To Be a Twenty Round Bout, Winner Take All.

BIG PURSE OF $20,000.

Date of the Mill Set For Middle of February.

Chicago Probable City Where Contest Will Be Held.

New York, Nov. 22.—James J. Corbett will today attach his signature to articles of agreement for a boxing contest with Champion Jim Jeffries.

All of this, so far as Corbett is concerned, was today arranged for.

The fight will be for twenty rounds and will come off on or about February 14.

Opening May Be Delayed. Cattlemen in Reservations Blocking Agents' Efforts.

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 22.—Dennis Flynn, delegate to congress from Oklahoma, in an interview with The Republic correspondent here tonight, said:

To Go to Baltimore. President and Mrs. McKinley Will Attend a Wedding.

Washington, Nov. 22.—President and Mrs. McKinley will go to Baltimore on Saturday to witness the marriage of Miss Lillian Gary, daughter of ex-Pastmaster General and Mrs. Gary and Robert C. Taylor.

Another Texas Tragedy. Georgetown, Tex., Nov. 22.—Doctor M. P. Eubank was shot to death in front of a drug store, where he had his office.

SURPRISING RESULTS. A Simple Internal Remedy Makes Remarkable Cures of Catarrh.

People who have used sprays, inhalers, salves and washes for catarrh and have found how useless and inconvenient they are, will be agreeably surprised at results following the use of a pleasant internal remedy in tablet form.

HARVARD IN GRAND FORM. Crimson Players Demonstrate Remarkable Ability in Practice Game.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 22.—The Harvard eleven did some grand work in the practice periods yesterday afternoon, scoring three touchdowns and one goal from the field against the best scrub eleven that Coach Dibblee could muster.

THE THANKSGIVING GAME. Some Pointers as to the Relative Strength of K. U. and the Tigers.

The result of the Kansas-Nebraska game at Lawrence Saturday has furnished the best line on the capabilities and comparative strength of the Jay-hawks and the Missouri Tigers yet given this season.

ENTRIES AT THE NATIONAL HORSE SHOW.

Americans in every part of the country are interested strongly in this elite equine event of the closing century, now crowding even the mammoth metropolis of the Western world with an enormous assemblage of society folk and sportsmen.

Dibblee's team played against Yale two years ago. Captain Daly gave his signals carefully and then he made his own plays do lively work when the plays were started.

BROAD IN NEW YORK. The Kid Says McGovern Is an Awful Puncher.

New York, Nov. 22.—Kid Broad, of Cleveland, who is in New York, talking today of his fight in Chicago with Jerry McGovern, said that he has never met any one who could hit as hard as McGovern.

There is no truth in the story that Broad has been matched with McGovern for another fight, said Macias today, "or that there is an understanding between Sam Harris and myself to that effect."
