

CORAL AMBER NECKLACE
Genuine
GARNET

Genuine Diamond Cut Bead Necklaces.....$2.00 to $4.50
 Genuine Coral Necklaces, every bead round and perfect $1.50 to $9.00
 Genuine Diamond Cut Garnet Necklaces.....$2.00
 Finest assortment of solid gold La Vallieres and Neck Chains in the city, with beautifully designed pendants.....$5.00 to $150.00

JEWELER Jas. B. Hayden OPTICIAN
 727 KANSAS AVENUE

SOCIETY

A company of two or three hundred people were guests of Mrs. J. E. Kooz at a delightful tea Friday afternoon at the Country club. The rooms of the club house were attractive in a decoration of palms and garden flowers. Bouquets of corianders were arranged in baskets and a large basket of green and the season's flowers stood in the center of the dining table. Mrs. Kooz and Mrs. R. M. Bachlor, Miss Mary Kooz, Mrs. A. W. Knowles, Mrs. B. F. Akers, Mrs. George Crossman, Mrs. H. A. Gault, and Miss Jean Kooz, the girls who served lunch and punch were: Miss Esther Rodgers, Miss Hazel Howe, Miss Elizabeth Holliday, Miss Lucille Fuller, Miss Margaret Kooz, Miss Marie Lagerstrom, Miss Grace Kooz, Miss Dorothy Barber and Miss Helen Kooz.

Hall orchestra played throughout the hours of the party, from three to six.

stunning girl, "most divinely fair" and took her to Coney Island for an evening. Determined to leave nothing undone that he ought to do, he took her first to the cafe. She ordered breakfast, which seemed to him an obligingly modest order until he looked at the bill of fare and saw that the price for breakfast dinner was $9. When the steak was brought, she ate a few bites and left about half a pound of it, while the Kansas man pondered at the price, and finally decided that a mistake had been made by the waiter and that it should read 9 cents. However, when he went to pay, the cashier set him right, assuring him that nine dollars was the price of that steak. "Sir," said our astonished townsman, "in the country where I came from, if a man happens to have that much money, he doesn't buy a steak—he buys a cow."

Nothing is more serviceable for the summer season than the little coat suits of pongee. The one shown in the sketch was developed in old blue pongee and a smart and distinguishing touch was contributed by the addition of striped blue and coral silk as trimming. This was used on the

will be treasurer. Mrs. E. B. Purcell is advisory member of the committee.

A meeting of the executive board of the Suffrage Association will be held some time this month to open the campaign.

Some changes will be made in the membership of the board, on account of the resignation of two district presidents, whose positions have not yet been filled, Mrs. Albright, of Winfield, who was chosen president of the third district, will be unable to accept the office on account of ill-health. She has suffered a nervous breakdown, and dares not attempt the work her election placed upon her. Mrs. N. Y. Morgan, who was selected as president of the seventh district will not be able to take the office, as she will spend the entire summer in Europe. Upon her return for suffrage work her district and work for suffrage.

The National Suffrage Convention will be held in Louisville, Kentucky, next October, and it is hoped that California, which is the amendment of the tenth day of that month, will be able to report a successful issue of the campaign in that state.

The women of Riley county are planning to give a suffrage tea some time soon. It seems to be a case of history repeating itself. When the men of the Colonies were seeking independence they gave a great tea party in Boston Harbor. Their twentieth century daughters who are asking for freedom, have thought that a "tea" might help their cause, too.

will be treasurer. Mrs. E. B. Purcell is advisory member of the committee.

A meeting of the executive board of the Suffrage Association will be held some time this month to open the campaign.

Some changes will be made in the membership of the board, on account of the resignation of two district presidents, whose positions have not yet been filled, Mrs. Albright, of Winfield, who was chosen president of the third district, will be unable to accept the office on account of ill-health. She has suffered a nervous breakdown, and dares not attempt the work her election placed upon her. Mrs. N. Y. Morgan, who was selected as president of the seventh district will not be able to take the office, as she will spend the entire summer in Europe. Upon her return for suffrage work her district and work for suffrage.

The National Suffrage Convention will be held in Louisville, Kentucky, next October, and it is hoped that California, which is the amendment of the tenth day of that month, will be able to report a successful issue of the campaign in that state.

The women of Riley county are planning to give a suffrage tea some time soon. It seems to be a case of history repeating itself. When the men of the Colonies were seeking independence they gave a great tea party in Boston Harbor. Their twentieth century daughters who are asking for freedom, have thought that a "tea" might help their cause, too.

MR. BOWSER'S CANCER.
He Looks Over His Will and Prepares for the Worst.

After dinner Mr. Bowser lighted a cigar and took a stroll in his garden. That is, he called it his garden. He had planted five hills of sunflowers, and three burdocks were already showing their green heads above the soil, and so he had a right to call it a garden.

The sun was sinking away to rest, having been in the world all day. Now and then some weary woman threw a tomato can from a second or third story window, and now and then a boy peered at a cat kicking herself on the fence.

