Looking Backward In State Journal Society Column TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The sororities and fraternities at Lawrence will observe mothers' day at the chapter houses this week.

Mrs. J. L. Moneyenny will visit her son, Mr. Kent Moneyenny, at the Phi Delta house; Mrs. H. E. Lyman will also be a guest at the Phi Delta house, and Mrs. James Sprout will visit her son, Philip Sprout, who is at Phi Delta.

The music department of the Topeka Federation of Women has a new plan that is expected to prove of educational value musically, as well as entertaining to the public.

She is now arranging to present Havah Hubbard of New York, Monday, May 22, in matinee and evening performance, in two operas. This form of concert is new and is said to be extremely interesting.

Mr. Hubbard was formerly musical editor of the Chicago Tribune and was editor in chief of the subject encyclopedia and History of Music.

Among the pleasures that are owned by Topeka people are two in the possession of Mrs. W. W. Manspeaker, who is now living in Tyler street.

The picture was bought in Italy a good many years ago by Mrs. Curran, and it was placed in the house then owned by Mrs. Curran, at Tenth and Harrison street.

The kindergarten and intermediate departments of Bethany college will have their closing exercises Saturday, May 27, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, in the college gymnasium.

A second valuable picture owned by Mrs. Manspeaker is a painting called "The Chevelier," and was painted by C. E. Curran, a nephew of Theodore Curran.

The Ladies' Music club met yesterday with Mrs. W. S. Charles, 1165 Harvard street. The program was richly furnished by Mrs. William Macfarlane, Miss Mrs. V. L. Miller, Mrs. T. S. Perry.

Hon. Robert Quaries, of Kansas City, is the guest of Mrs. W. A. Sioo. Mrs. A. H. Connelly and mother, of Kansas City, are visiting Mrs. J. H. Hudson.

The demand for entertainers this season is all for something new. No more garden parties just because it is spring, and the old, conventional way of setting up a few vases of roses and fern will not do at all.

The dance hall represented an ancient patio, copied from the old Moorish designs, with its deep strain of Orientalism. On all sides of the patio was a wide esplanade, with hedges of roses and fragrant herbs.
