I Made $75.00 in a Week

I have bought several plating machines, but they were either not large enough for some articles or they did not work easy, and I have never made much money until I obtained the Practical Plating Dynamo. This is the electrical machine used in all the great gold and silver plating factories, and does the work every time. No sooner did I hear that I had this electrical Dynamo, than I had more spoons, knives, forks and jewelry than I could plate in a month. The first week I cleared $31.50 and the second week I cleared $75, and I think by the first of January I will have a thousand dollars in cash and give my farm considerable attention too. The plating Dynamo is the thing to use, and you can learn to use it in about an hour. Anyone can write to W. P. Harrison & Co., Columbus, Ohio, who make these machines, for circulars. As this is my first lucky streak, I give my experience, hoping others may be benefited as much as I have been.

J. K. Emmet as Fritz in a Mad House

There is no actor in the country today, who holds a higher place in popular estimation and critical favor than Mr. J. K. Emmet, "Our Fritz." His fine figure, bright countenance and grace were the superior natural advantages with which he started his career as an actor. His success was immediate and he was at once accepted as a general favorite. Like a true artist, Mr. Emmet devoted himself studiously to his professional work, deepening and broadening his artistic culture until to-day he occupies a foremost position on the American stage, and a degree of favor in popular estimation second to none. In "Fritz in a Mad House" which Mr. Emmet presented at Hutchinson, on January 31, he will have greater opportunities than in any of the other versions of "Fritz," in which he has yet appeared. He will present the same dear lovable German boy, whose humor wins our smiles and whose sorrow draws our tears. He is more polished than the Fritz we have heretofore known, yet retains all the unworidly simplicity that has always characterized him and won such a strong hold on our affections. Mr. Emmet will not only appear in a new dramatic part but will also sing several new, which are destined to become as popular as the famous songs already known with his character. An essential point in connection with the play, which should not be omitted in mention, is, that the children will be as pretty and sweet as in former versions of "Fritz." Cute baby Sinnott, a most precocious tot, will play an important role. Mr. Emmet will be supported by a company of actors of special excellence and well known repute. The cast includes besides the star, Misses Emily Lytton, Florence Foster, Florence Germaine, Messrs. Hudson Liston, Fred De Vere, Theo. De Vere, Harry Coffin, David Rivers and others.

Whitlock, Edelweiss (Quatrain), Florence Evelyn Pratt, Corpus Christi in Seville, Caroline Earle White, The Beginnings of a Cavalry Troop, Kenneth Brown, My Discontent (Poem), Carrie Blake Morgan, An Idyl of the Forties, Champion Bissell, Linga in Literature, William Cecil Elam.

Aunt Sally.

The above company made their inaugural bow before a large audience last evening in the rural comedy, "Aunt Sally." The play was handsomely staged and the attention of the audience was held from first to last. Miss Bertha Conway proved herself a clever emotional actress. Her pathos is natural and not strained or overdrawn and she did not descend to rant and shout but played the part with an intenseness that won for her the well earned certain calls she received. Her wardrobe was the finest seen here for some time. Mr. Billy Gray held the house spell bound from start to finish, and his numerous specialties were perfect. He is an old favorite here. The company is the favorite in the best that ever visited this city. A number of pleasing songs were introduced. We predict a large week's business for the company.—Indianapolis News.

Temperance and Prohibition.

Temperance in the use of alcoholic beverages has no more a relation to prohibition than has stealing or lying, as both temperance and intemperance are misnomers when used to express opposition to the drink habit, unless any use of the poison of alcohol in a beverage may be called intemperance; but in no case can we honestly or properly use the word "temperance" when we mean opposition to, or prohibition of, the use or sale of alcoholic liquors, in which is included the culmination of nearly all the crime that curses society. In this connection "temperance" becomes a dangerously misleading and wicked misnomer.—From "Temperance a Delusion," in Democrat's Magazine for February.

The Petition for a Mandamus to Prevent Collection of the Income Tax Overruled—Missouri Millits—Beef House Reopened.

The Excelsior Springs Co. has interested itself in the project so far as to agree to give ten acres of ground, or more, if necessary, for the site. The general idea of the home is that it shall be national in character, with doors open, under rules, to the needy members of the craft in all sections of the country. BAKER FINALLY CHOSEN.

