

The Liberal Democrat DAME FASHION REVIVES ART OF HAND EMBROIDERY

J. B. MILLER, Owner

Entered as second class matter January 6, 1911, at the post office at Liberal, Kansas, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Published Every Thursday at Liberal Seward County, Kansas.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SEWARD COUNTY, LIBERAL CITY AND UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE.

So Mrs. Grinstead will run for the senate.

The road between Liberal and the river is about as bad as it has been in a long time, sandy and rough being cut up badly.

One does not like a "tight wad" but he is worth as much to a community as the fellow who is always broke.—Pratt Union

John Wanamaker says: "If there is one business on earth that a "quitter" should leave entirely alone, it is advertising."

Lots of women would laugh at their husband's funeral if it were not the fashion to weep.—Washington Republican-Register.

Guymon is talking of building an east and west railroad. The Herald has already made considerable headway through its columns.

The equinox came in with a cold snap and a snow flurry only to dissolve into warm windy springlike weather.

In spite of the cold days of the first of the week, the fruit trees are still safe.

Let's carry the Lenten Season with us throughout the year.

The season of abstinence of frivolity, the thinking of beautiful thoughts, and the doing of noble deeds.

Back the Woman's Club and the progressive citizens of the city by supporting the Public Library Movement.

Mother's Cook Book

I will look sometimes about me for the things that merit praise: I will search for hidden beauties that elude the grumbler's gaze.

MEALS FOR A DAY.

FOR a choice dish sometime on a special occasion you may like to try:

Chicken Fillets With Almond Sauce. Sprinkle two chicken fillets with salt, a little pepper and a few grains of cayenne.

Apple Roll. Mix together one and one-half cups of flour, one-third of a cup of lard and a teaspoonful of salt.

That the art of hand embroidery is again coming into its own is significant with the showing of the new spring and summer dresses. These two Jessco models, which were handmade by French peasant girls, are striking examples of the latest creations.

SEARCH FOR BERGDOLL'S AID

Legion is Endeavoring to Find Man Alleged to Have Helped Slacker Reach Germany.

The American Legion is searching for the man who is reported to have aided Grover C. Bergdoll, notorious slacker, in his escape from Canada to Germany.

Mr. Bolles has appealed to the Department of Justice to ascertain the facts in the case and proposes, if the report is true, to see that the man is apprehended, expelled from the Legion and brought to a speedy trial.

Familiarity's Breed.

At the grave of the departed the old darkey pastor stood, hat in hand. Looking into the abyss he delivered himself of the funeral oration.

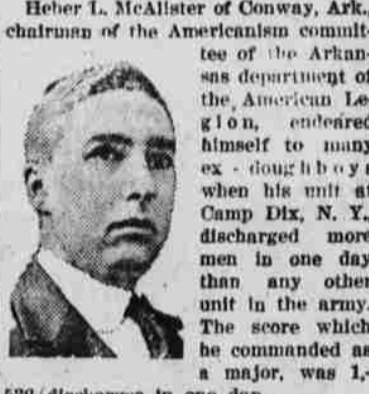

The Greater Shame.

Wife—Aren't you positively ashamed that your wife and daughter are out at the elbows? Hub—Nope. But I am ashamed that they are all out at the knees.—American Legion Weekly.