It was a peaceful scene—fit ending for a peaceful day.

There might have been more robins and bluebirds and orioles and bobolinks and nightingales to sing the sun to rest, but even Mr. Bowser realized as he gazed around him that we can't have all the good things of this world at once. A feeling of balminess was stealing over him, and he was about to speak to the cat in tones of kindness and courtesy, when—

Remarkable Home Treatment For All Foot Troubles

"Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocele compound in a basin of hot water, soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes. (Less time will not bring results.) Massage the sore parts gently while in the water." This should be repeated for a number of nights until the cure is permanent. The effects are almost magical. All soreness goes instantly and the feet feel so good that the whole nervous system is benefited. Corns and callouses can be peeled right off. Bunions are reduced and the inflammation drawn out. Sweaty, bad smelling feet and swollen, tender feet need but a few applications. Any drugist has Calocele in stock or will get it from his wholesale house. A twenty-five cent package is usually sufficient to cure the worst feet. Calocele is not a patent medicine. Formerly used only by doctors, but now is obtainable by the public at a general store and is saving many an hour of torture for thousands.

Compound Callouses Sweaty Offensive Feet Knob-Joints Hard and Soft Corns French Heel Cramp Ingrown Nails Aching Tender Feet

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Fannie Cooper Atkinson, of Parsons, Kansas, the president of the State Federation, has written the following letter to Mrs. M. W. Willard, of Topeka: "I am submitting for your consideration, and hope for your approval of a list of members for our Art Committee. The immediate work of the committee is that of organizing the country school teachers in a plan to place at least one good copy of every great picture on the walls of every country school in Kansas. To this end the chairman of the art committee, Mrs. Murdock, will write at once to every county superintendent, asking co-operation and the privilege of the matter being presented at each county normal institute. In order to secure co-operation of the district presidents to the extent of appointing a capable club woman, or some capable representative in each county to present this matter to the teachers.

"The question of ways and means must be left to the teacher to work out in the district, with the co-operation of pupils and parents. What is wanted is a painting, a literary cartoon, a painting, a spelling match, a lecture, a 'pie social,' or any other plan that will bring the teacher, pupils, and parents together, by having a small admission fee, serve the triple end of raising social interest, giving a moral stimulus, and provide a fund, even though a small one, for the purchase of a copy of a great picture. The Art Committee will advise art teachers concerning the picture to be chosen and it is hoped this work may be accomplished before the Christmas vacation.

"It must be unnecessary to present argument on the value and need of this work. The barren walls of our school houses in both town and country, and the resultant hunger for something beautiful to see, are the most urgent reasons for this effort. Anyone who visits them must be impressed that there is nothing so good as the beauty that hangs on the interior of these country school houses, and if it be true that 'to get a thing into our national life, we must get it into the schools,' then is this plan the best way of teaching a love of the artistic and beautiful. We hope the Civic and Educational Committees will be able to co-operate with the Art Committee in such manner that not only the interior of the school buildings where the children spend so great a part of their formative years, be made more attractive, but that the exterior and grounds may receive attention and also that the school boards, by making art centers for the social, intellectual and religious life of the communities.

"Referring to the Chautauqua assemblies in Kansas, it would seem that the Federation should not only make its contribution by way of interest and participation toward the success of these meetings, but avail itself of the opportunity for presentation and discussion of work along the artistic and various departments. To this end, may I ask that each district president take the matter up with the Chautauqua assemblies in her district, and the assistance of any members of the executive board who may reside in her district, arrange with the local club women to conduct a club hour, at which time some of the sessions might be given to the committee and department work of our federation be presented, and if possible maintain a rest tent or club headquarters. The matter of club extension is to be placed in the hands of district presidents and some valuable work along this line might also be accomplished. Will you consider these suggestions and give them immediate attention?"

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Fannie Cooper Atkinson, of Parsons, Kansas, the president of the State Federation, has written the following letter to Mrs. M. W. Willard, of Topeka: "I am submitting for your consideration, and hope for your approval of a list of members for our Art Committee. The immediate work of the committee is that of organizing the country school teachers in a plan to place at least one good copy of every great picture on the walls of every country school in Kansas. To this end the chairman of the art committee, Mrs. Murdock, will write at once to every county superintendent, asking co-operation and the privilege of the matter being presented at each county normal institute. In order to secure co-operation of the district presidents to the extent of appointing a capable club woman, or some capable representative in each county to present this matter to the teachers.

"The question of ways and means must be left to the teacher to work out in the district, with the co-operation of pupils and parents. What is wanted is a painting, a literary cartoon, a painting, a spelling match, a lecture, a 'pie social,' or any other plan that will bring the teacher, pupils, and parents together, by having a small admission fee, serve the triple end of raising social interest, giving a moral stimulus, and provide a fund, even though a small one, for the purchase of a copy of a great picture. The Art Committee will advise art teachers concerning the picture to be chosen and it is hoped this work may be accomplished before the Christmas vacation.