The Kansas Legislature Selects a Successor to Senator John Martin.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 23.—At 12 o'clock to-day the senate appeared in the house and the joint convention was formed for the formal election of United States senator. Lieut.-Gov. Troutman presided, Speaker Lobdell occupying a seat on his right, with packed galleries and the lobby looking on. Secretary Brown called the roll of the senate and thirty-seven senators responded, after which Assistant Chief Clerk Sears called the roll of the house, and 124 members answered. Mr. Troutman announced that as no candidate received a majority of each house yesterday it was necessary to vote in joint convention, and ordered the roll call. Secretary Brown calling the roll of the senate and Clerk Sears that of the house, with the following result: Lucien Baker, 104; Louis P. King, 33; John Martin, 3; J. D. Bodkin, 1; G. W. Glick, 1. The ninety-one republicans of the house and twelve of the fifteen republicans and Senator O'Bryan (dem.) of the senate, voted for Baker; all of the populists of both bodies except Mr. King himself, for Mr. King; Senator Dillard and Representatives Schlyer and Wilson, of Barber, for John Martin; Senator King for J. D. Bodkin; Representative Smith, of Sherman, for G. W. Glick. The absentees were Senators Price and Scott, Senator Baker having resigned had no vote, and was not in the hall.

This morning Mr. Baker placed his resignation as state senator from Leavenworth county in the hands of Gov. Morrill, because the question had been raised that possibly if he continued to hold his state office he would not be eligible to the federal senatorship, and he concluded to be on the safe side and resign before his formal election at noon.

CURRENCY BILLS.
The Arkansas Senator Introduces His Proposed Compromise Bill—A Currency Commission.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Senator Jones, of Arkansas, introduced his financial and currency bill in the senate to-day.

Mr. Smith, of New Jersey, presented a bill which provides for a non-partisan currency commission of twelve members to make investigations of fiscal questions and for an issue of bonds to produce revenues for the government. He said that he had hoped to see some solution of the present currency emergency. He was convinced, however, that so little time remained for legislation that no bill would be passed at the present session. Under the circumstances he proposed this plan, which would set on foot a full investigation, with a view to securing the proper remedy. It was desirable to have a non-partisan commission in order that its work might commend itself to the new congress.

The organization was formed under the name of the National Hay Association of the United States, and the following officers were elected: President, John N. Woolisroft, of Cincinnati; vice presidents, George W. Johnston of Pittsburgh, C. Hatcher of Tiffin (O.), F. D. Woods of Illinois, George A. Blakelee of Chicago, F. L. WHAT YOUR THUMB TELLS.

The thumb is an unfailing index of character. The Square Type indicates a strong will, great energy and firmness. Closely allied is the Spindling Type, a thumb of those of advanced ideas and business ability. Both of these types belong to the busy man or woman; and Demorest's Family Magazine prepares especially for such persons a whole volume of new ideas, condensed in a small space, so that the record of the whole world's work for a month may be read in half an hour. The Conical Type indicates refinement, culture, and a love of music, poetry, and fiction. A person with this type of thumb will thoroughly enjoy the literary attractions of Demorest's Magazine. The Artistic Type indicates a love of beauty and art, which will find rare pleasure in the magnificent illustrations of our 1894-95 issues, reproduced from the original painting by De Longpre, the most celebrated of living lower-painters, which will be given to every subscriber to Demorest's Magazine for 1895. The cost of this superb work of art was $20,000, and the reproduction cannot be distinguished from the original. Besides this, an exquisite oil or water-color picture is published in each number of the Magazine, and the articles are so profuse and superbly illustrated that the Magazine is, in reality, a portfolio of art works of the highest order. The Philosophic Type is the thumb of the thinker and inventor of ideas, who will be deeply interested in those developed monthly in Demorest's Magazine, in every one of its numerous departments, which cover the entire artistic and scientific field, chronicling every fact, fancy, and fact of the day. Demorest's is simply a perfect Family Magazine, and was long ago crowned Queen of the Monthlies. Send in your subscription; it will cost only $2.00, and you will have a dozen Magazines in one. Address W. J. DEMOREST, PUBLISHER, 15 East 14th Street, New York. Though not a fashion magazine, its perfect fashion pages, and its articles on family and domestic matters, will be of superlative interest to those possessing the Feminine Type of Thumb, which indicates in its small size, slenderness, soft nail, and smooth, rounded tip, those traits which belong essentially to the gentler sex, every one of whom should subscribe to the Demorest's Magazine. If you are unacquainted with its merits, send for a specimen copy (free), and you will admit that seeing these THUMBS has put you in the way of saving money by finding in one magazine everything to satisfy the literary wants of the whole family.
