this morning to James Troutman, a contractor, working on the new Presbyterian church, who fell from the top of the building to the ground. He is badly hurt, but hopes are entertained for his recovery.

The houses of several leading citizens were entered by thieves last night who got safely away with a small amount of plunder. E. H.

Nothing Small About Pratt.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle. SARATOGA, Kan., Aug. 26.—At a public meeting held here yesterday it was decided to give a celebration on the arrival of the Wichita and Western railroad at Saratoga. Necessary committees to arrange for the meeting were appointed, and a subscription started to raise a thousand dollars for expense money. It is expected that the road will be completed to this point on or before October 1st, at which time the largest celebration will be given ever had in Pratt county. E.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, August 27, 1 p. m.—Indications for Wisconsin, Iowa and Missouri: Fair weather, southerly winds; slightly cooler.

For Kansas: Fair weather; southerly winds, no decided change in temperature.

Grangers' Congress.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 26.—At the Farmers' congress this morning T. S. Coffin, of Fort Dodge, Ia., read an interesting paper on the power of the government in aiding in freight rates on railroads in America. He closed by urging the appointment of a national railroad commissioner.

At the close of the address the committee on resolutions presented a report which was read by the secretary. These resolutions were adopted, asking congress to create the office of secretary of agriculture and to make this officer a member of the cabinet. They also ask the extension of the signal service to all places reached by telegraph. They request congress to regulate interstate commerce in such manner as to protect the productive industries of the country. They also recommend an appropriation of $30,000,000 to stamp out contagious diseases among domestic animals and request the secretary of state to instruct the ministers to Germany and France to use all proper means to prevent restrictions upon American farm products properly inspected and shipped, and urge upon congress the necessity of a speedy development of the system of water ways, including the Mississippi river.

The resolutions also recommend the revision of the tariff of 1887, and the maintenance of the tariff on rice and sugar, that state legislatures be earnestly requested to pass laws to prevent what is known as dealing in futures; approve of the oleomargarine law and recommend its strict enforcement.

The resolutions provide for the incorporation, under the laws of the United States, of the farmers congress in the United States, requesting the farmers of each state to organize, all assemblies of which shall be entitled to send representatives to the farmers' national congress in proportion to one delegate for each United States senator and representative in congress from that state. Three propositions, one to adopt the Cullum interstate bill, and the other to adopt the Regan bill, were postponed.

During the discussion of the tariff resolutions the speaker took a wide range and it was treated as a question of protection against free trade. The protection sentiment was decidedly in the ascendancy and when the vote was announced, in favor of the resolution as amended, there was much applause.

At the afternoon session a lively discussion took place on a resolution recommending the restoration of the wool tariff of 1847, amended to include sugar and rice. The vote was—yeas 159-34, nays 116-14, southern delegates voting solidly no.

The congress endorsed the oleomargarine bill and urged that gloves be placed on the same footing. It also favored the creation of a new cabinet position with the department of agriculture.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Chicago on the first Tuesday before the opening of the fall stock show in 1887.

Capital Budget.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26.—General Newton, chief of engineers, who arrived in Washington last evening, says he has not definitely decided to accept the position of commissioner of public works of New York, but there is a probability that he will do so. It is likely that Colonel James C. Dunn, president of the board of engineer officers on fortifications, stationed at New York, will be selected to succeed General Newton as chief of engineers.

About a Woman.

McPHERSON, Kas., Aug. 26.—A shooting scrape occurred at Marquette, in this county, on Tuesday evening, between S. Bacher, of Greenwood, Iowa, and Mrs. Baird, of Marquette. Mrs. Baird, a sister, had been seduced by Bacher in Iowa, a year or two since, and a judgment of $7,000 had been rendered in favor of Mrs. Baird. Bacher came to Marquette, where Mrs. Baird lived, to get testimony against her character and on seeing her brother, opened fire which was returned by Baird, his shots taking effect, producing three flesh wounds. Both parties were arrested.

Was Not Kidnapped.

NEWTON, Kan., Aug. 26.—G. W. McClintock, editor of the Haysport Herald, was in town today. He publishes a card in the Evening Republican, in which he says the Col. S. N. Wood was not kidnapped, but was arrested for criminal libel. Mr. McClintock has not been at Haysport for several days, but says that he knew Wood's arrest was to take place.

