The annual reception for the members of the Woman's Kansas Day club and their escorts, was given by Governor and Mrs. Capper Friday night at their home in Topeka avenue.

Receiving with Mrs. Capper were the speakers for today's program at the Woman's Kansas Day club meeting. The guests were introduced to the governor by Mrs. S. S. Estey, and standing in line were Governor and Mrs. Capper, Mrs. J. K. Codding of Lansing, Mrs. W. E. Atchison, Mrs. Eustace Brown, Mrs. C. T. Beatty of Chanute, Mrs. Homer Hoch of Marion, Mrs. C. L. Danner of Wilson, and Mrs. George W. Winans of Hutchinson.

Mrs. Estey has served as publicity agent for the club this year, having been appointed by the late Mrs. Eugene Ware, and reappointed by Mrs. W. E. Atkinson, presiding officer of the club since the death of Mrs. Ware. Mrs. Estey was gowned in lavender silk crepe, partly veiled in silver beaded net. Mrs. Capper's gown was of green crepe, heavily trimmed with lace. Mrs. Brown wore white satin, with draped bodice and skirt en train, with a drapery of gold lace. Mrs. Hoch's gown was of foulard silk in blue and green. Mrs. Atkinson wore white satin, veiled in black net. The overgown was edged with wide bands of black velvet, and the girdle was of black satin, worn with a red rose corsage bouquet. Mrs. Winans was gowned in black satin, trimmed with jet lace. Mrs. Danner's gown was of Dresden silk veiled with white and pink net. Her corsage bouquet was of lavender orchids and lilies of the valley. With her costume she wore a long evening cloak of brocaded blue, lined with salmon pink satin.

It was suggested that as many of the guests as could do so, wear their wedding dresses. Mrs. W. D. Atkinson wore her wedding gown of white satin completely veiled in Duchesse lace. Mrs. H. O. Garvey wore an elaborate wedding dress of white crepe, with pointed basque, close fitting, wide skirt with heavy train, and trimming of point lace. Mrs. J. E. Caton wore Mrs. L. L. Kiene's wedding dress of white henrietta, combined with brocaded silk. The dress was made in princess style, with long train, and the drapery of the brocade, was caught with a large gold clasp. The trimming was of double ruffles of henrietta, finishing the neck and sleeves.

Mrs. J. M. McCown, of Emporia, one of the leading club women of the state, was a guest at the party, and wore a charming gown of the fashion of two generations back. The costume is what used to be known as an infare gown, worn on dress occasions after the wedding. It was of dove grey cloth, with jacket bodice, close fitting, of American Beauty satin. Mrs. McCown wore an aigrette in her hair.

Mrs. Norman Wear, who was one of the assisting women, was gowned in a black evening dress of satin, veiled with net spangled with jet beading and sequins. The gown was sleeveless, and cut low in the neck and worn with a scarf of white fur. Mrs. Charles Spencer was gowned in grey crepe de ching, with a trimming of lace. Mrs. J. K. Codding wore wistaria silk combined with black lace. Mrs. J. M. Miller of Council Grove, wore her wedding dress of white satin and lace. Mrs. A. O. Wellman was gowned in gold embroidered satin and white and gold lace. Miss Fanny Benton, of Oberlin, wore a charming gown of accordion pleated crepe. Her hat was a turban closely covered with white feathers.

The Capper home was simply decorated for the party with baskets of pink flowers in the drawing room. One on the dining room table was a low crystal bowl of jonquils and violets.

A popular native daughter of Kansas, who is in Topeka today for the Kansas Day celebration, is Miss Esther Clark, of Lawrence. Miss Clark is perhaps the best known writer of verses in the state. She has published several volumes of poems. Among them are: "Verses of a Commonplace Person," and "Kansas and Other Poems." Her most popular work is a short poem, "The Call of Kansas."

Miss Esther Clark of Lawrence, Who Is in Topeka for Kansas Day.

Mrs. Cora G. Lewis of Kingsley, Member of the State Board of Education.

