Lady Beresford Sues the Duke of Marlborough

For Cash She Expended on Blenheim Palace.

Snaubed by New Duchess She Thus Seeks Revenge.

London, Oct. 27.—The preparations here to welcome on their return to England from South Africa the few hundred men who constitute the City Imperial Volunteers have entirely monopolized England's attention this week...

The next big celebration will probably occur Monday, November 19, when General Buller is due at Southampton. He will receive the decorations and will doubtless have a triumphant progress, though the reception which will be accorded to Lord Roberts will, of course, eclipse the other.

In the midst of the preparations for celebrating the return of the victorious soldiers it is not surprising that the people generally fail to realize how extremely costly and long drawn out has been the struggle in South Africa. Statistics carefully prepared show that one of the largest insurance companies show that proportionately more Britishers were killed than the Germans lost in the war with France of 1870.

Lady William Beresford (formerly Lillian, Duchess of Marlborough) has brought action for libel against the Duke. The matter came up originally when the present duke succeeded to the title, but owing to the friendly relations existing between the duke and his stepmother, it was temporarily arranged.

Another aristocratic lawsuit, which will shortly be heard in camera is the application of the Marchioness of Anglesey, who is heard to be a declared null. They only became man and wife in 1898, but it was strictly a carriage of the marchioness's cousin arranged for the sake of inheriting property which otherwise could not have been touched by either of them.

Shanokin, Pa., Oct. 27.—A committee representing 4,000 employees of the Union Coal company waited on Superintendent Reinhardt today and were assured that the 16 per cent. increase will be granted and all grievances arbitrated. Work will be resumed next Monday.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 27.—Adlai E. Stevenson was last night given a tremendous ovation at West Side Turner hall, which was packed to overflowing by an audience of over 3,000 persons. Mr. Stevenson was preceded by Louis G. Rohrbach, candidate for governor of Wisconsin, who was also well received.

No Winter In Sight.

There is no prospect of the present engagement of pleasant weather coming to a close soon. The elements are still favorable to the engagement, and Jennings, who is looking after the conditions, says very wisely that the good weather may continue until election day. The forecast sent out today is "fair Sunday, possibly preceded by showers to the southeast portion. Cooler tonight. The maximum Friday was 71, five degrees cooler than Thursday. The minimum today was 61, and the thermometer has reached 61. The wind has been south, blowing 12 miles an hour.

ROOSEVELT GONE AGAIN.

Leaves New York City Early This Morning

For Another Day's Campaign In the Interior.

OFF FOR BINGHAMTON

Makes a Number of Speeches Along the Route.

Good Sized Crowds Assemble to See Him Start.

IT IS HIS BIRTHDAY.

The Governor is In Especially Good Spirits.

New York, Oct. 27.—Governor Roosevelt was up early today at the residence of Mrs. Douglas Robinson, his sister, in Madison avenue. Having taken breakfast the governor and Mrs. Roosevelt entered a carriage at 8:20 and escorted by a platoon of 20 mounted policemen drove to the Erie railroad ferry. In Jersey City the governor entered his special car to travel toward Binghamton, at which city he is scheduled to arrive at 8:40 p. m. On the way stops will be made and short speeches delivered at Suffern, Hill Brook, Middletown, Fort Jervis, Shohola, Lackawaxen, Cochocton, Calicoon, Long Eddy, Deposit, Susquehanna, and Great Bend.

ROOSEVELT'S BIRTHDAY.

Suffern, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Governor Roosevelt was in especially high spirits today, which fact he attributed to his satisfaction with the demonstration in New York last night and the occurrence of his forty-third birthday. Coming together, when passing through Passaic, the governor was cheered by a large party of workmen employed in an iron foundry. One of the men displayed a large piece of brown paper on which was inscribed in large black letters "Teddy is O. K." At Paterson also there was a large assembly of workmen, who cheered the governor. At Suffern the governor spoke briefly from the platform of his car. He said: "I appreciate you, the voters of the future, coming here (referring to a little company of boys with caps and campaign capes and American flags in their hands), and you guard the flag. You guard it because you honor it. Now let us of the older generation see to it that it is honored."

Hillburn, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Governor Roosevelt is going to the platform from which he was to speak at this place passed the ranks of a campaign club garbed like sailors, and said: "The good you guard it because you honor it. Now let us of the older generation see to it that it is honored."

ANSWERS FOR BRYAN.

Middletown, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Governor Roosevelt spoke here in the opera house to an audience which completely filled the seats and the standing room. The governor said in part: "I have hitherto asked Mr. Bryan in vain to answer whether if elected he will pay the outstanding obligations in gold or in silver; that is, whether he is the secretary of the treasury or the creditors who have the right to choose the coin. We should compel President Cleveland to protect the government by redeeming in silver when that is more convenient. We should compel President Cleveland to protect the government in either gold or silver at the option of the government."

Business of All Kinds Suspended For the Day.

Parade is Reviewed by Number of Republican Leaders.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Business was generally suspended in Chicago today and the city gave itself up to the "prosperity" parade. The prediction of pleasant weather was amply fulfilled, the brightly shining sun and the soft and balmy atmosphere, making an ideal autumnal day. Every industry of the city was represented in the floats that littered the business houses and office buildings were a badge on which are the words "McKinley was right."

TO KILL LOUBET.

Plot to Assassinate French President Discovered.

Lyon, Oct. 27.—The Nouvelle de Lyon says a plot to assassinate President Loubet has been discovered. It appears that a working electrician named Couerter burglariously entered the electric company's premises at Nimes, stealing 2,500 francs. He was tracked to Orange, near Lyon, where he was arrested. Documents found on his person revealed, the paper says, an anarchist conspiracy to assassinate President Loubet on his coming visit to Lyons to unveil a monument erected to the memory of President Carnot. Couerter is said to have committed the burglary in order to obtain funds to carry out his project. He has, it is added, confessed to the police who are now tracking him, and are watching anarchists in order to prevent any attempt to carry out the scheme.

WASHBURN IN DENVER.

Denver Sports Nervous About the Topeka Football Team.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 27.—Keen interest is being manifested in the football game to be played between Washburn college of Topeka and the Denver Athletic club. The Washburn team arrived yesterday noon and have been resting quietly at their hotel, getting over the effects of their ride. The day dawned with only a few clouds in the sky and gives promise of clearing up by the time the game is called. Not very much betting has been indulged in as yet. The Denver people not only bet on the game, but also on the Washburn players. Each of the Washburn players placed a bet of $100 on Washburn, but after that the Denver people bet on the Washburn team. The odds were three to one on Washburn. John McCarty has been trying to place a bet on the Washburn team for several years, but he has been unable to do so. The Washburn team will demand that Charles Mills of Denver, who was captain of the Washburn team for several years, be one of the officials to change at the halves. Mills is recognized as an authority on football and a man whose decisions will be just. The members of the party that left last night were F. E. Nipp, William Radloff, "Flick" Smith, Will Anderson, Joseph Goodwin, Kurtz Kellan, J. H. Godard, J. S. Coe, W. W. Webb and O. D. Wolf.

London, Oct. 27.—A dispatch received at the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, Friday, October 26, referring to the fighting of General Barton's column with General DeWet's forces October 25, says: "The British losses were heavier than our reports were. An additional 100 men were killed and three officers and 25 men were wounded. The Boers left 24 dead and 19 wounded on the field and 25 horses were mangled. Three Boers who held up their hands in token of surrender and fired on the British were court-martialed, convicted and sentenced to death. I have confirmed the sentence."

Weather Indications.
