HAD A GAY WEEK.
Young Swell From Dixie Spent $31,000 Seeing Gotham Sights.

New York, April 2.—Malon Walton Russell, scion of a prominent southern family, has come to grief in New York after a spasm of sight-seeing that carried everything before it.
Russell is a son of Col. Fleming Russell of Louisiana, a salt mine operator and a partner of ex-Senate Senator Miles, the millionaire mining operator of New Orleans.

Young Russell was employed in the Cotton Exchange there and was contented with life until one day he won $2,700 on a horse race. In two weeks he won $21,000.
Then Russell packed his trunk and came to New York. He left New Orleans on Feb. 23, losing $1,000 at poker en route. Jumping into a cab he drove to the Waldorf and took rooms at $3 a day. He wanted to be shown to a "swell" club house. Cabman Hennessy drove him to Canfield's resort and Russell played faro until 5 o'clock the next morning. He left the place $3,000 loser. In the evening Russell did the tenderloin and three nights in the Haymarket cost Russell $300 and a collection of jewelry.

The next night he ran afoul of some subterfuge. Then his money took wings. He tried another shy at the faro bank, which cost him $2,500. Dropping into the Delavan he opened wine for the pugilists, who congratulate there. He was introduced to Sharkey and later to Corbett and Kid McCoy. After a week more of wine, faro bank, subterfuges and more wine, the young man from the south found himself penniless. He appealed to any of his new friends for a loan. Even his last ring had been given away.

After walking around for nearly two hours, Russell bethought him of some change he had received on the cars and reaching in his pocket found 40 cents. He went into a saloon and bought a drink called for a drink. His check was 15 cents. After that he soon reached Mills' hotel No. 1 and in the morning invested his last nickel in "coffee and slinkers." He could not telegraph home, as the agent would not send his message collect. Mr. Russell returns home today through the efforts of a friend.

SHOT FROM BEHIND.
Dr. B. F. Shaw of Kansas City Killed by His Brother-in-Law.
Kansas City, April 2.—While playing with his motherless child, six years old, Hazel Marie Shaw, yesterday afternoon, Dr. B. F. Shaw was shot in the head and instantly killed by his dejected brother-in-law, John McKinnon, at the latter's mother's house, 1617 Forest avenue. The murderer is 25 years old, while the victim was 46 years old. Dr. Shaw was visiting with his child at 1617 Forest avenue yesterday afternoon about 7 o'clock. He had her in his lap and was reading some humorous writings to her, when his brother-in-law entered the room from a door behind him, and placing a .38-caliber revolver behind his head, discharged the weapon, the bullet striking the left side of the skull near the ear, and plowing a hole through the skull, coming out just back of the right ear. The bullet dropped on the floor and he picked up later. Ex-Sheriff Hittington, who lives two doors beyond, heard a cry of murder, and rushed to the scene of the shooting. As he entered the house he saw John McKinnon standing in the house with the smoking revolver in his hand. He held him until the police

MANY WILL STRIKE. SHELDON'S MISTAKE.

Carpenters, Decorators and Other Tradesmen to Go Out in New York.
New York, April 2.—Many strikes in the building trades will begin today, but the situation is not yet regarded as serious in view of the fact that a number of the bosses are yielding.
In Brooklyn, 1,500 carpenters will demand 45 cents per hour, but it is doubtful if a strike will immediately follow the refusal of the terms by the bosses.
At a meeting of carpenters held Sunday it was said that 75 of 100 employers had already agreed to the new scale of wages. If necessary the affiliated trades will be called out on sympathetic strikes and in that case the building operations of the Bronx may be seriously retarded.

A SHOT AT BRYAN.

Perry Belmont Thinks Democrats Could Win With Right Man.
New York, April 2.—Perry Belmont, who supported Palmer and Buckner in 1896, thinks that the Democrats have a great opportunity to elect a president. He said last night: The Republican party is assailing and the Democrats are defending the constitution and the supreme court. On that issue the Democratic party can win, provided it selects candidates in whom the country can have confidence. Those who have themselves attacked the integrity of the supreme court, standing on the Chicago platform, are disqualified from leading in such an issue. The most violent criticism of the administration that is being made is the assertion that even the unsuccessful candidate of 1896 is preferable now. If that is the case how assured is Democratic success upon new issues with a candidate representing them.

GOES AS A SAILOR.

