Mrs. Pinkham

The one thing that qualifies a person to give advice on any subject is experience — experience creates knowledge.

No other person has so wide an experience with female ills nor such a record of success as Mrs. Pinkham has had.

Over a hundred thousand cases come before her each year. Some personally, others by mail. And this has been going on for 20 years, day after day and day after day.

Twenty years of constant success — think of the knowledge thus gained! Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman with such an experience, especially when it is free.

If you are ill get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once—then write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

D. A. R. Entertained.

The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and potted plants, and at the close of the afternoon refreshments were served.

The feature of the afternoon was an informal talk by Mrs. Thompson on the D. A. R. convention she attended in Washington during the winter. Her talk was not confined strictly to D. A. R. news, but included interesting facts about noted places visited by her during the winter. Mrs. Thompson is a charming speaker, and her talk was much enjoyed, as were also vocal numbers by Mrs. Waldemar v. Dahlen. There were twenty-four guests present.

A Kitchen Shower.

Miss Lillian Whitelock has been the guest of honor at many delightful affairs during the past week, but one of the most enjoyable was a kitchen shower given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Barnes.

There were about sixteen guests present, and each one took with her a kitchen utensil, securely tied up. One by one these packages were passed around, and each one guessed what they contained, after which Miss Whitelock opened them. There were a great many useful articles, and, strange as it may seem, no duplicates.

During the afternoon musical numbers by Miss Vera Low, Mrs. George Port Ashton, Miss Helen Thomason and Miss Winifred Wagnerrr were much enjoyed. Mrs. Barnes was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. S. J. Bear, and Miss Augusta Flintom, of Lawrence. A dainty two-course luncheon closed a very pleasant afternoon.

Is Investigating Charges Against Lieut. Com. Colwell.

New York, June 16.—A special dispatch to the Herald from Washington, says:

A court of inquiry, of which Captain F. A. Cook and Medical Director C. H. White are members, is sitting for this purpose in Washington navy yard.

Lieutenant Commander Colwell received orders to report on a certain date in the United States preliminary to going to the Philippines. He failed to report and sent an explanation that his condition was such, in consequence of an operation, that it was inadvisable for him to travel. It is alleged that he subsequently placed himself under medical treatment in order to justify his explanation.

The department believed that Lieutenant Commander Colwell had tried to get out of his orders so as to remain longer in London. The court is expected to submit its findings in a few days.
