NO NECESSITY FOR IT.

Gen. Grosvenor Thinks There is No Cause for Haste.

New York, July 17.—Congressman Charles E. Grosvenor of Ohio said last night that he knew of no particular necessity for President McKinley's return to Washington.

"There will be an extra session of congress," General Grosvenor was asked. "No," he answered. "I see no reason for haste. Senate E. Payne, chairman of the committee on ways and means; John Dalzell, of the committee on rules; and about thirty other members are in Europe. There we need more of the true condition of affairs. That is bound to come soon. I guess everybody is reasonably sure that every foreigner in Pekin was killed and nothing would be gained by marching on that city now."

"What of the condition of affairs at Tientsin?" "There again," replied General Grosvenor, "there is room for doubt. Some say the allies began the attack; it was a great mistake if they did. Every day Minister Wu at Washington is issuing some kind of statement, but in every one of them there is the same purpose cunningly presented to throw the responsibility on the foreigners for the present state of affairs. In the July number of a leading magazine Minister Wu has a twenty-five page article telling of the great love China bears for America and asserting that this country should reciprocate. I don't think the Chinese are so stupid. They are well equipped with modern armaments and ammunition. Now she is using them against Germany. It is too bad that the navies of the world cannot be utilized in the present trouble. While I believe the government will act promptly and wisely, I do not see how the matter can be improved by undue haste. Better know all the facts; then we can proceed advisedly."

TO SEIZE LI HUNG.

British Plan to Make a Hostage of the Viceroy. New York, July 17.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from London says: In the lobby of the house of commons last night it was declared that the government had issued orders for the seizure of Li Hung Chang and for his imprisonment at Hong Kong pending his deportation to some place in India, in the event of his carrying out his project of proceeding northward by sea, in compliance with the summons issued for his arrest from Pekin. English gunboats and cruisers are hovering off the coast of the province of Kwan Tung with orders to intercept any vessel, no matter what flag it flies, having the viceroy on board and to secure his person. It is resolved to hold Li Hung Chang as a hostage of the British government. It appears that Sir Henry Blake, the governor of Hong Kong, has obtained strong proof that the viceroy of Canton in spite of his professions of friendship for the foreigners, is in thorough sympathy and league with his old enemy, the Chinese emperor. It is reported that Sir Henry Blake has 50,000 Mauser rifles and a quantity of quick-firing guns have reached Canton and that the viceroy of Canton has to have, with the knowledge and approval of the viceroy, been judiciously distributed among the officers and men of the army stationed there against the foreigners.

CAMPAIGN AT IMUS.

Gen. Fred Grant Commends American Troops Under Him. Washington, July 17.—Brigadier General Fred D. Grant, U. S. V., in submitting to the war department an interesting account of the fighting around Imus, in Cavite province, from September 29 to October 8 last, closes by saying: "As the officers and men of the command behaved well in all engagements, unless I except the movement of Captain Hollis' battalion of the Fifth artillery from Imus on October 2, which was feebly and not well conducted. Some deserve special attention for their bravery and energy. Among them I would mention Captain Kelly, of the Fifth artillery, who conducted the move against Hinacayan, October 6; Lieut. Knabenshue, of the Fifth artillery, who commanded the scouts during the whole time; Lieut. Fenton, Fifth cavalry A. D. C., who conducted a company through from Bacoor to Imus, October 2, and was much exposed in the fights which occurred October 2, 3 and 6; and Captain Cowles, who commanded the reconnaissance on October 3 which resulted in the fight at St. Nicholas. Major Lee and Captains King and Fuller, of Gen. Lawton's staff, who were with me on October 3 and 6, deserve special mention for their gallantry and my personal thanks for the assistance they rendered me."

LITTLE HOPE LEFT

For Any Missionaries That Have Not Already Reached the Coast.

New York, July 17.—While hope for the missionaries in Pekin was practically abandoned several days ago, there still remained a gleam of hope that the little band reported on July 5 as at Bao Ting Fu might have escaped the fate of their colleagues in the capital and that some who were reported to have gone to Pekin were detained and are still at their stations. But the lack of further news has caused grave anxiety for the safety of those at Bao Ting Fu. The Belgian engineers who fled in the first part of June and reached the coast, and the missionaries had taken refuge in the house of the Chinese ruler but the uprising started in the Shan Tung province and the boxers, in order to reach the capital, marched northward through and by Bao Ting Fu which lies 100 miles southwest of Pekin and is the capital of the province of Chi Li. Unless arrested by the Chinese rulers, there seems little chance that they have escaped.
