"DAD" ALEXANDER CRAZY.

Officers Believed the Old Colored Man Is Insane.

William Alexander, an old colored man better known as "Dad" Alexander, was tried in the probate court this morning.

Alexander has been hostler for W. H. Davis and not long ago was driving Mr. Davis to his office when the team ran away. The testimony was that Alexander is falling mentally. Last Monday evening he called on Sheriff Cook and said he wanted a warrant which the governor had sent him after.

"You're crazy," said Sheriff Cook. "No, I'm not," said "Dad." To prove it the sheriff locked him up and this morning he was tried before a jury and pronounced insane.

PLEASANT THANKSGIVING.

The weather bureau promises a fair day.

The weather bureau promises clear and pleasant weather for Thanksgiving with no chances of snow.

The spots on the weather map have been wiped away until there is nothing to indicate anything but sunshine and fresh, appetizing weather. The forecast sent out today is "fair tonight and Thursday." The maximum temperature up to noon today was 37 and the minimum 31. The wind has been west blowing eight miles an hour.

An excellent entertainment was given last evening at Lukens' opera house by the pupils of Grant school for the Grant school picture fund. The programme included drills, recitations and songs. The boys won a prize for their efforts to gain admittance. Over $30 was realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen, who were en route to their home in Horton from a visit in Kansas City, stopped between trains yesterday and took dinner with Mrs. N. A. Faus, of 119 Van Buren street. Mr. and Mrs. Allen are the parents of W. I. Allen, formerly assistant general manager of the Rock Island road.

Miss Ethel Lewis left for Emporia this afternoon to visit her mother and since over Thanksgiving Miss Lewis' mother lived at Alvin, Texas, near Galveston, and was severely injured in the big storm.

When Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Courtney returned to their home, 313 Quincy street, about 7 o'clock last evening, they were surprised to find a man lying on the front porch. He was a short, heavy-set

USED HOT COFFEE.

Mrs. Phillips Says Her Husband Tried to Scald Her.

Clementine I. Phillips has filed suit for divorce in the district court from Doris Phillips.

The grounds for divorce are set forth as follows: In August, 1899, the couple married. Mr. Phillips has used bad language toward his wife and "at many times during the time has abused said plaintiff by cursing and swearing and using profane and vulgar language and has repeatedly called her wife names and ordered her to leave him and the house. He threatened her life and raised such a disturbance that a police officer had to be called. At a day previous he threw a skillet and attempted to strike the plaintiff and at another time attempted to scald her with hot coffee."

Booming Candidate Early.

Mayor Drew and Councilman Warner, Miller, Snattinger, Swenson, Weber and Elliott, and City Officers Squires, Snyder and Hale, went to the governor's office this morning and recommended the appointment of C. H. Titus as commissioner of elections. The governor told the city officers that he would remember their recommendation and when the time came to make the appointment he would consider what they had said in favor of Mr. Titus. He did not say who he would appoint, but said that he hoped the Republicans of Topeka would get together on the man they wanted to fill the position.

DAY OF THANKS.

Thanksgiving Services in Many Churches Tomorrow.

Under the auspices of the Ministerial Union special union Thanksgiving services will be held in several of Topeka's churches tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The special union service of the churches has been a feature of Topeka church work for years, and has always been under the auspices of the Ministerial Union. In most of the churches special music has been arranged for in addition to the regular church services.

The services for the people residing in the southwest portion of the city will be at the Central Congregational church. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Mr. Jackson of the Euclid Avenue M. E. church. Miss Ethel Davis will sing a solo.

Services for the central portion of the city will be at the First Christian church, on Topeka avenue. Rev. Mr. Ott of the English Lutheran church will make the address.

The services for North Topeka will be at the Christian church, corner of Kious street and Central avenue. Rev. Mr. Stavelly of the M. E. church will make the morning address. It was formerly planned to give this service in the M. E. church but owing to the fact that the M. E. church was damaged by fire only last week other arrangements were made necessary.

Services in Oakland will be held in the Oakland Presbyterian church. The Rev. Mr. Seaman of the M. E. church will preach.

The Swedish Lutherans of the city will meet at the Swedish Lutheran church, corner of Fourth avenue and Tyler street. The sermon will be given by Rev. Mr. Herenius, the pastor. Special sacred concert will be given in the church in the evening.

When Run Down

Exhausted, nervous, irritable, and all out of sorts, there is nothing so gratefully received by the tired body as a soothing and refreshing tonic. And when, with such a tonic is combined a brain and nerve food and medicine that adds permanent strength and vivacity to the whole nervous system, you reap a double benefit. It is just such results that are obtained from DR. MILES' NERVINE, the great brain and nerve medicine.

"My eldest daughter, who is a seamstress, was all run down, unable to work, could not sleep and was troubled with nervousness in the worst way. She began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and was benefited from the very start. When she had used two bottles her health was entirely restored." H. CLEMMERT, Rochester, Minn.
