COLLYER, TREGO Co., Dec. 1.

Town growing.
A lively debate.
Pension day, Dec. 4.
No Thanksgiving sickness.
The last month of this year.
Remarkably pleasant weather.
An excellent service last Sabbath.
Children's shoes very, very cheap, at Wheeler Bros'. 404
Go to Siebert's market for salt and smoked meats. 304
Hiram Martin's brother returned to Michigan Tuesday.
Go to Hollington & Son for Rock Spring and eastern coal. 404
Collyer Post, No. 107, will meet on Saturday, Dec. 4, for the annual election of officers.
Mr. Rhodes shipped his cattle to Clay Center last Wednesday night, to which place he expects soon to remove.
R. O. Hiddleston, W. Nichols, and our former citizen David Blackwell, were Quinter callers in town this week.
Monros, Henkel & Dann, of Wa-Keeney, purchased of G. W. Kessler section 17, which lies a mile south of town, for $5.75 an acre.
Wm. Bower finished his term of school in district No. 24 last week, and has resumed his former position as clerk for L. A. Fisher.
J. H. Siebert is preparing for the successful running of his business during next summer by making an ice house back of his market.
WANTED.—A man to run a stock farm on shares. Single man preferred. For further particulars, address World's correspondent, Collyer, Kans. 403-ff.
Mrs. P. Richards and child returned to-day from Manhattan, where they have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Davies, formerly of this place.
We have a good stock of notions which must be closed out regardless of cost, at Wheeler Bros'. 404
Everybody enjoyed Saturday, for it was like a day in spring. Town was lively with country people, and carpenters and plasterers hastened to perform their work.
Siebert pays the highest market price for hides and furs, and in cash, at the Collyer meat market. 404
It is with regret that the Cawings announce that our friend and citizen, C. A. Sperry, continues to suffer severely with sore-eyes, for which no cure has, as yet, been found.
If you are going to purchase a new hat for Christmas or New Years, remember Wheeler Bros. are closing out. 404
Quarterly meeting will be held at Banner Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 11th and 12th, the first service occurring during the afternoon of Saturday. Visitors from a distance will be entertained.
Fresh pork sausage at Siebert's market, Collyer, Kans. 403-ff
Our farmers hold their corn with great tenacity, even to the detriment of the milling business. But since they have waited so long for a good crop, they cannot be blamed for retaining it. Corn retails for 45 cents a bushel.
Hats for the boys almost given away at Wheeler Bros'. 404
M. P. Goodwin's building nears completion. Carpenters, plasterers and painters have been applying their trades on it the past week. Mr. Goodwin hopes to have the post-office established therein before the holidays, and surrounded by a stock of goods which will tempt the Christmas purchasers to invest.
A full and complete line of men and boys clothing at Mills & Arnold's, Collyer. Prices very low. 405-ff
Thanksgiving day passed away quietly, the only public entertainment being that of the dance in the Post and Corps hall, given by the Union Literary Society. The attendance was not as large as had been hoped for, but the participants, as usual, had a pleasant time. The supper was served under great disadvantages, it being given in F. G. Bower's house, which had been vacant some time and received a share of the drifting snow during the blizzard.
Rich Hill coal, as good as Rock Spring and cheaper, also Ft. Scott coal, at Mills & Arnold's, Collyer. 405-ff.
O. T. Birkeland has executed his official bond as Justice of the Peace. As this is not Mr. Birkeland's first experience in that capacity, those desiring to be united in matrimonial bonds need have no fears but what he will perform the ceremony correctly. There are other cases, less pleasant, which may come before him during his term of office, and the general opinion is that his decisions will be rendered honestly and fairly.
A large and choice stock of ladies and gentlemen's underwear at Kansas City prices, at Mills & Arnold's, Collyer. 405-ff.
Judge Prescott of Salina, shipped two car-loads of young steers from this place Tuesday morning. Douglas Webster disposed of some from his herd and assisted the Judges in gathering the others. A few head were obtained from the herd of G. W. Kessler, and others from a party unknown. Your correspondent was told that G. W. Kessler's cattle had been so petted that when an attempt was made to cut them out of the herd, they would turn around and look and want to get upon the horse with the herder. It speaks well for their owner.
Hollington & Son are exclusive agents for Rock Spring and Leavenworth coal. 4
Services last Sunday were well attended. Rev. Weller conducted the preliminary services and Rev. Elliott delivered a sermon from Rev. 7:14. He began by saying that he heartily endorsed the discourse given by Rev. Weller two weeks ago from the same text and only wished to add a little more to what was then said. The sermon was pronounced one of the best delivered here by the reverend gentleman. Rev. Weller led the singing and gave as a solo, "Give Me the wings of Faith." Announcements made were that on Dec. 12th, Rev. Weller would preach here morning and evening; the following Sunday, Dec. 19th, Rev. Elliott would hold morning service, and on each Sunday thereafter services would be conducted by them alternately. Rev. Weller appointed a choir of young people to lead the singing, and Mrs. J. M. Arnold as evening organist.

