SOCIETY

Mrs. Jonett Shouse has cards out for a party which will be given Monday, at 1243 Topeka avenue. The affair will be an "at home" in the nature of a farewell party to a few of her friends, and soon afterwards the Shouse family will return to their home in Kinsley. Mrs. Shouse, before she came to Topeka for the recent session of the legislature, has been in the city and during her stay the circle has been greatly widened; for as both guest and hostess, she has been uncommonly popular.

Sororists club will meet Saturday, March 23, with Mrs. W. A. McCarter. Mrs. P. C. Chamberlain will read a paper on "The Mystery of Sleep," and the discussion will be led by Dr. Harriet Adams and Mrs. D. H. Forbes.

Miss Mary A. Towle, of New York, was the guest of Mrs. W. A. Johnston, on her way to Concordia, Kansas, where she was sent by the National Equal Suffrage association in connection with business regarding the Lila S. Buckley bequest of about thirty thousand dollars to the association. Miss Towle met some Topeka people while she was in town, who found her to be a handsome and brilliant woman. An article in the Concordia Blade says of her:

A modern Portia is present, demanding a pound of flesh for suffragist's cause. "Miss Mary A. Towle, counselor at law, 1 Broadway, New York," she reads the headlines, and it is as if of a tall, intellectual looking woman who arrived in Concordia Saturday night to look after the interests of the National Suffrage association in connection with the Buckley bequest. Concordians have no doubt read of women, or as one anti-suffragist put it, "sh" lawyers, but Miss Towle is the first one to be present in person. A few moments' conversation with her convinces the most skeptical that she is every inch a lawyer, and we have noted that she is tall—and that the farmer's theory of the camel that "there ain't no such animal" cannot be applied to the woman lawyer observations.

Miss Towle is a lawyer. However, it should be added that this is a secondary consideration, and that primarily she is a suffragette, not the sulphuric acid-in-the-mall-fourteen-rattles-and-a-button kind, but a cool, pert, incisive, calculating suffragist. She lives it, talks it, and with her it is a feeling, a strong conviction that her maternal instinct has been transformed by some psychical alchemy into a new kind of sentiment of which suffrage is the object.

Miss Towle will return in September to conduct the case in court, although she says that in doing so she feels that the court, jury and spectators would regard her as a specimen. Her lawyers will not be regarded differently of this sort is not what she is seeking for. She insists that when the world shall have readjusted its purview to a same, suffragist one, that women lawyers will not be regarded differently from female bookkeepers or stenographers.

The Monday Tourist club will meet Monday night next week with Mrs. W. P. Snyder, 1189 Mulvane street. Mrs. A. O. Wilmarth will make an informal address on "The Pilgrims."

The Junior Atlantic club met today with Mrs. F. W. Lyman, at her home on Buchanan street.

Mrs. W. E. McVey entertained the Friday Bridge-Luncheon club this afternoon.

The Minerva club will meet Monday of next week with Mrs. E. D. Clithero, instead of with Mrs. G. G. Moore, who is ill. Mrs. Clithero and Mrs. W. A. Powers will be the hostesses.

An entertainment will be given tonight at the R. R. Y. M. C. A., under the direction of Miss Maud Mary Kille. The program will be as follows:

"Oh Girls! Do Try GETS-IT for Corns"

The New-Plan Corn Cure. No Fuss No Pain, Sure and Quick.

You never used anything like "GETS-IT" for corns before! You're sure at last that every stubborn corn that you've tried so long to get rid of is a "goner."

You apply "GETS-IT" in 2 seconds, that's all. "GETS-IT" does the rest. There's no more fussing, no more bandages to fix, no more salves to turn the flesh red and raw. No more plasters to get misplaced and press on the corn. No more "pulling," no more pain, no more picking and gouging, no more razors.

"GETS-IT" stops pain, shrivels up the corn, and the corn vanishes. "GETS-IT" never fails, is harmless to healthy flesh. Warts, calluses and bunions disappear.

"GETS-IT" is sold at drug stores at 3c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Topeka by W. F. Lake, Brunt Drug Co., Geo. W. Stanfield, J. P. Rowley, A. T. Wagner, H. H. Wilson, Chesterfield Pharmacy, 118 Kansas Ave.—Adv.