This has won much praise thoughout the country.

Miss Clark is the guest of Miss Bertha Hempstead and she and her hostess will be entertained at dinner Sunday noon by Mayor and Mrs. Jay E. House, and at tea in the afternoon by Miss Effie Graham. Miss Clark will return Sunday evening to Lawrence, where she is taking a degree in the university.

Miss Mary Weightman entertained informally yesterday afternoon in compliment to Miss May Tomlinson, whose marriage to Mr. Raymond Kimmel of Atchison, will take place Feb. 5. The guests were the members of a sewing club to which Miss Weightman and Miss Tomlinson belong.

Topeka is generally honored by a visit of the president of the United States at least once during his term of office, but it is not often that we have the privilege of entertaining the first lady of the land. Mrs. Hayes accompanied President Hayes on his western trip in the summer of 18 and Topeka at that time did the honors as hostess to the mistress of the White House. We are to have that pleasure once more on next Wednesday, when President and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson will be our guests for several hours.

An unusually large amount of interest is centered in Mrs. Wilson because she is a bride of only a few weeks and has been discribed in the papers all over the country as a most beautiful and charming woman as well as because she is the wife of the president.

A number of prominent Kansas women are on the committee which is to entertain the president's party while they are our guests. The ladies on the entertainment committee have not entirely completed their plans, but those who are to extend the courtesies of the city to Mrs. Wilson are: Mrs. Arthur Capper, Mrs. J. E. House, Mrs. W. E. Atchison, Mrs. W. O. Rigby, Mrs. Cora G. Lewis of Kinsley, Mrs. J. W. Orr of Atchison and Mrs. E. E. Murphy of Leavenworth.

The president's party will be entertained at luncheon at the home of Governor and Mrs. Arthur Capper. Covers will be laid for President and Mrs. Wilson, Mayor and Mrs. Jay E. House, Mrs. W. W. Webb, president of the Commercial club and Mrs. Webb and Governor and Mrs. Capper.

✣ ✣ ✣

The Topeka Federation of Women will hold their meeting Thursday in the assembly room of the Y. W. C. A. The meeting will begin promptly at 2 o'clock. The first hour will be in charge of the art department with Mrs. Catherine Hand chairman. Mrs. Bennett R. Wheeler will give a lecture on "Fra Angelico" illustrated on a screen by Mr. Clement Smith. Music will be furnished by Mrs. Parkhurst.

The second hour of the morning session will be in charge of the nestry department with Mrs. A. A. Robinson chairman. A lecture "Care of Trees" will be given by Mr. Chas. Scott of the State Agricultural college. Mr. Scott is state forester. This will be followed by a discussion.

There will be a noon hour for the reception of new members which will be a social hour. The afternoon meeting will be in charge of the educational department with Mrs. C. B. Van Horn chairman and Mrs. W. D. Ross, assistant. The address will be given by Mrs. Geo. H. Whitcomb. Her subject will be "The Preparedness for Citizenship." Music will complete the program for the day.

✣ ✣ ✣

Word has been received by Miss Georgiana and Electa Sawyer from Seattle, Wash., announcing the marriage of their niece, Miss Marguerite Lembke, to Mr. Harry L. Fehr of San Francisco, which took place New Year's Eve at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lembke. Only relatives and a few friends attended the wedding. Mrs. Fehr attended Washburn academy four years and while in Topeka made her home with the Misses Sawyer. After returning to Seattle she attended the University of Washington. Mr. Fehr is a mining engineer, having graduated from the University of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Roebuck announce the engagement of their daughter, Grace Ellen, to Mr. Theodore E. Jasperson, the marriage to take place early in the spring.

