IT'S DIFFERENT NOW. Japan Not to Be Censured For Quarantine Violations. Washington, July 13.—The negotiations between the state department and the Japanese authorities relative to the alleged quarantine discrimination against the Japanese in California and Colorado are coming to a close as the fears of bubonic plague in the west have largely died out, and the necessity for rigid quarantine has disappeared. Under such circumstances the diplomatic discussion, which at times has been quite sharp, has lost most of its point and it probably will be brought to a close by an expression of regret on the part of Japanese officials that there was any occasion for discrimination and the hope that in the future treaty guarantees will be observed. ARE NOW LIEUTENANTS. Philippine Soldiers Advanced For Good Behavior. Washington, July 13.—The following enlisted men who have rendered excellent service in the ranks in the Philippines have been given commissions as second lieutenants: Sergeant Major J. R. Blackburn, Forty-ninth volunteer infantry; Company Sergeant George W. Wilson, Thirty-sixth volunteer infantry; Battalion Sergeant John A. Brown, Thirty-sixth volunteer infantry; First Sergeant Thomas Embury, Thirty-seventh volunteer infantry, and Battalion Sergeant Major Allan I. Crockett, Twenty-seventh volunteer infantry. These men served in the regiments in which they have been commissioned. STOLE EXPRESS ORDERS. O. P. Dillon Arrested For Carrying Thermoforming Documents. Chicago, July 13.—O. P. Dillon was arrested in this city early today, charged with being one of the burglars who robbed the American Express company at Storm Lake, Iowa, of blank orders, which could be filled out to aggregate $20,000. The theft was committed a week ago. Dillon with a companion, came to Chicago four days ago, and was employed as a telegraph operator. Since the burglary was discovered special officers for the express company have followed both men from Iowa. Dillon's companion escaped. Both Were Drowned. Springfield, Ill., July 13.—Louis Merker, a well known resident of Springfield, and William Dallman of Petersburg, were drowned while rowing on the Sangamon river near Petersburg. Merker went down at once and Dallman, who was an expert swimmer, went to his aid and was pulled to the bottom by Merker, both being drowned. Death From Extreme Heat. New York, July 13.—John H. Edmonds, 35 years of age, an architect, died suddenly in a contractor's office in this city today after complaining of the heat. He was born in Cleveland and is said to have designed the Auditorium hotel, Chicago.

HE WAS NOT PAID Eastern Manager of Sheldon Edition Makes Trouble.

Herbert Houston Claimed $5,700 Due on Account. ATTORNEY WAS HERE. Collected $3,000 in Cash Before He Went Home. Dell Keizer Talks About the Controversy. The troubles caused by the Sheldon edition of the Capital are not yet over. Only this week Judge S. W. Vandervert who is a partner of S. M. Gardenhire in New York was here with blood in his eye and a demand for money in his hand. He got the money. Judge Vandervert was the representative of Herbert S. Houston, the man who managed the eastern business of the Sheldon edition and who worked up the sentiment among the Christian Endeavor societies through which the circulation reached into the hundreds of thousands. Mr. Houston also interested the advertisers in the east who would patronize a "Christian Daily" and was in fact the eastern head of the Sheldon edition. He was to be paid of course and paid well and it was stipulated that he was to have 25 per cent of the net proceeds. His bill was accordingly for the neighborhood of $7,000 and he was paid a part of the sum before Dell Keizer received the money. The bill was still a balance of $5,700 due him. Mr. Houston did not get this money and after waiting some time he employed Judge Vandervert to come to Topeka and take the necessary steps to make the collection. The attorney was prepared to enforce his demands though his movements were attended by the most absolute secrecy. Judge Vandervert threatened to apply to the district court for a receiver for the paper unless a settlement was made at once and a lively time ensued. The managers of the paper finally raised $3,000 which was paid to Judge Vandervert and he left Topeka with this money for Mr. Houston and a promise that the rest would be paid soon. During the Sheldon week the business management of the Topeka Capital was in charge of Dell Keizer. Since that time Mr. Keizer has retired from the Capital company, and when Judge Vandervert presented his claim this week it was claimed that it was through negligence on the part of the former business manager that the debt had not been looked after.