"It must be unnecessary to present argument on the value and need of this work. The barren walls of our school houses in both town and country, and the resultant hunger for something beautiful to see, are the most urgent reasons for this effort. Anyone who visits them must be impressed that there is nothing so good as the beauty that hangs on the interior of these country school houses, and if it be true that 'to get a thing into our national life, we must get it into the schools,' then is this plan the best way of teaching a love of the artistic and beautiful. We hope the Civic and Educational Committees will be able to co-operate with the Art Committee in such manner that not only the interior of the school buildings where the children spend so great a part of their formative years, be made more attractive, but that the exterior and grounds may receive attention and also that the school boards, by making art centers for the social, intellectual and religious life of the communities.

"Referring to the Chautauqua assemblies in Kansas, it would seem that the Federation should not only make its contribution by way of interest and participation toward the success of these meetings, but avail itself of the opportunity for presentation and discussion of work along the artistic and various departments. To this end, may I ask that each district president take the matter up with the Chautauqua assemblies in her district, and the assistance of any members of the executive board who may reside in her district, arrange with the local club women to conduct a club hour, at which time some of the sessions might be given to the committee and department work of our federation be presented, and if possible maintain a rest tent or club headquarters. The matter of club extension is to be placed in the hands of district presidents and some valuable work along this line might also be accomplished. Will you consider these suggestions and give them immediate attention?"

MR. BOWSER'S CANCER.
He Looks Over His Will and Prepares for the Worst.

After dinner Mr. Bowser lighted a cigar and took a stroll in his garden. That is, he called it his garden. He had planted five hills of sunflowers, and three burdocks were already showing their green heads above the soil, and so he had a right to call it a garden.

The sun was sinking away to rest, having been in the world all day. Now and then some weary woman threw a tomato can from a second or third story window, and now and then a boy peered at a cat kicking herself on the fence.

It was a peaceful scene—fit ending for a peaceful day.

There might have been more robins and bluebirds and orioles and bobolinks and nightingales to sing the sun to rest, but even Mr. Bowser realized as he gazed around him that we can't have all the good things of this world at once. A feeling of balminess was stealing over him, and he was about to speak to the cat in tones of kindness and courtesy, when—

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beaumont Martin left today after a visit of three weeks to Major and Mrs. Alvarado M. Fuller. They will stop at the Grand Canyon on their way home in San Jose, California. Mrs. Martin has been a guest at all the big parties since her arrival and has been very popular. Among the parties in compliment to her this week was an informal luncheon given by Mrs. Silas Porter at the Country club.

The following account of a wedding, of interest to many Topeka people, is taken from the Kansas City Journal. The bride, Miss Gay Shepherd, has frequently visited in Topeka as the guest of Mrs. W. S. McClintock, Mrs. C. S. Kistler, Miss Frances Connell, and Mrs. M. W. Willard. Mr. Frank Mills, the bridegroom, also has many friends here.

A beautiful home wedding celebrated last night was that of Miss Gay Shepherd and Mr. Frank Hale Ellis. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin W. Shepherd, 323 Grand street, at 8:23 o'clock. The service was read by the Rev. John Bennett, twenty-seven years of age, who is a member of the Episcopal church. The bride and groom stood in front of the large blue and white altar, which was decorated with palms and ferns. Beaumont's pink sweet peas and white daisies tied with blue tulle bows decorated the table. The bride wore a pink Killarney roses tied with blue tulle bows. The groom wore a white tulle wedding march and an orchestra. The bride who entered the ceremony room on the arm of her father, looking beautiful in a wedding gown of white crepe material, full length train, crepe material, and carried a bouquet of white and pink sweet peas tied with blue tulle bows. The bride's veil was fastened with a large white tulle veil. The bouquet, which was introduced in the valley and pink sweet peas. Her only ornament was a pearl pendant. The groom's gift, a blue tulle sash, was given by Mrs. Richard Griffith, who wore her wedding dress of cream white satin, lace trimmed, and carried white daisies and pink sweet peas tied with blue tulle bows. The bride's veil was fastened with a large white tulle veil. The bouquet, which was introduced in the valley and pink sweet peas. Her only ornament was a pearl pendant. The groom's gift, a blue tulle sash, was given by Mrs. Richard Griffith, who wore her wedding dress of cream white satin, lace trimmed, and carried white daisies and pink sweet peas tied with blue tulle bows.

corners of the broad revers, as a finish for the short sleeves, and was inset near the bottom of the jaunty coat. It was also introduced on the skirt. But the coverlet was the longest trimmed coat and skirt. Hat, of course, natural straw with decoration of blue silk roses.

