

USED HIS FISTS.

Umpire Eckman's Plan of Subduing Unruly Ball Player.

Hits Helling in Face When Player Grows Abusive.

AN EXCITING MIXUP.

Three Wichita Players Are Finally Benched.

Jobbers Shut Out by Score of 2 to 0.

The deciding game of the series between Topeka and Wichita went to Topeka Wednesday afternoon by a score of 2 to 0. The game, however, was a mere sideshow as events far more thrilling which were not extensively advertised on the bill boards were pulled off. In the first inning the feature of the game was enacted when Gus Helling, the Wichita third baseman, and Umpire Eckman engaged in a fistic duel, which, however, was frustrated by the other players before any damage was done. Buck Weaver was also benched. Enough evidence was given though to show that neither of the combatants possessed enough science to travel far as a sparring partner of John E. Sullivan. The jobs which each one intended for the other fell as far wide of the mark as one of Ed Ruelbach's outdrops.

HARRY LUMLEY, ONE OF THE GREATEST BATSMEN OF THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

In Harry Lumley the National league team of Brooklyn has a young man who is making a fine record as a slugger. Lumley stands well up in the front rank of National league batters. His batting percentage for forty-nine games was .332, with fifteen runs and sixty-three hits. He had to his credit six three base hits and nine two baggers.

Umpire Eckman Lands on Helling.

The trouble started in the first inning when Becker was on second and Milan on third with no one out and Helling to bat. A third ball thrown right in the groove was called a ball while different members of the Topeka team protested. Helling finally struck out and nothing came from this. Immediately afterwards Dicky Bayless dropped a fly from his bat into Hurlburt's hands and Milan crossed the rubber. The throw was relayed by Tommenon to Runkel on third and Eckman declared that Milan's farewell to third base was premature. After Hurlburt had reached second in Topeka's part of the first on a stolen base, the decision being very close. Weaver remonstrated with the umpire and was benched. Helling then came in from third and before the fans could realize what was doing, Helling was poked in the cheek by Umpire Eckman and a lively tussle followed, which was frustrated by the combined efforts of the members of both teams. Helling was benched and the two players were removed from the grounds. Another benching took place in the ninth inning when Young for relief left the third base coaching line after ordered to do so by Umpire Eckman. This cost Mr. Young five dollars.

last half of the sixth. After Jones had made an infield out. Lawler hit over shortstop and stole second. Hurlburt walked and a double steal was executed. Abbott tried for a bunt and the ball took a straight shoot past Holland on first base. It was the greatest bunt ever made on the local diamond, even if it was an accident, and sent Lawler and Hurlburt across the plate.

Abbott Brings in a Brace of Runs.

The game itself was comparatively featureless. The fans were greatly incensed over the trouble in the first inning and some hold the umpire responsible while others are inclined to criticize the Wichita team. Some even go so far as to lay the blame on Holland who profiting by past experience was not drawn into the trouble. The Topeka team left this morning for Hutchinson and the next appearance on the home grounds will be with Leavenworth July 4. In the meantime the novelty will be reproducing the games.

E. B. H. Remly and Bill Taylor, who were at the game, wanted their money back after the game because the fight was not to a finish and lasted but one round. The Official score:

THAT AMERICAN LEAGUE RACE.
Chicago Sees Vision of an Awful Close Closing Contest.

Napoleon Lajoie led his band of pennant-chasing athletes to the South Side park yesterday and as a result of this incursion the champions of everything are hanging onto first place by the epidermic teeth of a razor. Cleveland continued the dizzy pace set on Sunday and the result was a well earned victory over the Sox by the count of 3 to 2.

That the Naps are out for the pennant with all sails taut certainly impressed itself upon even the least observant of the 6,000 would-be spectators, some crowd for a blue Monday. The hard luck champs are playing the best game they have shown in a long time. They are going to the front! If the Naps cannot be stopped in today's game the White Sox will no longer be in luck from occupying first place, but will unceremoniously tumble into the next position. Here they will find little comfort, as the clawing Tigers will be right at their heels. About the only thing they are counting on is the coming Jennings' man eaters will soon have both feet in the first place pie. Gee! but it is going to be something to see a scrapping team bit of bunting.—Inter-Ocean, June 25.

"TEX" RICKARD SEEKS GANS.
The Goldfield Fight Promoter Wants to Match Him With Nelson.

New York, June 27.—"Tex" Rickard of Goldfield is in New York and yesterday afternoon went to Sheephead to see the ponies run.
Rickard says he is going to Baltimore, where he hopes to meet Joe Gans and arrange with him to meet Battling Nelson in the ring again. Rickard evidently has terms from Billy Nolan, the Dane's manager, which he believes, he can pull the match off in Nevada on Labor day.
While here he will have a talk with Joe Rogers, Tom O'Rourke's protege, and may arrange for a battle for him in the west.

Britt-Nelson Bout Postponed.
San Francisco, June 27.—The Britt-Nelson fight which was scheduled for July 3, was postponed last night until July 31. A reason given for the postponement is the inability of Nelson to continue training owing to an abscess in his ear. The referee for the fight will be chosen July 15.
