

Rich New Fabrics For Fall Gowns

The Spirit of Autumn

dictated to the colorists of the new fabrics. Autumn herself wears ever a gown of brown—though enriched with gems of bright color. And here are browns and browns, with the strangely beautiful new colors that come from brown—yellows, or pinks, or reds, so mingled with the dun color of the fall that the identity of both is lost. So came the rich scorched orange, the beautiful dull leather shades, and the wonderful onion skin.

Then blending in softly is a rare color confection—not cream, not lemon, but called banana color.

Strikingly brilliant, lighting them all, is the vivid new green, russe—and that peculiar shade that's named for the humble lobster.

Never, in any season, such a revel of new shadings, that promise so many artistically beautiful gowns.

Stylish Wool Waists

Soft light cloths are mostly used, like Albatross and Nunswelling—but there are Mohairs and Granites also, in pretty styles. New shadings of blue, tan, red, green and other colors, also black, white and cream.

Fanciful over-laid rakes are seen, end tucks, tailored, pleats, shirrings, and French knots. Some of the puffed sleeves have elbow cuffs, others the new epaulette effect.

Prices..... $3 to $5

A FEW OF THE NOTABLE SUIT FASHIONS

For Street Gowns—Mannish cloths first, of course. That means dull, handsome mixtures mostly, with invisible checks, plaids, and stripes half hidden in the warp. Anywhere between 75c and $3 a yard you can choose a becoming gown.

Suitings of Novel Weave and great beauty, show a zibelene-like surface—nap very short—over brown grounds, dashed with onion skin, intense green, or brilliant red; greens flecked with brown; dark blues lighted up with bits of green and red. These fabrics are marked $1.75 and $2.00.

Broadcloths Important for dressy tailored suits and reception gowns. A full range of colors in broadcloths, from black down to evening colors. Among them the leather and onion skin shades, that will be used so extensively for trimming the more sombre colors, and for reception gowns. These cloths 50 and 54 inches wide. $1 to $5 a yard.

Chiffon Broadcloth is a late development. The lightest broadcloth made. Soft and lustrous, it drapes exquisitely, and will be a favorite, in all the light and brilliant shades, for reception gowns and evening wraps—banana color, mais, grays, blues, onion skin, and the rest. For this $2.50, $3.00 and $4.50 a yard, but it is 54 inches wide.

Other Reception Fabrics are Chiffon Voiles, Crepe de Paris and their pretty relatives, at prices from $1.00 to $3.00.

Rain Coat Cloths—Always Priestly's inimitable Cravenettes to begin with. Plain, and with plaid backs, in grays, browns, olives, tans, and black. So wide—57 inches—that $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 a yard is not so much to pay.

Shower-Proof Cloths in stylish mixtures, plain and plaid, are woven for lasting beauty and service—56 to 60 inches wide, and $1.35 to $3.00 a yard.

At Less Cost—Many stylish cloths for suits and other gowns. For instance, at 50c a yard we show an admirable line of mannish cloths with invisible checked and plaided effects. New zibelene, chevots and improved granites. Rice voiles, too, for more dressy uses.

For Fall Waists—Such pretty little checked effects, in tans, browns, blues, white and black. Some with embroidered dots of contrasting colors. Priced at 58c a yard.

Plaids for Waists—Very stylish, these brilliant plaids—45 inches wide, and 75c a yard.

Pleated Blouse Suit of Brown
Lymansville Chevrot—Jacket is bloused front and back, and has vest, belt and cuffs of leather colored broadcloth, covered with rows of brown soutache braid. The combination is quietly rich. Applied side yoke, front and back, edges many times stitched, finished with small dull gold buttons and little loops of cachou braid. Plain box pleated skirt. $30.00.

Blue Herring-bone Chevrot Suit—The short, fitted Jacket is tucked front and back, over the drooping shoulders, from which fall very full gathered sleeves. Vest of blue velvet, with velvet buttons and facings of velvet on collar and cuffs. Front skirt gored, slashed at foot, bound with blue silk and caught down with small velvet buttons. $50.00.

Brown Blouse Suit—Fabric is Novelty Chevrot—jaunty little jacket; is bloused back and front and has a very short dirndl skirt. There is a vest of onion skin broadcloth, closed with brown velvet buttons. Belt and tiny pockets of brown velvet. The full sleeve shows a little shirred frill above the velvet cuff which closes link fashion, with velvet buttons. On skirt, the new sectional flounce, at side and back gores, with bounce trimmed straps across top. $50.00.