This Mr. Keizer emphatically denies. When asked today he said concerning the matter: "When I left the business management of the Capital there was sufficient money in the treasury to pay Mr. Houston. He was not paid within the time specified in his contract for the reason that adjustments had to be made with several advertisers. There were dozens of trifles securely tied up so that no one knew what they were buying. A punch bowl was placed in a convenient spot for the refreshment of the guests, and late in the evening ices and cakes were served. Those present were: Miss Etta Burck, Miss Pearl Bridge, Miss Agnes Budge, Miss Octavia Greenwood, Miss Maud Van Houten, Miss Blanche Bear, Miss Erol Bismuth, Miss Jennie Prescott, Miss Madeline Shull, Miss Elizabeth Gavitt, Miss Margaret Gilliland, Mr. Sheldon Wentworth, Mr. Victor Martin, Mr. Lawrence Banks, Mr. George Clark, Mr. Jay Farnsworth, Mr. Earl Gank, Mr. Lou Wingert, Mr. Frank Barkley, Mr. Keizer, Mr. Nate Thompson, Mr. Otto.

A Birthday Party. Mrs. E. S. Rice entertained a large company of little people Thursday for four until seven, in honor of her daughter Mildred's seventh birthday. Games, cake eating and recitations made the time pass all too quickly for the little guests. The lawn was prettily decorated for the occasion, a canopy over the entrance of large flags and under this were cushions and cosy corners where the children might rest. Refreshments were served in the dining room. Rice was assisted by Mrs. Reader of Chicago and Miss Blanche West. The invited guests were Mildred Hill, Gladys Gordon, Jennie Maxwell, Katie Wilson, Katie Bennett, Lois Poindexter, Abbie Troup, Mary Dallas Gage, Pearl Hoover, Beatrice Clark, Marguerite Chapman, Gertrude Anderson, Jane Gage, Ruth Foster, Miriam Foster, Frances Walsh, Edna Connor, Mildred Reading of Chicago, Belle Holcraft, Kimball Poindexter, Clara Boone, Forest Boone, Judson Troup, Kenneth Troup, Mary H. The Cronia club, which is composed of twelve young ladies gave an enjoyable porch party Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Margaret Gilliland. The lawn as well as the porch was fitted up with pleasant little cosy corners and brightly lighted with Japanese lanterns. An auction was an interesting feature of the evening; each guest was given a certain number of beans to use as money and one of the young men called out the bidding. There were dozens of trifles securely tied up so that no one knew what they were buying. A punch bowl was placed in a convenient spot for the refreshment of the guests, and late in the evening ices and cakes were served. A BRIGHT ALDERMAN. Scored to Vote For a Measure Paying $2,000 When Another Offered $10,000. Chicago, July 13.—In the trial today of Jacob L. Kesner, a prominent merchant, charged with offering ex-Alderman Mangler a bribe to vote for an ordinance affecting the interests of the General Electric Street Railway company, Mayor Harrison was the chief witness. He testified that on the day before the general electric street railway ordinance came up for consideration in the council and for attempted passage over his veto, he talked with former Alderman Mangler, and had said in substance: "Bully, of course you are going to stand with me in this matter." To this, he said, Mangler replied, in substance, that he might as well understand that the company is offering the boys $2,000 a vote in favor of the ordinance while the Chicago City Railway company is offering $10,000 for votes against it. I suppose a vote against the ordinance is the proper thing, and I will stick.

WANTS ONE LIKE OURS. Texas Would Like to Have an Agricultural Department. J. H. Connell, professor of agriculture and in charge of the experiment stations of Texas, has written to Secretary F. D. Roosevelt, asking that an effort be made in Texas to establish a department of agriculture like the one in Kansas. Mr. Connell also compliments the department upon the reports and agricultural literature which is prepared and issued by Mr. Curtis, and says: "The reports of the board among those which come to us, and we appreciate and value them very highly."

TROUBLE WITH WIFE. Result is That Ed. Wood is in Police Court. Ed Wood was arrested last night charged with disturbing the peace and at the police court this morning entered a plea of not guilty. As Officer Botham was walking along East Fourth street yesterday evening he heard that Wood was beating his wife. They live in the rear of the Burns boarding house on East Fourth and upon entering the place the officer found that Wood had reason for his anger. Wood is a barber and works in a shop near Seventh and Quincy. He has had trouble with his wife before and they have separated twice. He came back from Kansas City two weeks ago and things have not been moving smoothly, so the officer was informed, and last night their troubles reached a climax.

QUEER AFFLICTION. Mrs. Ackerman Suffering From Paralysis of the Oesophagus. Mrs. Louis F. Ackerman, wife of a Santa Fe shop employe, who lives at 2024 Santa Fe street, is slowly starving to death. The muscles of the oesophagus, which control the act of swallowing, have become paralyzed, and it is only at long intervals and with the greatest difficulty that she is able to take food of any kind. The paralysis of the muscles has been in progress for the past two years, and the amount of food taken has gradually decreased until she is now unable to eat. She is now in the Stormont hospital, although there is no hope of correcting the condition. Mrs. Ackerman's death is simply a question of the paralysis progressing to the stage where swallowing is no longer possible. When she was first affected she was apparently in excellent health in every other way.
