Features of Second Game Changing Pitchers and Wrangling.

Topeka took two games of a double header from the Webb City team at Association park. Yesterday was the irst day of real baseball weather xperienced in Topeka so far this season and the local team made a celebration over the event before a crowd of 2,000 ple which is the largest crowd so far for this season.

The reason that Topeka took the first came was principally Bunton. The new Indian colored acquisition to the To-peka team made his initial appearance n a White Sox uniform on the home grounds and had everything coming his way. He was real stingy to the visitors and did not treat them with as much respect as they would have liked as he allowed only four hits. One of these was good for two bases but the runner rished at third. Shaner on the other nd was hit freely and especially when ere were men on bases.

The second game was won by a bat-ting spurt and an error in the ninth inning, which was coupled with a ques-tionable decision in the same inning and a bombardment in the eleventh inng put the winning run across the Topeka started out in the very first nning of the first game as though they neant business. Davis drew a base and was sacrificed to second by Duke Hurl-surt. Abbott singled Davis home and then stole second, scoring a moment la-ter on Gray's poor throw to first, Halla going to third on the throw, Ragan singled and scored Halla, making a to-going to third on the throw. Ragan singled and scored Halla, making a total of three runs.

The batting averages were not all fattened yet, however, and three more came over in the second. Henry walked and while Bunton was fanning stole second and third consecutively, both of them brilliant pieces of daring base running. Then ensued an onslaught of the delivery of Nig Shaner and hits by Davis, Hurlburt, Abbott and a fielder's choice by Halla annexed three more to the local tabulation.

Abbott walked in the fourth and went to third on Shaner's wild pitch. Halla singled and Spencerino came home. Another wild pitch sent Halla to second and a couple of infield outs brought him home. The only other run for the locals came in the seventh inning when Hurlburt singled, went to second on Webb City only got one man to third and that event transpired in the sixth when Shaner doubled with one out and went to third on Gray's infield out. Olson flew foul to Halla and everything ended happily.

In the second game the locals commenced scoring in the first inning. After two men had been retired Abbott took life on Olson's error and went to third on Halla's Single, Scoring on Milthird on Halla's single, scoring on Mil-ton's wild pitch. Another run came in the third when Davis opened up with a hit. Hurlburt executed a sacrifice hit and Abbott flew out to Dalrymple.

Gill's error gave Halla life and allowed Abbett to tally.

Allison started the game for Topeka but the visitors got next to him in the fourth inning for four safe ones and Captain Huriburt placed Forrester on the mound. After Topeka tied

After the locals had crossed the plate twice Webb City came into the foreground and scored two in the fourth. Gray hit safe but was caught on second on Olson's fielder's choice. Dalrymple went to second on the throw in and while Ragan had the ball in his hand carelessly strolled off of second allowing Ragan to touch him with the greatest of ease. This little trick caused Webb City a run as Blosser, next man up hit Allison for a double, Painter scoring. Allison then retired and Forrester was called in to relieve the situation. Price was easily retired. In the sixth the visitors slipped one over on Forrester. Olston hit safe and completed the circuit on infield outs by Painter and Dalrymple. In the

In the ninth inning with Webb City two runs to the good Topeka tied the score. Halla, first man up, singled. Huriburt then sent in Landreth to bat for Rasan, Landreth swaps at two. for Ragan. Landreth swung at two and as a wild pitch crossed somewhat in the general direction of the plate, he struck at the ball and ran to first. Milton threw the ball to Gill to head him off at first and the ball went into the bleachars allowing Halla to score.

Msnager Milton of the Webb City team argued with Umpire Jacobs that

Landreth should have been out as a runner was on first at the time. Jacobs, however, held that Halla had second stolen before Landreth swung at the ball. The game was protested by Webb City on this decision. Runkel sacrificed Halla home but Topeka could not win the game and extra innings had to be played.

In the eleventh inning after Boles, who had taken Ragan's place at short, went out, Runkel hit safe. Olson uncorked a double to right field and Runkel trotted home with the winning

EVEN BREAK SATURDAY. Topeka Took First Game and Webb City the Second One.

In a double header Saturday afternoon the Champs split even with Webb City, by taking the first and dropping the second. Halla was on the mound in the first game and held the visitors safe at all stages of the game. He allowed but three hits which were scattered at long inter-vals. Topeka scored the only run of the game in the sixth inning when with one out Henry singled to left center. A moment later he stole third. left Abbott flew out and Hurlburt walked. Davis singled, scoring Henry for the only run of the game. The only

In the second game Forrester opposed Burns. Burns had pitched all but two innings of the first game but his nerve was unlimited and he went back in the second. He didn't seem to have very much up his sleeve but what he did have was in good working order and three bunts and a clean single were all the Champs could do

Topeka scored first when a combi-nation of three bunts in the second inning sent Haila across the registra-tion booth. Webb City tied it up in the sixth on Painter's drive after Ol-son had stolen second. Nothing more was doing for the visitors until the eleventh although Topeka was fortunate in getting out of several tight holes. Hits by Ivan Olson and Paint-er followed by a sacrifice by Dalrymple and a single by Blosser scored two runs and the game for the visitors.

is a slight probability that the race will be evened up somewhat and the teams on the two extremities of the pennant ladder will draw nearer to each other.

The Webb City team is playing the game with more ginger than they did when they were in Topeka on their first trip. One might form the impression that the Convicts have the blues, but such, they claim, is not the case.

In the game last Friday which Warren Gill won with a home run, Manager Jay Andrews of the Hutchinson team was put on the bench by Umpire Eckman. Jay was talking too much.