The I. S. P. girls of the Y. W. C. A. gave a banquet at the new association building Friday night, as the opening event of dedication week. About two hundred women attended the dinner. Miss Susan Fobey was toastmistress and responses were made as follows: "The Builder" Miss Lena Davis; solo, Miss Eliza Kingsley; "Recreation—Recreation," Miss Denay Pruesmer; reading, Miss Irene Welsh; "Roses in June," Miss Mabel Peters; "Here's Hopin'," Miss Irene Coulter; music, Y. W. C. A. chorus; reading, Miss Hazel Barnwell; "What Do I See," Miss Minnie Smith. Miss Gladys Gah played the violin and Miss Frances Walsh sang.

Word has been received in Topeka of the marriage of Miss Helen Steiner and Mr. Leo Shreve of Los Angeles. The wedding took place June 10 at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Shreve formerly lived in Topeka and is now employed by the Santa Fe Railway company in Los Angeles, where he and his bride will make their home.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Fannie Cooper Atkinson, of Parsons, Kansas, the president of the State Federation, has written the following letter to Mrs. M. W. Willard, of Topeka: "I am submitting for your consideration, and hope for your approval of a list of members for our Art Committee. The immediate work of the committee is that of organizing the country school teachers in a plan to place at least one good copy of every great picture on the walls of every country school in Kansas. To this end the chairman of the art committee, Mrs. Murdock, will write at once to every county superintendent, asking co-operation and the privilege of the matter being presented at each county normal institute. In order to secure co-operation of the district presidents to the extent of appointing a capable club woman, or some capable representative in each county to present this matter to the teachers.

"The question of ways and means must be left to the teacher to work out in the district, with the co-operation of pupils and parents. What is wanted is a painting, a literary cartoon, a painting, a spelling match, a lecture, a 'pie social,' or any other plan that will bring the teacher, pupils, and parents together, by having a small admission fee, serve the triple end of raising social interest, giving a moral stimulus, and provide a fund, even though a small one, for the purchase of a copy of a great picture. The Art Committee will advise art teachers concerning the picture to be chosen and it is hoped this work may be accomplished before the Christmas vacation.

"It must be unnecessary to present argument on the value and need of this work. The barren walls of our school houses in both town and country, and the resultant hunger for something beautiful to see, are the most urgent reasons for this effort. Anyone who visits them must be impressed that there is nothing so good as the beauty that hangs on the interior of these country school houses, and if it be true that 'to get a thing into our national life, we must get it into the schools,' then is this plan the best way of teaching a love of the artistic and beautiful. We hope the Civic and Educational Committees will be able to co-operate with the Art Committee in such manner that not only the interior of the school buildings where the children spend so great a part of their formative years, be made more attractive, but that the exterior and grounds may receive attention and also that the school boards, by making art centers for the social, intellectual and religious life of the communities.

"Referring to the Chautauqua assemblies in Kansas, it would seem that the Federation should not only make its contribution by way of interest and participation toward the success of these meetings, but avail itself of the opportunity for presentation and discussion of work along the artistic and various departments. To this end, may I ask that each district president take the matter up with the Chautauqua assemblies in her district, and the assistance of any members of the executive board who may reside in her district, arrange with the local club women to conduct a club hour, at which time some of the sessions might be given to the committee and department work of our federation be presented, and if possible maintain a rest tent or club headquarters. The matter of club extension is to be placed in the hands of district presidents and some valuable work along this line might also be accomplished. Will you consider these suggestions and give them immediate attention?"

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Fannie Cooper Atkinson, of Parsons, Kansas, the president of the State Federation, has written the following letter to Mrs. M. W. Willard, of Topeka: "I am submitting for your consideration, and hope for your approval of a list of members for our Art Committee. The immediate work of the committee is that of organizing the country school teachers in a plan to place at least one good copy of every great picture on the walls of every country school in Kansas. To this end the chairman of the art committee, Mrs. Murdock, will write at once to every county superintendent, asking co-operation and the privilege of the matter being presented at each county normal institute. In order to secure co-operation of the district presidents to the extent of appointing a capable club woman, or some capable representative in each county to present this matter to the teachers.

"The question of ways and means must be left to the teacher to work out in the district, with the co-operation of pupils and parents. What is wanted is a painting, a literary cartoon, a painting, a spelling match, a lecture, a 'pie social,' or any other plan that will bring the teacher, pupils, and parents together, by having a small admission fee, serve the triple end of raising social interest, giving a moral stimulus, and provide a fund, even though a small one, for the purchase of a copy of a great picture. The Art Committee will advise art teachers concerning the picture to be chosen and it is hoped this work may be accomplished before the Christmas vacation.

"It must be unnecessary to present argument on the value and need of this work. The barren walls of our school houses in both town and country, and the resultant hunger for something beautiful to see, are the most urgent reasons for this effort. Anyone who visits them must be impressed that there is nothing so good as the beauty that hangs on the interior of these country school houses, and if it be true that 'to get a thing into our national life, we must get it into the schools,' then is this plan the best way of teaching a love of the artistic and beautiful. We hope the Civic and Educational Committees will be able to co-operate with the Art Committee in such manner that not only the interior of the school buildings where the children spend so great a part of their formative years, be made more attractive, but that the exterior and grounds may receive attention and also that the school boards, by making art centers for the social, intellectual and religious life of the communities.

