

ANNOUNCEMENT

For Sheriff I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of sheriff of Allen county, subject to the Republican primaries and convention.

LOOMIS WAS ELECTED

We Was Chosen Commander of Kansas Department of G. A. R. Fort Scott, Kansas, May 21—The G. A. R. encampment practically completed its work today.

ALL PALIC STRICKEN

Citizens of Martinique want to Leave at once Fort de France, Island of Martinique, May 20.—Governor L'Huerre is on board the French cruiser Suchet.

A TIRADE BY HOAR

The Massachusetts senator Breaks Forth Washington, May 22.—Senator Hoar of Massachusetts proceeded with his speech this afternoon in denunciation of the administration's policy in the Philippines.

LIQUID FUEL TESTS.

Those to Be Undertaken by Navy Department Attracting Great Interest Throughout Country. The coming tests with liquid fuel under the navy department are exciting the greatest interest throughout the country.

DAILY FASHION HINTS

A Dainty Theater Notice. With the signs of an approaching warm weather our heavy and much trimmed satin and pongee gowns are found too uncomfortable and we long for lighter garments to wear to the theater.

FLORIDA EARTHQUAKE

Earth Trembled and Rumbled at St. Augustine Three Hours. St. Augustine, Fla., May 21. Almost continuous shocks, presumably of earthquake, were felt here from 9 o'clock until midnight last night.

WON'T DESERT KELLY

Johnson County Republican Delegates Will Support him Olathe, Kan., May 21. The Johnson county delegation to the Republican state convention held a meeting in this city today and unanimously adopted the following resolution:

THREE YEARS APIECE

Post Office Burglars Suffer For Their Crime at Linden. Kansas City, Mo., May 22—Three years apiece was the sentence the federal court imposed on Pat, Alias Cyclone, Lavin and John, Alias Foot-and-a-half, Butler for robbing the Linden, Mo., post office.

CREED WAS ADOPTED

Presbyterians Finally Decide to Revise the Westminster Creed. New York, May 22—The culmination of fifty years discussion of the revision of the Westminster creed was reached today when the report of the revision committee was adopted.

HAD PLENTY OF RAIN

Kansas visited by a heavy downpour—Crop Conditions good Topeka, May 21. Heavy rains have fallen practically all over Kansas during the past twenty-four hours.

THE STRONGEST COLLEGE.

Tests Being Made at the Present Time to Discover the Most Athletic Body of Students. College men throughout the United States have begun to take strength tests for the purpose of evolving the institution which numbers in its ranks the 50 strongest men among American colleges.

WOULD NOT ADJOURN

Democrats Won't Wait for the Pop Convention. Wichita, Kansas, May 22—Immediately after the Democratic convention met this morning Welles of Galena moved that the convention adjourn to meet with the Populists on June 24.

OKLAHOMA DELUGED ALSO

Guthrie, O. T., May 21.—Guthrie escaped a tornado early this morning, although for several hours people lived in cyclone cellars, and wind, rain and hail combined in a fierce storm.

WILL SELL COUNTY PROPERTY

Pursuant to an order made by the county commissioners some time ago that board will hold a public sale at the county jail premises on May 28 at 10 a. m.

CALL ON THE PRESIDENT

The French Visitors Made a Round of Formal Calls. Washington, May 22.—General Brugere, commander in chief of the French army, Vice-Admiral Fournier, and other representatives of the Rochambeau commission were taken to the White House this morning by French Ambassador Cambon.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Table with market prices for various goods like wheat, corn, and pork.

A FAMOUS EDITOR DEAD

Edwin L. Godkin, Who "Made" the New York Evening Post. New York, May 21.—Edwin Lawrence Godkin, editor emeritus of the New York Evening Post, died in Brixham, South Devonshire, England, last night.

HE DIED AT THE STAKE

A Texas Negro Burned by a Mob This Afternoon. Dallas, Texas, May 22.—Bud Morgan the negro accused of ravishing Mrs. McKay, three days ago near Longview, was captured by a mob this morning and is to be burned at the stake this afternoon.