A Millionaire's Son to Be an Assistant Storekeeper at $5 a Week.
New York, April 2.—Although his fortune is estimated at $500,000 and that of his father at $1,000,000, Emil H. Rosenblatt will leave today on board the transport, Sumner, to serve for a year in the Philippine Islands. He is a salary of $30 a month. His duties will be to give out supplies to the crew and the soldiers, and often to do manual labor. In spite of this he seems perfectly happy, and accepted the position for no other cause than his love for the sea and his desire to serve his country.

ELMIRA CITY CHAMBERLAIN BUNDY.

Elmira, N. Y., April 2.—City Chamberlain Seymour Lowman says that the shortage of his predecessor, Frank E. Bundy, will undoubtedly reach $75,000, according to the additional discrepancies he has discovered during the past week. Many friends of Bundy, it is also discovered, have successfully escaped paying their taxes by making promises which they have never filled, and a number of these delinquents will never have to pay, as the tax bills are outlawed.

MOUNTAIN BATTERIES IN ACTION.

At close quarters these small guns are of great service. They are now being actioned a little before the taking of Bloemfontein.

CRITICISES MANSFIELD. KANSAS CITY DEFEATED.

Atlanta, Ga., April 2.—Joseph Jefferson, who has been playing to immense audiences here today, was in a capital humor and discussed many topics of interest to the profession. In some manner the conversation took a turn in the direction of Richard Mansfield and the great actor had something interesting to say about the younger one, who has during the last few years made such a name for himself. Mr. Jefferson said: "Mansfield, I think is clever at times, but at others quite artificial. His intensity, however, is marked and it attracts me. He over-acts and of course that disturbs me, because it wakens in me the thought that I would not play the part that way, but be quieter, more conservative at such times. His over-acting probably springs from intensity and time may give more artistic control. Still, as I said before, Mansfield's intensity is attractive."

FITZGERALD QUESTIONS.

Democratic Congressman to Call on Secretary Gage for Facts.
Washington, April 2.—Representative Fitzgerald has prepared a resolution calling on Secretary Gage for the names of the banks that have been handling government funds in Porto Rico, Cuba, Hawaii and the Philippine Islands. The banks that will probably be selected by him as government depositories in those islands if the Sibley bill, which is said to be backed by the National City Bank of New York and kindred institutions, should become a law.

SEVERAL SMALL FIRES.

Department Answers Three Alarms Within a Few Hours.
A still alarm called the hose company from station No. 3 Sunday night to a point near Third street and the Shungnunga. The damage was small.
Saturday night at 7:30 an alarm from box 13 called the department to the two story brick building at 216 Kansas avenue, occupied by J. Dyal. A stove pipe through a skylight started a small fire which was extinguished with but little damage. At 8:05 the department was called to 315 Monroe street where an overturned lamp caused a small fire in the home of Mrs. Dora Nichols. Damage $10.

ALASKA MURDER MYSTERY.

Seattle, Wash., April 2.—Passengers arriving from Skagway by the City of Seattle say that Detective McGuire, of Strickerton, who is working on the Reife-Clayson-Olson murder mystery, believes that a fourth man was killed with the party and his body buried. McGuire, it is said, thinks that the partner of O'Brien, the suspected murderer, was the fourth victim. Graves is missing and her body Saturday afternoon, though it came out to the coast immediately after the crime was committed. The supposition is that O'Brien murdered his partner.

EMILY COGHIAN INSANE.

New York, April 2.—Miss Emily Coghian, sister of Rose Coghian, the actress, and herself well known on the stage, was taken to Bellevue hospital today apparently insane. She has been ill several days and yesterday she became so violent that her physician directed that she be sent to Bellevue.

IN TOPEKA.

Every Claim is Backed by Local Testimony.
Mr. Calvin Brewer, real estate dealer, of 625 Jefferson street, says: "Ordinary Anglo-Saxon fails to convey any idea of what I suffered from my back when on the Texas Pacific R. R., engineer between Fort Worth and Texarkana. I have often when I stooped to oil my engine suffered excruciatingly, and when on the engine the least jar sent twinges of pain clean from my loins to the top of my head. The trouble finally forced me to give up my position, and when weakness of the kidneys, particularly observable at night, was added to former troubles, my condition was not one to be envied. Now if the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Rowley & Snow's drug store, corner of Sixth street and Kansas avenue, had not brought me positive relief, I never would have followed up the treatment, neither could I be induced to recommend the preparation nor endorse its claims. Send anyone to me for minute particulars of my experience with an opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills."
For sale by Rowley & Snow, 660 Kansas avenue, and all other dealers. Price, 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
