

NO COIN FOR VETS REPUBLICANS LOSE JOBS TO DEMOCRATS AT WASHINGTON

Funds Short to Care for Old Soldiers at Gettysburg.

War Department Can Pay for 40,000—No More.

Washington, June 21.—Ten thousand veterans who are planning to take part in the semi-centennial celebration and blue and gray reunion on Gettysburg battlefield next month, will find themselves without quarters or subsistence unless the celebration commission can arrange to provide for them. The war department has been notified that 50,000 veterans will attend, but there are funds to care for only 40,000 and Secretary Garrison has notified the commission that he would not accept responsibility for entertaining the additional number.

Six confederate veterans, three Union veterans, one Spanish war veteran and eleven other representatives, including Stephen Clark, will represent the house of Representatives at the celebration. The house formally accepted an invitation from the state of Pennsylvania to participate and authorized the speaker to appoint a committee by himself.

Representatives Talbot (Md.), Stedman (N. C.), Taylor (Ala.), Richardson (La.), confederate veterans, Sherman (Ola), Goulden (N. Y.), Kirkpatrick (Iowa), union veterans, Graham (Ill.), Sherley (Ky.), Booher (Mo.), Dixon (Ind.), Mann (Ill.), Payne (N. Y.), Burk (S. D.), Austin (Tenn.), Mondell (Wyo.), Hulings (Pa.).

FIREWORKS EXPLODE.

Sporting Goods Store at Leavenworth Has Big Loss.

Leavenworth, Kan., June 21.—An explosion in the basement of the Ripley sporting goods store Friday afternoon, completely destroyed the establishment and periled the lives of a number of employees. Spontaneous combustion is given as the cause.

Following the first report flames burst out and a few moments later another crash came that blew the entire front from the building. When the first explosion came Mrs. W. E. Horeley, with a baby in her arms, was passing the store. She was hurled into the street and was picked up unconscious. The baby was badly bruised.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

receive the Republican nomination and be backed by a fairly reunited party, would cause trouble for his opponent in the district. But Calderhead is holding back and watching the progress of the harmony movement. Should the two factions get together, then it is claimed that Calderhead may again become a candidate.

In the Sixth district it is reported that I. D. Young is anxious to "come back." Young was beaten for congress by J. J. Connelly last fall because the Bellman lined up with the Bull Moose element of the party and was later tried and convicted for desertion by followers of both factions. Now Young is being freely mentioned as a "harmony" candidate in the Sixth and his friends believe that he has regained enough strength to enable him to win back the congressional job.

John H. Crider, of Fort Scott, will like to see the Republican party candidate for congress in the Second district against Joseph H. Targart, the Wyandotte county Democrat who succeeded the late A. C. Mitchell. Crider was chairman of the harmony convention in Topeka. A year ago he sought the Second district congressional nomination against a field composed of J. L. Brady of Lawrence and E. A. Engle of Kansas City. Crider and Engle fought as to who was the more progressive Republican. Brady won the nomination, but met his second congressional defeat in the November election and is now being mentioned as a candidate for the party.

Discussing the declaration of Joe Longshore to the effect that he will stay in the Republican party, William Allen White wrote this editorial for the Emporia Gazette regarding the attitude of the former field agent for the Stubs administration.
