IN BLOODY BATTLE
Admiral Harry B. Scott says Americans are Hotly Engaged in Pekin.

Washington, April 21—A communiqué emanating from the Department of State here today announced that all the Americans who have been in the city of Pekin for the past two weeks have been hotly engaged in Pekin, and that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin.

Washington, April 21—A dispatch from the Department of State here today announcing that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin, and that all the Americans who have been in the city of Pekin for the past two weeks have been hotly engaged in Pekin, and that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin.

WASHINGTON, April 21—A dispatch from the Department of State here today announcing that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin, and that all the Americans who have been in the city of Pekin for the past two weeks have been hotly engaged in Pekin, and that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin.

WASHINGTON, April 21—A dispatch from the Department of State here today announcing that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin, and that all the Americans who have been in the city of Pekin for the past two weeks have been hotly engaged in Pekin, and that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin.

WASHINGTON, April 21—A dispatch from the Department of State here today announcing that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin, and that all the Americans who have been in the city of Pekin for the past two weeks have been hotly engaged in Pekin, and that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin.

WASHINGTON, April 21—A dispatch from the Department of State here today announcing that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin, and that all the Americans who have been in the city of Pekin for the past two weeks have been hotly engaged in Pekin, and that the American flag is flying over the American embassy in Pekin.