The President's View.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The Herald publishes an interview with President Cleveland in regard to the appointment of Recorder Mathews, to succeed Frederick Douglass. The president said: I had only one object in appointing Mr. Mathews, namely, to put the best man I could find, that is, the best colored man, in the position. The last thirty years has wrought great change in this country. Old relations are broken up and old times can never return. The north and south are equally gratified for this fact. You cannot apply the rules which obtained yesterday to things of today. We are a new nation. Occurrences twenty-five years ago belong to ancient history. Now we have two great parties—that is our salvation. Every few years these parties have a wrestling match. It is a hot fight throughout the campaign, but when the fight is over we forget the fight and settle down good naturedly to support the administration. In every honest effort toward good government.

The colored people of the south are just like all the rest of us. The moment they begin to recognize the duty of citizenship, that moment they will begin to form convictions and to be governed by them. Does any reasonable man suppose, when the white people of the country divide themselves between the Republican and Democratic parties, colored people will all think alike, and join the Republican party? This is an insult to the colored man's brains. It is nonsense, and more, it would be a great political calamity. Difference of opinion is not only the charm of the republic, but also its safety, and I have no doubt, neither has any thoughtful man, that when education does its effective work, the colored race of the south will partly wince into line with the Republican party and partly in line with the Democratic party. It cannot be otherwise so long as human nature is what it now is.

I have great respect for the colored people. Again and again I have told delegations which visited me they must have convictions of their own and act on them; they must choose their politics with thoughtful care and personal independence. In that way alone can they become worthy citizens of the best government in the world.

I appointed Mr. Mathews solely because I believed him to be the right man for the post, and I feel certain the people will come to see I am right.

State Methodist Assembly.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 26.—The executive committee of the Methodist Sunday school assembly met in this city last night for the purpose of holding a conference for the next ten years. A tabernacle, two two-story normal halls, two boarding halls, secretary's office, baggage room, etc., are to be built in Garfield Park. The park is to be improved and the next assembly is to be held July 26. Rev. J. B. Young, of Pennsylvania, was appointed superintendent of instruction; H. C. Demotte, L. L. D., and Mrs. Demotte were also re-elected to their positions. A school of theology was credited, and the following faculty elected: James Marvin, D. D., L. L. D., dean and professor of mental and moral science; Rev. J. E. Eary, D. D., Ph. D., professor of biblical history and literature; Rev. W. L. Swallow, A. M., Ph. D., professor of biblical and systematic theology; H. A. Gebon, D. D., professor of church doctrines and politics; J. C. Ridpath, Ph. D., professor of history; Rev. J. C. Hall, D. D., professor of Greek.

O. W. Hass, L. L. D., professor of rhetoric.

A. Schuyler, Ph. D., professor of logic. The following class lecturers were elected: On baptism—Rev. Thos. Scott.

Lord's supper—Rev. Moore Spencer.

Marriage—Rev. A. A. Caruthers, D. D.

Orders in the ministry—Rev. H. W. Chaffee.

Polity of the M. E. church—Rev. A. P. George.

The committee resolved to publish the Chautauquan quarterly, and Revs. L. A. Radbill, S. E. Pendleton and D. D. Campbell, were appointed the committee.

Evangelical.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 26.—The second day's session of the German Evangelical synod was well attended. Rev. C. L. Schilld read the report of the synodical committee. An additional theological program was urged for the St. Louis synod. A change in the synodical course is also suggested, requiring a five-year course in the seminary at Chicago before the graduate can teach, and three years more at the St. Louis seminary before he can preach. That the synodical report gives a glowing account of the condition of the finances.

N. Y. Street Car Troubles.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Two cars started out early on the Broadway line. They had strong police protection. No crowd is tolerated anywhere which might by any possibility obstruct speedy transit.

BULLY.

Police Inspector Steers has just telegraphed Police Superintendent Marshall a list of names of strikers collected in upper Broadway and started down town. The reserves have been ordered to the scene.

When car No. 290, Broadway line, got to Forty-fourth street about 10 o'clock it was attacked by a mob of roughs and strikers and thrown from the track.