Hats for men cheap, at Wheeler Bros'. 4
The principal topic of conversation in public places this week has been as to what effect the opening of two drug stores will have upon the morals of our town. There seems to be but little anxiety about the future actions of Dr. Tagne, whose building has commenced by the excavating of a cellar on the corner lot north of the depot, as he comes here as a particular friend of Mr. Mills, senior partner of Mills & Arnold, who, if for no better reason, has too much interest in building up Collyer to induce any one to locate here who degrading elements of the town, faster than their brethren, and that portion reb intoxicating liquor. Should they endeavor of the law by such at Quinter, the res be most damaging, by the action of the order. A change b site for their build located next south new store.

MARRIAGE MATTERS.
MARRIED.—At the residence of the officiating minister, on Nov. 30, by F. L. Walker, of Wa-Keeney, Mr. Frank C. Godding and Miss Florence J. Asbury, both of Scott county, Kansas.
T. G. Reed and Mary J. Armstrong were married at the home of the bride's parents, in Trego county, on Sunday, Nov. 21st, Rev. J. C. Elliott officiating. Mr. Reed is the brother of Mrs. Joe Gantier, and is well and favorably known to our people. The happy couple arrived in our city on Monday, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gantier. They will take up their residence at the Gantier ranch, on the Saline.—[Hays City Star Sentinel, Nov. 25.]

Mrs. Samuel's Body Found.
Coroner Groff was called to Ogallah on Saturday of last week to hold an inquest on the body of Mrs. Samuel. He did not hold it. The body lay some eight or ten miles northeast of Ogallah, and the case was so plainly one of freezing to death as to render it entirely unnecessary for him to go to the place.
In giving the last phases of this awful case, we adopt the words of last Tuesday's Ellis Headlight: The suspense of the husband and friends of Mrs. Samuel, as to her fate, was ended last Friday afternoon, by the finding of her body, less than one-half mile from the school house. The body was found a little west of south from the school house, on the south side of a deep draw. From the appearance she had crossed the draw, and attempted to ascend the other bank which was almost perpendicular—when she became exhausted and lay or fell down on her left side with her hands up to her face as though to protect it from the storm. The body when found was froze rigid and very much out of its natural shape; it had probably been covered with snow until within a day or two of the discovery. A wagon had been driven along the bottom of the draw, the wheel passing within a foot of her feet. A large number of people in the search had passed close to the body without discovering it. The snow had fallen away so that when the body was discovered by a Mr. Warren, the feet and parts of the clothing were in sight. The finding of the body of Mrs. Samuel in the direction it was from the school house, proved that the theory upon which the search had been conducted was wrong; a large part of the sounding and shoveling had been done southeast of the school house. It was supposed that she would drift before the wind; had she, it would have taken her southeast into a very rough country. The remains were brought to Ellis Saturday, and buried in Mount Hope cemetery, services being held at the Congregational church at 2 P. M. Rev. C. E. Williams delivered a short discourse. A large number of Ellis people attested their respect for the deceased, and sympathy for the friends, by attending the funeral.

In another place, the Headlight says: About twenty citizens of Ellis started after dinner Friday, to search for Mrs. Samuel's body; they went prepared to stay all night. The advance arrived at the school house about twenty minutes after the body had been found.

Ballard's Snow Liniment.
This liniment is a positive cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back, sore chest, old sores, wounds, sprains and all bruises. It is the most penetrating liniment in the world. It will restore contracted muscles to their natural elasticity; rubbed on the throat it will cure the worst case of croup. It is an absolute specific for corns, bruises, chapped hands, etc. Ladies will find it particularly effective in lame back. H. J. Hille, Agent, Wa-Keeney, Kansas. 4

AT THE FRONT.
I have secured the right to make the beautiful enameled pictures for the city of Wa-Keeney. And to introduce them, will give, from now until Jan. 1, with each dozen cabinets or panels, one BEAUTIFUL ENAMELED photograph. Come and see samples. I use the dry plate process for photographs and the best instruments, and have just added a new portrait lens, especially adapted for making children's pictures. Come early if you wish to get your pictures for Christmas.