"Referring to the Chautauqua assemblies in Kansas, it would seem that the Federation should not only make its contribution by way of interest and participation toward the success of these meetings, but avail itself of the opportunity for presentation and discussion of work along the artistic and various departments. To this end, may I ask that each district president take the matter up with the Chautauqua assemblies in her district, and the assistance of any members of the executive board who may reside in her district, arrange with the local club women to conduct a club hour, at which time some of the sessions might be given to the committee and department work of our federation be presented, and if possible maintain a rest tent or club headquarters. The matter of club extension is to be placed in the hands of district presidents and some valuable work along this line might also be accomplished. Will you consider these suggestions and give them immediate attention?"

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Fannie Cooper Atkinson, of Parsons, Kansas, the president of the State Federation, has written the following letter to Mrs. M. W. Willard, of Topeka: "I am submitting for your consideration, and hope for your approval of a list of members for our Art Committee. The immediate work of the committee is that of organizing the country school teachers in a plan to place at least one good copy of every great picture on the walls of every country school in Kansas. To this end the chairman of the art committee, Mrs. Murdock, will write at once to every county superintendent, asking co-operation and the privilege of the matter being presented at each county normal institute. In order to secure co-operation of the district presidents to the extent of appointing a capable club woman, or some capable representative in each county to present this matter to the teachers.

"The question of ways and means must be left to the teacher to work out in the district, with the co-operation of pupils and parents. What is wanted is a painting, a literary cartoon, a painting, a spelling match, a lecture, a 'pie social,' or any other plan that will bring the teacher, pupils, and parents together, by having a small admission fee, serve the triple end of raising social interest, giving a moral stimulus, and provide a fund, even though a small one, for the purchase of a copy of a great picture. The Art Committee will advise art teachers concerning the picture to be chosen and it is hoped this work may be accomplished before the Christmas vacation.

"It must be unnecessary to present argument on the value and need of this work. The barren walls of our school houses in both town and country, and the resultant hunger for something beautiful to see, are the most urgent reasons for this effort. Anyone who visits them must be impressed that there is nothing so good as the beauty that hangs on the interior of these country school houses, and if it be true that 'to get a thing into our national life, we must get it into the schools,' then is this plan the best way of teaching a love of the artistic and beautiful. We hope the Civic and Educational Committees will be able to co-operate with the Art Committee in such manner that not only the interior of the school buildings where the children spend so great a part of their formative years, be made more attractive, but that the exterior and grounds may receive attention and also that the school boards, by making art centers for the social, intellectual and religious life of the communities.

"Referring to the Chautauqua assemblies in Kansas, it would seem that the Federation should not only make its contribution by way of interest and participation toward the success of these meetings, but avail itself of the opportunity for presentation and discussion of work along the artistic and various departments. To this end, may I ask that each district president take the matter up with the Chautauqua assemblies in her district, and the assistance of any members of the executive board who may reside in her district, arrange with the local club women to conduct a club hour, at which time some of the sessions might be given to the committee and department work of our federation be presented, and if possible maintain a rest tent or club headquarters. The matter of club extension is to be placed in the hands of district presidents and some valuable work along this line might also be accomplished. Will you consider these suggestions and give them immediate attention?"

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Fannie Cooper Atkinson, of Parsons, Kansas, the president of the State Federation, has written the following letter to Mrs. M. W. Willard, of Topeka: "I am submitting for your consideration, and hope for your approval of a list of members for our Art Committee. The immediate work of the committee is that of organizing the country school teachers in a plan to place at least one good copy of every great picture on the walls of every country school in Kansas. To this end the chairman of the art committee, Mrs. Murdock, will write at once to every county superintendent, asking co-operation and the privilege of the matter being presented at each county normal institute. In order to secure co-operation of the district presidents to the extent of appointing a capable club woman, or some capable representative in each county to present this matter to the teachers.

"The question of ways and means must be left to the teacher to work out in the district, with the co-operation of pupils and parents. What is wanted is a painting, a literary cartoon, a painting, a spelling match, a lecture, a 'pie social,' or any other plan that will bring the teacher, pupils, and parents together, by having a small admission fee, serve the triple end of raising social interest, giving a moral stimulus, and provide a fund, even though a small one, for the purchase of a copy of a great picture. The Art Committee will advise art teachers concerning the picture to be chosen and it is hoped this work may be accomplished before the Christmas vacation.

