BURY TOWNS

Miners Overwhelmed

The towns of Black Bear, Conmon, Hausch, and

House and Occupants Under 50

Feet of Snow.

IT CAME IN THE NIGHT

And the Noise Was Heard Five

Miles Away.

The Dead Are Thought to Be

Now Dead.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 24.—About

two hundred houses have been burned and burned to the ground by a huge

fire which broke out

yesterday.

No one was injured.

The fire started in a house near the center

of the town and spread

quickly to other structures.

The loss is estimated

at several hundred thousand dollars.
