AFTER WADDELL.

Boston Americans Would Buy the Eccentric Twirler. Manager Collins Opens Negotiations With Connie. CONFER AT BUFFALO. Chances Are That Rube Will Change His Residence. Ban Johnson Names a List of His New Umpires.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 1.—After a lengthy conference here between Capt. Jimmy Collins of the Boston Americans, Connie Mack of Philadelphia, and President Ban Johnson it became known that Collins was anxious to secure the services of eccentric Rube Waddell, and further, it may be said the prospects of Waddell playing with Boston are bright.

SALINA JURY DISAGREE.

A Damage Suit Against the City Has Been Tried Five Times. Salina, Kan., Jan. 1.—The jury in the case of Anderson versus the city of Salina disagreed here and was discharged after a trial of five times. The case has been tried five times. Twice Anderson got a verdict and twice the verdict was reversed by the supreme court. He has had a jury award the case, which has been on the docket here for eight years, is a suit for damages for injuries sustained by the iron door of a safe falling on Anderson when he was a lad.

OKLAHOMA CITY'S PLANS.

Manager Barnes to Have New Ball Park and a Big League Pitcher. Oklahoma City, O. T., Jan. 1.—Manager Gene Barnes, of the Oklahoma City Baseball association, is in communication with the state athletic commission regarding the possibility of the team for the coming season. Reising is one of the big league pitchers, having played in the La Harpe lineup in the past season, and has for the past season played outland ball. He is a good batter and his box work ranks with the best.

AFTER DIGESTION—WHAT?

It's not enough to digest your food, and reduce it to pulp or liquid inside you, but it must also be properly absorbed, carried to the proper organs, filtered, purified, and carried by your blood to the various parts of your body which are worn out and stand in need of repair.

WINNERS AT LOS ANGELES.

S. M. Williams Headed the List From the First Day. Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 1.—After four weeks of competition the horsemen at Akron met to divide the $2,000 prize from the head of the list of winning owners, where he established himself on opening day. The Williams horses have won approximately $4,000. Silver Spur alone entered the race. C. E. Durnell is a close second and J. L. Holland third. Twenty stables have won over $1,000.

SHE IS AFRAID OF BOB.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons Lives in Dread of Her Husband's Arrival. Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 1.—Mrs. Robert Fitzsimmons lives in dread of death at the hands of her pugilist husband. "In spite of Bob's cruel treatment of me, I know he still dearly loves me in his rough way, and this makes me fear sometimes for my safety should he decide to come to Sioux Falls," said the runaway wife. "He appears to be almost insane over me and because of this he is to lose me through the divorce courts of South Dakota, I hardly know what may happen."

Place for Jack Dolan.

Akron, O., Jan. 1.—Jack Dolan, formerly with the Chicago, St. Louis and Washington National league teams, and now with the Youngstown team of the Protective league, probably will manage the Akron team of the same league next season.