"It must be unnecessary to present argument on the value and need of this work. The barren walls of our school houses in both town and country, and the resultant hunger for something beautiful to see, are the most urgent reasons for this effort. Anyone who visits them must be impressed that there is nothing so good as the beauty that hangs on the interior of these country school houses, and if it be true that 'to get a thing into our national life, we must get it into the schools,' then is this plan the best way of teaching a love of the artistic and beautiful. We hope the Civic and Educational Committees will be able to co-operate with the Art Committee in such manner that not only the interior of the school buildings where the children spend so great a part of their formative years, be made more attractive, but that the exterior and grounds may receive attention and also that the school boards, by making art centers for the social, intellectual and religious life of the communities.

"Referring to the Chautauqua assemblies in Kansas, it would seem that the Federation should not only make its contribution by way of interest and participation toward the success of these meetings, but avail itself of the opportunity for presentation and discussion of work along the artistic and various departments. To this end, may I ask that each district president take the matter up with the Chautauqua assemblies in her district, and the assistance of any members of the executive board who may reside in her district, arrange with the local club women to conduct a club hour, at which time some of the sessions might be given to the committee and department work of our federation be presented, and if possible maintain a rest tent or club headquarters. The matter of club extension is to be placed in the hands of district presidents and some valuable work along this line might also be accomplished. Will you consider these suggestions and give them immediate attention?"

MR. BOWSER'S CANCER.
He Looks Over His Will and Prepares for the Worst.

After dinner Mr. Bowser lighted a cigar and took a stroll in his garden. That is, he called it his garden. He had planted five hills of sunflowers, and three burdocks were already showing their green heads above the soil, and so he had a right to call it a garden.

The sun was sinking away to rest, having been in the world all day. Now and then some weary woman threw a tomato can from a second or third story window, and now and then a boy peered at a cat kicking herself on the fence.

It was a peaceful scene—fit ending for a peaceful day.

There might have been more robins and bluebirds and orioles and bobolinks and nightingales to sing the sun to rest, but even Mr. Bowser realized as he gazed around him that we can't have all the good things of this world at once. A feeling of balminess was stealing over him, and he was about to speak to the cat in tones of kindness and courtesy, when—

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beaumont Martin left today after a visit of three weeks to Major and Mrs. Alvarado M. Fuller. They will stop at the Grand Canyon on their way home in San Jose, California. Mrs. Martin has been a guest at all the big parties since her arrival and has been very popular. Among the parties in compliment to her this week was an informal luncheon given by Mrs. Silas Porter at the Country club.

The following account of a wedding, of interest to many Topeka people, is taken from the Kansas City Journal. The bride, Miss Gay Shepherd, has frequently visited in Topeka as the guest of Mrs. W. S. McClintock, Mrs. C. S. Kistler, Miss Frances Connell, and Mrs. M. W. Willard. Mr. Frank Mills, the bridegroom, also has many friends here.

A beautiful home wedding celebrated last night was that of Miss Gay Shepherd and Mr. Frank Hale Ellis. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin W. Shepherd, 323 Grand street, at 8:23 o'clock. The service was read by the Rev. John Bennett, twenty-seven years of age, who is a member of the Episcopal church. The bride and groom stood in front of the large blue and white altar, which was decorated with palms and ferns. Beaumont's pink sweet peas and white daisies tied with blue tulle bows decorated the table. The bride wore a pink Killarney roses tied with blue tulle bows. The groom wore a white tulle wedding march and an orchestra. The bride who entered the ceremony room on the arm of her father, looking beautiful in a wedding gown of white crepe material, full length train, crepe material, and carried a bouquet of white and pink sweet peas tied with blue tulle bows. The bride's veil was fastened with a large white tulle veil. The bouquet, which was introduced in the valley and pink sweet peas. Her only ornament was a pearl pendant. The groom's gift, a blue tulle sash, was given by Mrs. Richard Griffith, who wore her wedding dress of cream white satin, lace trimmed, and carried white daisies and pink sweet peas tied with blue tulle bows.

corners of the broad revers, as a finish for the short sleeves, and was inset near the bottom of the jaunty coat. It was also introduced on the skirt. But the coverlet was the longest trimmed coat and skirt. Hat, of course, natural straw with decoration of blue silk roses.

The I. S. P. girls of the Y. W. C. A. gave a banquet at the new association building Friday night, as the opening event of dedication week. About two hundred women attended the dinner. Miss Susan Fobey was toastmistress and responses were made as follows: "The Builder" Miss Lena Davis; solo, Miss Eliza Kingsley; "Recreation—Recreation," Miss Denay Pruesmer; reading, Miss Irene Welsh; "Roses in June," Miss Mabel Peters; "Here's Hopin'," Miss Irene Coulter; music, Y. W. C. A. chorus; reading, Miss Hazel Barnwell; "What Do I See," Miss Minnie Smith. Miss Gladys Gah played the violin and Miss Frances Walsh sang.