✣ ✣ ✣

All preliminary rehearsals for "Miss Nancy" are now over and detailed rehearsals for the entire production have begun. The management of "Miss Nancy" are glad to announce that Mr. Joe Risteen will play the part of John Berry. A group of club women witnessed the rehearsals of some of the feature dancing yesterday and were completely surprised and captivated by the wonderful feature dances to be in "Miss Nancy." Miss Howe, directing the feature dancing, has succeeded in getting the best of Topeka's talent, thoroughly schooled in the latest feature dances. Miss Howe stated last night that she marveled at the adept manner in which her feature dancers mastered the difficult work. It is only the interest kindled by the cleverness of the entire production that has made the cast so enthusiastic.

Miss Ruth Koester, Who Is to Play the Leading Role in "Miss Nancy."

Miss Ruth Koester, a popular member of the Theta sorority at Washburn college, will play the leading role. Miss Koester makes an ideal Miss Nancy, handling the lines with the adept manner of a professional. She has a number of song hits and her mannerisms are perfect, showing true instinct of the histrionic art.

"In Girls of Yesterday and Today," historical pictures of association life will be given by all branches of the Y. W. C. A. in Topeka at the auditorium Feb. 18. This entertainment is part of the celebration of the fiftieth or jubilee year, of the Y. W. C. A. in the United States. The first association was organized in Boston in March, 1866.

The chief characters, "The Girl of Yesterday and the Girl of Teday" will be interpreted by Miss Grace Dana, a typical college association member and Mrs. James McClure, formerly Miss Louise Allison, who has for some years been prominently identified with the city association.

The prelude consists of many of the songs of 1866. These songs will be sung by the Y. W. C. A. members of the Industrial Institute accompanied by the high school orchestra. The orchestra under Mr. Sherrill Smith will render the music characte ic of each period through the whole program.

The prologue shows the condition in a New England city that were the prime causes for the beginning of the Y. W. C. A. Scene 1 will show the women of a New England town who meet to organize an association.

Scene 2 presents the procession of the years from 1866 to 1916, indicating as they proceed the changes in costumes and the growth of the movement.

At the opening of the third scene girls from many walks of life think they have nothing in common until Pippa with her abounding joy makes them aware of their common interests and they unite in singing "The Chain Song." The third scene then opens presenting a typical association in the evening. In this "gym" girls have a goblet game, the cooking class brings in good things to eat, etc. One of the chief features of this scene is a flag drill by girls in costumes of different nationalities. This is introduced to suggest that the movement in the United States is only part of a world movement for the association is organized in 44 countries of the world.

Just before the curtain falls on this present day scene, the figures of scene I appear in the background to recall to the present day their debt to the past for brave beginning. The characters will be taken by city college, and high school girls. In the procession of the years will appear many women who have served as directors of the association in its 29 years in Topeka. "Girls of Yesterday and Today" will be put on under the direction of Mrs. Katherine Hand and Mrs. Paul Walker assisted by Mrs. N. Abrahams, Miss Coover and Miss Helen Griffin. College and high school girls in costumes of 1866 will act as ushers.

KITCHING TO ATCHISON

Will Become General Agent of the Santa Fe in That City.

Mr. E. C. Kitching will go to Atchison Monday to take up the duties of general agent of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company. Mr. Kitching is one of the popular young railroad men of Topeka, and a Santa Fe product. He entered the service of the company in 1903 as office boy, his first job being with the division superintendent. He studied to be a stenographer, and soon qualified for that kind of work. He went to the freight department in 1905, and filled various positions successfully till 1910, when he was appointed to be traveling freight agent. Now comes another promotion to the Atchison position.

The Chamber of Commerce, or the Committee of Forty, or whatever name Atchison's commercial organization is known by, will find Mr. Kitching good timber for membership. He is a live community booster, and can make a speech when the occasion demands. Speaking more frivolously, Mr. Kitching knows the late dance steps, is able to sustain a hand at bridge, and can sing. He was still single the last time he communicated with this department. Frank Jarrell, who knows both Kitching and Atchison, says the two fit.

Notice Eagles.

The funeral of our late Brother E. E. Ekman will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday from Shellabarger's chapel. The Fraternal Order of Eagles will conduct a service at the grave. We want all members to come who can possibly arrange it. Meet at Eagles home at 1 o'clock.