The cracks of policemen's clubs upon the heads of the roughs could be heard above the yells and curses of the mob. It took but a few moments of vigorous work by the police to clear Broadway and send the strikers lying down side streets. A number of cars are being run, each carrying six policemen. The streets are filled with blue coats.

It is feared unless a settlement is effected tonight, all cars will be tied up tomorrow. There was a plot on foot to blow up the Third Avenue station, but all precautions are being taken. Several mobs have been dispersed by policemen.

In a conference this afternoon between the Broadway railroad authorities and the strikers, the latter received a renewal of the proposition to try the new schedule of six trips per day, with a promise that after a faithful trial of four days it was not satisfactory the old one would be restored. This proposition was considered until after midnight by the men and was accepted. They will return to work tomorrow.

This afternoon it was given out that the Broadway car troubles were over; that the company and the strikers had agreed, and that the cars would be running in two hours. At midnight there were no signs of cars, and it is understood the secret meeting which lay to solve the riddle is still in session.

OVER THE OCEAN.

England.

LONDON, August 26.—The queen telegraphed to Bucharest for news of Alexander. Conflicts have taken place in the streets of Sofia between the followers of Russia and those of Zankoff. Alexander's adherents are still in prison. Carnaroff, the Russian commander of Alexander's yacht, telegraphed that the prince was handed over to the Russian authorities. It is the general opinion that Russia will not permit Alexander to reascend the throne. Russia's terms are, in brief, that Alexander be released in Vienna. The Daily News says England can do nothing to help the prince diplomatically to promote the progress of the people who have so admirably come out of the Zankoff affair.

The foreign office is informed that Alexander is safe, free and en route home. He was set free at Reut. It is believed his return will restore quiet in Bulgaria.

Sir J. Ferguson, under secretary, stated in the house of commons that loyal troops entered Sofia Tuesday with the consent of the powers.

The exact whereabouts of Prince Alexander, the secretary said, is unknown to the British government, but telegrams have been forwarded him inviting him to return and resume his rule in Bulgaria.

At the York August meeting today the members to attend the meeting of the house of commons tonight and defeat Mr. Parnell's amendment to the address in reply to the queen's speech in relation to the Irish land question.

Thomas Stoughton, a Parnellite, gave notice to the house of commons this evening of his intention to move the following amendment to the Queen's speech: We humbly represent to your majesty that the circumstances unaccountable for the recent riots in Belfast indicate the necessity for special measures to maintain order there, the most urgent of these measures being the reestablishment of your majesty's authority in the district where from the police have been expelled by the increase of local constabulary to such strength as will enable it to deal with any probable contingency.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chief secretary of Ireland, declared that General Buller was not sent to Ireland to establish martial law, nor to strain the ordinary law, but merely to assist the civil authorities in the work of preserving social order. This reply was not entirely satisfactory by the opposition, and Mr. Russell moved the adjournment of the house. The opposition, consisting of the whole Gladstonian and Parnellite members, are here in support of the motion and Mr. Russell contended that the policy of the government was to degrade Ireland to the level of a savage and barbarous country.

The Right Hon. Edward Stanhope, colonial secretary, announced that the government hoped to open an emigration bureau during next October. They did not, he said, intend to promote emigration, but simply to circulate information of the kind most desirable, for poor people thinking of going abroad, to know.

Lord Churchill said that Mr. Russell had made an earnest and exhaustive speech. He (Russell) held strong opinions and used strong language. He had warned them that if they were not satisfied by the proposition, and Mr. Russell moved the adjournment of the house. ## MICHIGAN REPUBLICANS.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 26.—The Republican convention this morning nominated Cyrus G. Luce for governor and James A. Donald of Escambia for lieutenant governor, by acclamation.

The ticket was composed as follows: G. R. Olin, secretary of state; George L. Maltz, treasurer; Henry H. Apple, auditor; Moses Taggart, attorney general; Roscoe L. Dix, commissioner of the land office; John S. Estabrook, superintendent of public instruction; S. S. Babcock, member board of education for capital and labor.

The committee on resolutions will report the usual platform this afternoon. It will call for the submission of a prohibition amendment.

The minority report favoring prohibition was overwhelmingly defeated.