Word has been received in Topeka of the marriage of Miss Helen Steiner and Mr. Leo Shreve of Los Angeles. The wedding took place June 10 at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Shreve formerly lived in Topeka and is now employed by the Santa Fe Railway company in Los Angeles, where he and his bride will make their home.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Fannie Cooper Atkinson, of Parsons, Kansas, the president of the State Federation, has written the following letter to Mrs. M. W. Willard, of Topeka: "I am submitting for your consideration, and hope for your approval of a list of members for our Art Committee. The immediate work of the committee is that of organizing the country school teachers in a plan to place at least one good copy of every great picture on the walls of every country school in Kansas. To this end the chairman of the art committee, Mrs. Murdock, will write at once to every county superintendent, asking co-operation and the privilege of the matter being presented at each county normal institute. In order to secure co-operation of the district presidents to the extent of appointing a capable club woman, or some capable representative in each county to present this matter to the teachers.

"The question of ways and means must be left to the teacher to work out in the district, with the co-operation of pupils and parents. What is wanted is a painting, a literary cartoon, a painting, a spelling match, a lecture, a 'pie social,' or any other plan that will bring the teacher, pupils, and parents together, by having a small admission fee, serve the triple end of raising social interest, giving a moral stimulus, and provide a fund, even though a small one, for the purchase of a copy of a great picture. The Art Committee will advise art teachers concerning the picture to be chosen and it is hoped this work may be accomplished before the Christmas vacation.

"It must be unnecessary to present argument on the value and need of this work. The barren walls of our school houses in both town and country, and the resultant hunger for something beautiful to see, are the most urgent reasons for this effort. Anyone who visits them must be impressed that there is nothing so good as the beauty that hangs on the interior of these country school houses, and if it be true that 'to get a thing into our national life, we must get it into the schools,' then is this plan the best way of teaching a love of the artistic and beautiful. We hope the Civic and Educational Committees will be able to co-operate with the Art Committee in such manner that not only the interior of the school buildings where the children spend so great a part of their formative years, be made more attractive, but that the exterior and grounds may receive attention and also that the school boards, by making art centers for the social, intellectual and religious life of the communities.

"Referring to the Chautauqua assemblies in Kansas, it would seem that the Federation should not only make its contribution by way of interest and participation toward the success of these meetings, but avail itself of the opportunity for presentation and discussion of work along the artistic and various departments. To this end, may I ask that each district president take the matter up with the Chautauqua assemblies in her district, and the assistance of any members of the executive board who may reside in her district, arrange with the local club women to conduct a club hour, at which time some of the sessions might be given to the committee and department work of our federation be presented, and if possible maintain a rest tent or club headquarters. The matter of club extension is to be placed in the hands of district presidents and some valuable work along this line might also be accomplished. Will you consider these suggestions and give them immediate attention?"

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Fannie Cooper Atkinson, of Parsons, Kansas, the president of the State Federation, has written the following letter to Mrs. M. W. Willard, of Topeka: "I am submitting for your consideration, and hope for your approval of a list of members for our Art Committee. The immediate work of the committee is that of organizing the country school teachers in a plan to place at least one good copy of every great picture on the walls of every country school in Kansas. To this end the chairman of the art committee, Mrs. Murdock, will write at once to every county superintendent, asking co-operation and the privilege of the matter being presented at each county normal institute. In order to secure co-operation of the district presidents to the extent of appointing a capable club woman, or some capable representative in each county to present this matter to the teachers.

"The question of ways and means must be left to the teacher to work out in the district, with the co-operation of pupils and parents. What is wanted is a painting, a literary cartoon, a painting, a spelling match, a lecture, a 'pie social,' or any other plan that will bring the teacher, pupils, and parents together, by having a small admission fee, serve the triple end of raising social interest, giving a moral stimulus, and provide a fund, even though a small one, for the purchase of a copy of a great picture. The Art Committee will advise art teachers concerning the picture to be chosen and it is hoped this work may be accomplished before the Christmas vacation.

"It must be unnecessary to present argument on the value and need of this work. The barren walls of our school houses in both town and country, and the resultant hunger for something beautiful to see, are the most urgent reasons for this effort. Anyone who visits them must be impressed that there is nothing so good as the beauty that hangs on the interior of these country school houses, and if it be true that 'to get a thing into our national life, we must get it into the schools,' then is this plan the best way of teaching a love of the artistic and beautiful. We hope the Civic and Educational Committees will be able to co-operate with the Art Committee in such manner that not only the interior of the school buildings where the children spend so great a part of their formative years, be made more attractive, but that the exterior and grounds may receive attention and also that the school boards, by making art centers for the social, intellectual and religious life of the communities.

"Referring to the Chautauqua assemblies in Kansas, it would seem that the Federation should not only make its contribution by way of interest and participation toward the success of these meetings, but avail itself of the opportunity for presentation and discussion of work along the artistic and various departments. To this end, may I ask that each district president take the matter up with the Chautauqua assemblies in her district, and the assistance of any members of the executive board who may reside in her district, arrange with the local club women to conduct a club hour, at which time some of the sessions might be given to the committee and department work of our federation be presented, and if possible maintain a rest tent or club headquarters. The matter of club extension is to be placed in the hands of district presidents and some valuable work along this line might also be accomplished. Will you consider these suggestions and give them immediate attention?"

