BRIDE IN DANGER.

Rev. Carroll Burke, of Manhattan, Wedded in Brooklyn.

Compelled to Leave Hastily for Fear of Violence.

THREATENS THE WIFE.

Young Woman is Hysterical When Interviewed.

Letters Are Written to Bishop Millspaugh.

New York, June 30.—Wedded in secret last Wednesday evening at the bride's home, the Rev. Carroll Burke, an Episcopal minister and his wife, formerly Miss Gertrude Willis of No. 26 Park Place, Brooklyn, fled to Manhattan, Kan., where the groom's parish is located, to escape the threatened violence of a jealous Brooklyn suitor, it was learned today.

The Rev. Mr. Burke refused to be interviewed and ignores all press reports regarding the threats made by the Brooklyn suitor. The Rev. Carroll Burke has been in the Kansas diocese for nearly four years and is well and favorably known throughout the state.