Handsome Brown Suit of blind chevrot. Made with plain, tailored coat-jacket, half fitted. Brightened with narrow vest of onion skin broadcloth, closed with small dull gold buttons. Coat collar and cuffs of brown velvet. Skirt is fan-pleated, front and back. The severity of cut brings out the richness of the fabric in this suit. $45.00.

Suit of Mannish Cloth—Dark blue with touches of red and green, and an invisible stripe of white. Coat is cut box fashion, strapped down back. Has vest and narrow under-cuffs of dark red velvet, edged with two toned braid. Box pleated skirt. Very smart in effect. $30.00.

News of Autumn Silks.
Really wonderful that the checks, plaids and mixed effects belonging to wool suitings could be so gracefully adapted to silken fabrics. Yet it has been done this season, and the results surpass for beauty anything that has gone before.

There Are Canvas Weaves, three toned, copied from wool homespun, invisible plaids, and two toned checks, illuminated taffetas and others for suits. For more elaborate gowns endless fanciful designs, in entirely new effects.

For Evening Wear, among the best new fabrics is Corean crepe, soft and shimmering, and the new Bengalines. The latter appear also in the darker or street shadings.

In Black Silks, our splendid Moneybak Guaranteed Silks are foremost. We sell them exclusively in Topeka, and shall have much to say of them in the future. There are several facts about Moneybak that you should know, they mean money to you. Inquire for these silks, and hear their story.

Anderson County Primaries Controlled by the Antis.
Garnett, Kan., Sept. 12.—The Republican primaries in Anderson county Saturday afternoon were contested bitterly in every precinct. In the congressional district last spring the fight between J. D. Bowersock and H. J. Allen was so close that it resulted in a split by the Bowersock people. The contest here Saturday was practically the same line-up. But the Bowersock crowd lost. Oscar township gave Bowersock 100 majority last spring, but here Saturday he lost by the anti-Bowersock organization, James Hunter, a Curtis candidate for representative, lost his township (Walker) by 11 majority.
The county convention will meet Tuesday, W. A. Trigg, formerly editor of the Garnett Eagle, is the candidate of Attorney General Coleman. There will be a contest for all the offices except in the case of a few, where the winner will be renominated by acclamation.

Killed in Boxing Bout.
Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 12.—In a friendly boxing bout Alexander Tighman, a waiter, has received a body blow which was followed by almost instant death. His opponent was a fellow waiter. The two had been boxing a few minutes when Tighman's opponent landed over the heart and he dropped. The onlookers chaffed him, but their laughter changed to cries of alarm when the man rolled over dead. The authorities viewed the matter as purely accidental. A vetular of Tighman's heart was found to have given away.

What you do, neighbor? Helpin' Bill. What's Bill doin' Mander. What's Mander doin' Helpin' Mother. What's Mother doin' Talkin' Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Scussible family. Gattin' Drug Co.

Don't delay a minute. Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea come suddenly. Only safe plan is to have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always on hand.

GENTRYS SHOW IS HERE

It Is Larger and Better Than Ever Before.

A full half mile of snow-white dogs and ponies, neatly cropped, combed and trimmed, the former sitting saucily upright in miniature red and gold chariots, drawn by a hundred equine Shetland beauties, is what the Gentry Bros. showed the thousands of parents and children who lined the downtown streets to witness this morning's parade. But that was not all. There was a great herd of elephants from Italy, is said to be the smallest and most and weighed but 135 pounds. Yesterday the midget Shetland tipped the scales at 23 pounds and was frisking merrily about under cages, guy ropes and the heels of his larger associates. No equine animal showed the existence of a pony of such diminutive proportions, and "Little Clo" is the envy of all showmen.

The younger, being of such tender years and thus is not allowed to take part in the parade, but is carefully guarded and rides in a special car with its mother, "Thimble," amidst the smiles of the actor ponies.
The famous Kitamura family of Royal Japanese entertainers were astride dapper Shetlands in the parade and were the subject of much admiration and interest. Little "Clo," the youngest of the family, is said to be the smallest and most far-off Singapore; lowly camels, beautiful specimens of their race, from Siberia; a hundred sneezing monkeys from Banzilian jungles, and sacred cattle from mysterious Tibet. All but the latter are actors, and a wonderful four-footed family it was. They reached Topeka early Sunday morning and left their cushioned quarters on the show train with a lisp and a bound, glad to breathe the cool morning air after their heated period of the past few days.

After being comfortably housed in the big white tents at Jefferson and Ninth streets, the great animal family was visited by throngs of admirers all day long, and the Gentrys, as usual, raised the slide walls and gave the public free access.
Little "Cloquet," the tiniest pony, perhaps, in existence was the nucleus of a throng of children and was the object of continual patting. "Clo" is but five weeks old and at birth stood but 14 inches high.