MR. BOWSER'S CANCER.
He Looks Over His Will and Prepares for the Worst.

After dinner Mr. Bowser lighted a cigar and took a stroll in his garden. That is, he called it his garden. He had planted five hills of sunflowers, and three burdocks were already showing their green heads above the soil, and so he had a right to call it a garden.

The sun was sinking away to rest, having been in the world all day. Now and then some weary woman threw a tomato can from a second or third story window, and now and then a boy peered at a cat kicking herself on the fence.

It was a peaceful scene—fit ending for a peaceful day.

There might have been more robins and bluebirds and orioles and bobolinks and nightingales to sing the sun to rest, but even Mr. Bowser realized as he gazed around him that we can't have all the good things of this world at once. A feeling of balminess was stealing over him, and he was about to speak to the cat in tones of kindness and courtesy, when—

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beaumont Martin left today after a visit of three weeks to Major and Mrs. Alvarado M. Fuller. They will stop at the Grand Canyon on their way home in San Jose, California. Mrs. Martin has been a guest at all the big parties since her arrival and has been very popular. Among the parties in compliment to her this week was an informal luncheon given by Mrs. Silas Porter at the Country club.

The following account of a wedding, of interest to many Topeka people, is taken from the Kansas City Journal. The bride, Miss Gay Shepherd, has frequently visited in Topeka as the guest of Mrs. W. S. McClintock, Mrs. C. S. Kistler, Miss Frances Connell, and Mrs. M. W. Willard. Mr. Frank Mills, the bridegroom, also has many friends here.

A beautiful home wedding celebrated last night was that of Miss Gay Shepherd and Mr. Frank Hale Ellis. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin W. Shepherd, 323 Grand street, at 8:23 o'clock. The service was read by the Rev. John Bennett, twenty-seven years of age, who is a member of the Episcopal church. The bride and groom stood in front of the large blue and white altar, which was decorated with palms and ferns. Beaumont's pink sweet peas and white daisies tied with blue tulle bows decorated the table. The bride wore a pink Killarney roses tied with blue tulle bows. The groom wore a white tulle wedding march and an orchestra. The bride who entered the ceremony room on the arm of her father, looking beautiful in a wedding gown of white crepe material, full length train, crepe material, and carried a bouquet of white and pink sweet peas tied with blue tulle bows. The bride's veil was fastened with a large white tulle veil. The bouquet, which was introduced in the valley and pink sweet peas. Her only ornament was a pearl pendant. The groom's gift, a blue tulle sash, was given by Mrs. Richard Griffith, who wore her wedding dress of cream white satin, lace trimmed, and carried white daisies and pink sweet peas tied with blue tulle bows.

corners of the broad revers, as a finish for the short sleeves, and was inset near the bottom of the jaunty coat. It was also introduced on the skirt. But the coverlet was the longest trimmed coat and skirt. Hat, of course, natural straw with decoration of blue silk roses.

The I. S. P. girls of the Y. W. C. A. gave a banquet at the new association building Friday night, as the opening event of dedication week. About two hundred women attended the dinner. Miss Susan Fobey was toastmistress and responses were made as follows: "The Builder" Miss Lena Davis; solo, Miss Eliza Kingsley; "Recreation—Recreation," Miss Denay Pruesmer; reading, Miss Irene Welsh; "Roses in June," Miss Mabel Peters; "Here's Hopin'," Miss Irene Coulter; music, Y. W. C. A. chorus; reading, Miss Hazel Barnwell; "What Do I See," Miss Minnie Smith. Miss Gladys Gah played the violin and Miss Frances Walsh sang.

Word has been received in Topeka of the marriage of Miss Helen Steiner and Mr. Leo Shreve of Los Angeles. The wedding took place June 10 at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Shreve formerly lived in Topeka and is now employed by the Santa Fe Railway company in Los Angeles, where he and his bride will make their home.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. Fannie Cooper Atkinson, of Parsons, Kansas, the president of the State Federation, has written the following letter to Mrs. M. W. Willard, of Topeka: "I am submitting for your consideration, and hope for your approval of a list of members for our Art Committee. The immediate work of the committee is that of organizing the country school teachers in a plan to place at least one good copy of every great picture on the walls of every country school in Kansas. To this end the chairman of the art committee, Mrs. Murdock, will write at once to every county superintendent, asking co-operation and the privilege of the matter being presented at each county normal institute. In order to secure co-operation of the district presidents to the extent of appointing a capable club woman, or some capable representative in each county to present this matter to the teachers.

"The question of ways and means must be left to the teacher to work out in the district, with the co-operation of pupils and parents. What is wanted is a painting, a literary cartoon, a painting, a spelling match, a lecture, a 'pie social,' or any other plan that will bring the teacher, pupils, and parents together,